COMMITTEE MEETING

There will be a Student Affairs Committee meeting on Tuesday, January 23rd at 12:00 noon in the College Center, Room 201. Please attend.

FACULTY SENATE

Please have all items of business to be considered on the Faculty Senate Agenda sent to Dennis Wiseman in the Academic Building no later than noon on January 25th. The next Faculty Senate meeting will be held in Room 111 of the Academic Building on February 1.

PHOTOCOPY
AUDITRONS

The departmental auditrons that have been issued for use with the Media Center photocopier can not be used with the library's copier. The machines are funded by entirely different accounts; using the auditrons on various machines plays havoc with record keeping. In the library, please use the charge sheet at the circulation desk, instead.

OCHIS

The Student Development Division announces the expansion of the Off Campus Housing Information Service (OCHIS). OCHIS is an information and education service dedicated to serving the students of Coastal Carolina College and is located in Room 206-C of the College Center, extension 208. It provides information on housing available to students, along with information on tenant's rights and responsibilities, and follow-up surveys of students throughout their occupancy of such housing. While this service can assume no responsibility for housing listings or assume responsibility for tenants or landlords, it is dedicated to working with students in behalf of their housing concerns. Persons desiring more information regarding housing available to Coastal students may call or visit the office and examine the Vacancy Book and other listings while using office telephones to contact housing renters. Persons having information regarding housing vacancies available to students are invited to call OCHIS, extension 208. Ms. Schatzie Caldwell coordinates this service.

NEW COLLEGE CENTER

The College Center is now in operation. Facilities in the College Center, available to students and/or faculty groups, include four conference rooms, one of which can serve as a private dining area (after March 1). Other areas of the building are available at times other than building operating hours which include lounge areas, dining area, and gameroom.

College Center facilities may be reserved through the office of the Director of the College Center. College Center space may be reserved by completing a "Reservation Request" (available in the office of the Director of the College Center) and submitting the request to Ms. Mary Harrison not less than one week prior to the date of the anticipated event. Ms. Harrison's office is located in the Student Development Center on the second floor of the College Center. The telephone extension is 207.
