ARTS AND CRAFTS

Faculty, students, and staff are invited to the next Waccamaw Arts & Crafts Guild meeting, Thursday, February 8, at 8 p.m., in the new College Center Lounge. Program will be by Jack Morris, Director of the Greenville County Museum of Art on the Museum's programs and policies. Questions are invited from the audience. Free admission. For information, please call Marianna Hamilton, Ext. 132.

SOCIAL OUTING

A choice of the overwhelming majority for the February 16th social event is to go to a seafood and oyster roast. Based upon the recommendation of our illustrious Academic Dean and resident gourmet, the decision has been made to go to the Galley Seafood House and Oyster Roast in the heart of downtown Murrells Inlet. Take the highway into town and you will find the restaurant on the left. Cocktails may be had during happy hour from 6:30 until 8:00. Dinner will begin at 8:00. Call Jim Branham at 162 or Jane Hansen at 113 indicating the number in your party by noon, Thursday, February 15.

HORRY COUNTY
HISTORY PROJECT

On Tuesday, February 13, the Independent Republic History Project will present Dr. Bruno Gujer, Associate Professor of History and Sociology, Coastal Carolina College and James S. Rogers, III. Dr. Gujer and Mr. Rogers will speak on the Social and Political History of Horry County, 1800-1876. Coastal Carolina students, faculty, and staff are invited to a special presentation at 2:00 p.m. in AC 104. The general public is invited to the 7:00 p.m. presentation in the Lecture Hall of the Fine Arts Building.
