SEMESTER SOCIAL

Please reserve the following dates on your calendar for three social occasions: Friday, November 3, 1978 --- Friday, December 1, 1978 and Wednesday, December 20, 1978 - Christmas Party.

Tentative plans are as follows: November 3, cocktails and buffet at the Santa Maria Restaurant. December 1, cocktails and prime rib dinner at the Old Pros. If we enjoy the Santa Maria, we may go there for the Christmas Party. They have a nice private dining area and bar for our use.

ADVANCE
REGISTRATION
C.A.R.

Advisors/Faculty can assist students by publicizing and encouraging participation in Computer Assisted Registration (C.A.R.) for the Spring 1979 Semester during the period Wednesday, October 11, through Tuesday, October 31. Students who participate get first choice of available classes and also avoid the crowds on January 9, 1979, when regular registration will occur. They also will receive their schedule in mid-November so as to know well ahead of time when their classes occur. Please announce this in your classes and support this program. It should also be noted that the more students who sign up for C.A.R., the easier it is for divisions/departments to anticipate student class loads, and adjust to student section demand.

EXCUSED STUDENTS

These students participated in a museum visit of Anthropology 331 on Wednesday, September 27 from 12:30 - 2:00 p.m. and should be officially excused from their classes: Dickie Williams, James Meyer, Shama Johnson, Steve Ammons, Henry Bell, Bill Fowler, Velma Westmoreland and Rick Rickenbaker.

EXTENSION CHANGE

Please note that Carolyn Cox extension is 135 and Carl King is 131 and 171.

TOAD THE MINE

A mime artist, TOAD THE MIME, will appear at Coastal on Tuesday, October 10. A noontime performance and an 8:00 p.m. performance will be featured in the Lecture Hall. The programs will be free to Coastal students, faculty, and staff. General admission is $1.00.

TOAD was a regular character on NBC-TV's LAUGH-IN in the Fall of 1977. She was also featured on the October 22, 1977 NBC-TV special, THE GREAT AMERICAN LAUGH-OFF. In addition to having worked with many comedians, among them Steve Martin, she has appeared on the MERV GRIFFIN, DINAH SHORE, MIKE DOUGLAS and NANCY WILSON shows, and as far away England, Africa, and Japan. On the stage, she has played Jeannie in the rock musical, "Hair", as well as in such diverse American Conservatory Theatre productions as "Hamlet", "The Crucible", and "The Devil's Disciple".

In addition to the usual assorted members of the animal kingdom expected in any mime's performance, TOAD's current scene approach features people meeting in a singles bar, airline stewardesses, gangsters, and other contemporary Superstars. The whole show is enriched by sound effects and music which accompany TOAD's body cartoons and are provided by Mr. Chris Huson, who specializes in jazz piano, Moog Synthesizer, and assorted snorts, toots, and whistles.

This program is being sponsored by the Faculty Cultural Affairs Committee and campus Union.

The comedy team of "Edmonds and Curley" will perform a noontime program in the Student Union Building Lecture Hall on Thursday, October 12. The program is free to all Coastal students, faculty, and staff. This program is sponsored by Campus Union.
