CAROWINDS OPEN
FALL WEEKENDS
UNTIL OCT. 15

The daily operating season at Carowinds ended on August 20, but the 73-acre theme park will remain open on weekends (Saturday and Sunday) until October 15. "Actually, the fall is a very pleasant time to visit the park," stated Director of Marketing Wilson Flohr. "The weather is cooler and the lines are a lot shorter." Among the most popular attractions that guests will find at Carowinds on fall weekends are rides such as Thunder Road and White Lightnin', numerous shops and food facilities, and big-name entertainment in the 9,000-seat outdoor Paladium amphitheater through September 16. Neil Sedaka will be performing at Carowinds on Saturday and Sunday, August 26 and 27; the Captain and Tennille on Saturday and Sunday, September 2 and 3; and Larry Gatlin on Saturday, September 16. Members of the Carowinds Fun Club can present their membership card at the Carowinds ticket booths in the fall for a 10 per cent discount off the front gate admission into the park. The Fun Club card is also good for discounts at the Carowinds stables, Frog Creek Campground and selected area motels and restaurants. If you do not have a Carowinds Fun Club card, please contact the Administration Office at extension 119 for details. Carowinds is located on the North Carolina/South Carolina border ten miles south of Charlotte on I-77.
