Coastal honors 15 volunteers during Service Awards Luncheon

Coastal has recognized 15 individuals for their commitment and dedication to the institution during the first Coastal Carolina College Service Awards Luncheon.

The awards presentation was held in conjunction with the college's 1993 Homecoming festivities Saturday, Feb. 27 and was sponsored by the Alumni Association.

In addition, award recipients were presented with signed resolutions from the S.C. House of Representatives recognizing them for their contributions to the college. Representatives Tom Keegan and Mark Kelley presented the resolutions.

Members of each of the college's 11 volunteer boards and support organizations nominated individuals from more than 200 members of the respective groups who exemplify commitment and dedication through their volunteerism on behalf of Coastal Carolina College.

Fred Sheheen, commissioner of the South Carolina Commission on Higher Education, delivered the keynote address.

More than 120 attended the luncheon. Recipients of the 1993 Service Awards are:

Athletic Hall of Fame

- Kirt D. Manwaring, Chanticleer baseball player (1983 to 1986), now starting catcher for the San Francisco Giants;
- Sherry Barnhill Jenerette, Lady Chant basketball player (1979 to 1983)
- Marion Anthony Whittington, Chanticleer basketball player (1979 to 1983)

CINO Club

- W. Cecil Brandon Jr. (president, Brandon Advertising), for establishing an annual scholarship tournament to benefit Coastal's golf program

Award nominations accepted

Nominations for the college's Faculty Academic Excellence Award and the Ronald D. Lackey Service Award are now being accepted. The awards will be presented during the college's annual Honors Convocation on Tuesday, April 27.

Faculty Academic Excellence Award

This academic excellence award recognizes graduating students who have accumulated a record of outstanding academic achievement. The following criteria must apply to students being nominated:

- graduating in spring, summer, or fall 1993;
- must have a 3.5 or above grade point average; and
- a completed nomination form, with a copy of the student's transcript from the Registrar's Office, and endorsed by a faculty member certifying academic excellence reflected by a "discipline-related activity."

Nominations will be reviewed, and the selections made, by a faculty committee representing each school at Coastal.

Eligible students may obtain the nomination forms in the Office of Academic Affairs (EMS 206.)

The Office of Academic Affairs is accepting nominations for this award until Monday, March 29 at 4:30 p.m.

For information, contact Chris Martin.

Ronald D. Lackey Service Award

Faculty, staff, and students may nominate senior students for this award.

Students eligible for this award must meet the following criteria:

- senior status and academic good standing;
- have distinguished themselves in conspicuous service to the campus;
- be involved significantly in campus organizations, groups, and activities;
- have played a leadership role in one or more campus organizations or services; and
- have contributed significantly to the quality of campus life.

A completed nomination form must be signed by both the candidate for nomination and the person nominating the student.

Nominations for this award will be accepted until Monday, March 22 at 5 p.m. Nominations forms may be obtained in the Office of Student Affairs.

A campus-wide vote for the recipient of this award will begin the week following the application deadline.

For more information, contact the Office of Student Affairs. ~

Kimbel Library receives "Academic Abstracts"

Kimbel Library has received Academic Abstracts on a 60-day trial basis.

Academic Abstracts covers 757 scholarly and general interest periodicals with abstracts and citations from 1984. In addition it has the capability to search journal articles by full text. Full text is completely searchable by word or phrase no matter where it appears in the article and which can be printed in its entirety on the printer.

The library also has the Academic Index which indexes approximately 377 scholarly and general interest journals. Lengthy author abstracts are available for journal titles (excluding reviews and newspaper articles.)

Faculty and staff are encouraged to come to Kimbel Library to try these products and let the library personnel know which system is preferred. ~

Coastal's high school math contest attracts more than 200 students

The 14th annual Mathematics Contest for High School Students attracted 223 students representing 23 schools from around the state and Tennessee. Dobyns-Bennett High School of Kingsport, Tenn., was the overall winner of the competition held at the college Feb. 12.

The contest was funded, in part, by a grant from GTE to Coastal Educational Foundation, Inc. The 1993 contest marks the second of a projected three-year sponsorship by GTE. The contest winner will be awarded $500 in scholarship funds derived from the GTE gift.

In addition, the Horry County Higher Education Commission will award the top finisher from Horry County a full tuition scholarship to attend Coastal and major in mathematics.

In addition to Dobyns-Bennett High School, participating South Carolina high schools included: Andrews, Aynor, Brookland-Cayce, Cardinal Newman, Conway, Hammond, Pee Dee Academy, Hemingway, Georgetown, South Florence, West Florence, North Myrtle Beach, Marion, Irmo, Manning, Socastee, Myrtle Beach, Green Sea Floyds, Loris, Wando, James Island and Johnsonville.

Students were given one-hour examinations consisting of written, objective questions. Participants competed for individual awards on two levels: Level I questions are taken from Algebra I, Algebra II, and Geometry; Level II questions are from Algebra, Geometry, Advanced Algebra, and Trigonometry. For each school, the top three scores in each level were added together to determine a team score. Schools were separated into two categories: Competition I for small schools and Competition II for large and private schools. An awards presentation followed the competition.

HPER to sponsor whitewater rafting trip

The Department of Health, Physical Education and Recreation will sponsor a whitewater rafting trip to the New River Gorge in West Virginia from Wednesday, March 17 to Friday, March 19.

The trip is limited to the first 12 persons to register. A nonrefundable deposit of $40 is needed to hold each space, and the balance of $139 is due by Thursday, March 11.

The trip includes two nights lodging in a motel, two days rafting in the New River Gorge in Class V whitewater, and transportation to and from West Virginia. Wetsuit rentals will be available for $10.

The New River is sometimes called the "Grand Canyon of the East" since its springtime flows often exceed those of the Colorado's famed Grand Canyon. The area is known for its scenic and challenging whitewater.

For more information, call Toby Mercer. ~
