ART DISPLAY AT COASTAL

Drawings and prints by art students at USC-Coastal Carolina College will be on display in the new College Center Gallery November 6-21. Paintings of Coastal students will be shown November 27 to December 13. You can receive more information by contacting the Art Department at Ext. 149 or 129.

Marianna Hamilton has just received Second Prize of $200 at the 1979 Fibers Competition Exhibit at Queens College, Charlotte, NC sponsored by the Charlotte Handweavers' Guild for North and South Carolina artists. Miss Hamilton will be included in a Four-person exhibit of batik wall hangings at the Gibbes Art Gallery, Charleston, SC for January, 1980. Interested students may sign up for CARTE 420B: Dyed and Printed Textiles from Miss Hamilton for Spring, 1980, semester, and produce their own screen printed fabrics and batiks. Call Ext. 129 for more information.

CEF TOURNEY ON NOVEMBER 10

The Third Annual Coastal Educational Foundation Golf Tournament will begin with a shotgun start at 9 AM, Saturday, November 10th at Myrtle Beach National Golf Club. The tourney, which is for amateur golfers, offers prizes in six categories, raffles and free snacks and drinks. The $25 entry fee is tax-deductible and covers the green fees. All proceeds will be used by the Coastal Educational Foundation to assist Coastal Carolina College. Register with College Relations Director Bill Baxley at Ext. 119.

CHRISTMAS PARTY PLANNED FOR DECEMBER 14TH

The 1979 Coastal Carolina College Christmas party is scheduled for Friday, December 14th at the College Center. A reception is scheduled for 6:30 PM with a buffet to follow.

The party will be presented for faculty, staff and administrators by the Horry County Higher Educational Commission and the Coastal Educational Foundation. Professor Jim Branham, who is coordinating the affair, says everyone who plans to attend the party must contact him (Ext. 162) or Jane Hansen (Ext.113) by noon on December 7th.

FACULTY-STAFF SOCIAL NOVEMBER 9TH

The faculty-staff social scheduled for Friday, November 9th, will be held at Chuck's Steak House on Highway 17 North and Bypass 317 exit. Participants may choose from four dinners which cost $7.25 each. Cocktails are at 6:30, with dinner or heavy hors d'oeuvres at 8 PM.

GROVES' ARTICLE PUBLISHED

An article by Coastal English Professor Gerald Groves is scheduled for publication in The American Scholar. Look for Professor Groves' article, "The Gregarious Hermit," in the autumn issue of the periodical.

'COCKS AT COASTAL SCRIMMAGE FURMAN

Frank McGuire's USC Gamecocks will battle the Furman University Paladians in a pre-season scrimmage at USC-Coastal Carolina College this Saturday, November 10th at 3 PM.

The scrimmage has become an annual event at Coastal Carolina College and will be preceded by a pre-season game between the Coastal Carolina Fighting Chanticleers and High Point College. The Chanticleers posted an 18-13 season record last year and with seven veterans returning Chanticleer Coach Russ Bergman hopes to be a challenging competitor in NAIA's District VI this year. The scrimmage between Coastal and High Point is scheduled for 1 PM.

The USC Gamecocks will attempt to bounce back from a mediocre 18-13 season last year to build an impressive record in Coach Frank McGuire's 16th and final year of coaching at USC. McGuire is reportedly due to end his 30-year coaching span to become a highly ranked public relations official for the University.

The scrimmages at Coastal this Saturday are hosted by Coastal's athletic department and the college's alumni association. The alumni will serve a chicken bog lunch beginning at 11:30 AM in Coastal's College Center.

Both basketball scrimmages will be played in Kimbel Gymnasium, inside Coastal's Williams-Brice Building. Both scrimmages are free.
