TEACHER EDUCATION PROGRAM RECOGNIZED

The Teacher Education program at USC-Coastal Carolina has been nominated by the State Department of Education for entry into the 1980 edition of SHARE, a collection of innovative educational programs in South Carolina. SHARE is designed to promote an exchange of information, ideas and experiences among South Carolina educators.

FACULTY MEETING ON THURSDAY, JAN 10TH

Coastal's January faculty meeting is scheduled for 11:00 AM, Thursday, January 10th in the College Center. Lunch will be provided and faculty members are asked to attend.

PHI DELTA KAPPA AT COASTAL ?

Coastal's Associate Director of Admissions and Registration, Hank Mense, says he's trying to measure the interest in forming a local chapter of Phi Delta Kappa. "We need to locate at least 20 people in the Horry-Georgetown area who are already members and who would be willing to form a new chapter," he says. Interested Phi Delta Kappans are asked to contact Hank Mense (at Ext. 267) or Jim Rex (Ext. 178) for further information.

15 STUDENTS NAMED TO WHO'S WHO

Fifteen students at USC-Coastal Carolina College have been selected for recognition in the 1979-80 edition of Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges.

The names of students which appear in the publication represent the nation's outstanding campus leaders.

Campus nominating committees and editors of the annual directory have included the names of the Coastal students based on their academic achievement service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities and future potential.

The 15 students from Coastal Carolina College to be recognized in the next edition of Who's Who are: Deborah K. Brown of Mullins, Janice M. Coward of Murrells Inlet, Robert J. Deep of Myrtle Beach, Cherri L. Dix of Aynor, Brett R. Gardner of Conway, Carol L. Gatlin of Conway, Andrea M. Henry of Myrtle Beach AFB, Patricia C. Miller of Hemingway, Andrew Nagle of Myrtle Beach, Michael P. Quirion of Myrtle Beach, Jimmy Soles of Conway, Anne Steele of Surfside Beach and Frank G. Tomko Jr. of Myrtle Beach.

COASTAL STUDENT ELECTED 'LT. GOVERNOR'

Coastal Carolina College junior Melody Murphy has been elected student Lieutenant Governor of the state by the South Carolina State Student Legislature. The Student Legislature is an elected body of college and university students which meets twice a year in the South Carolina Statehouse to conduct legislative action on subjects the students think should receive attention by the real legislature.

In this year's first legislature session at the SC Statehouse the Student Legislature elected officers and Coastal's Melody Murphy won the post of Lieutenant Governor by 78-63 vote against Clemson student Jody Zimmerman. Murphy is a 43-year old mother whose oldest son is a student at Horry-Georgetown TEC. She transferred to Coastal after graduating from the Business Administration program at Horry-Georgetown TEC with an associate degree. Now she's studying at Coastal as a junior in the college's Business Administration School.

As Lieutenant Governor of the Student legislature, she will recruit new members, raise funds, help choose officers, publish the bills of the legislature, preside over committees and organize contacts with student legislatures in other states.

BIOGRAPHICAL DATA NEEDED

All faculty, staff and administrators are urged to complete the biographical data forms recently distributed. The forms should be returned to the Office of Public Relations as soon as possible.
