

1-22-1980

Coastal Carolina College This Week, January 22, 1980

USC Coastal Carolina College

Coastal Carolina University

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.coastal.edu/this-week>

Part of the Higher Education Commons, and the History Commons

Recommended Citation

USC Coastal Carolina College and Coastal Carolina University, "Coastal Carolina College This Week, January 22, 1980" (1980). Coastal Carolina College This Week. 32.
<https://digitalcommons.coastal.edu/this-week/32>

This Periodical is brought to you for free and open access by the CCU Newsletters at CCU Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Coastal Carolina College This Week by an authorized administrator of CCU Digital Commons. For more information, please contact commons@coastal.edu.

THIS WEEK

A Newsletter for faculty, administration and staff of Coastal Carolina College

VOL. 1, NO. 26

USC—COASTAL CAROLINA COLLEGE

JANUARY 22, 1980

COASTAL MATH PROGRAM RECOGNIZED

The American Association of State Colleges and Universities has selected Coastal's Mathematics Laboratory as one of the ten most innovative programs in American colleges and universities.

"Your Mathematics Laboratory is certainly an excellent example of a successfully implemented program in the area of Improvement of Teaching and Learning," says the AASCU. Details of Coastal's Math Laboratory will be listed in a brochure published by the AASCU.

CHANTICLEERS VS. LANDER COLLEGE
18:00 PM Friday, January 25th
Kimbel Gymnasium

COASTAL HOLDS CHILD ABUSE CONFERENCE

On Friday, February 1st, Coastal is hosting "A Dialogue on Child Abuse," which is a conference on child abuse and neglect in Coastal's three-county service area. The conference is designed to formulate an organization which will develop hotlines, supportive programs, services and facilities to combat child abuse in Horry, Georgetown and Williamsburg Counties. Among the conference speakers are State Superintendent of Education Dr. Charlie Williams, Representative Parker Evatt, Lexington County Sheriff James Metts and State Social Services Commissioner Virgil Conrad.

TEXTILE EXHIBIT IN COLLEGE CENTER

An invitational textile exhibit of work by members of the San Francisco Batik Artists, Ann Marie Patterson of Seattle, Wash., and Marilyn Harrison of Boca Raton, Fla. will be exhibited at Coastal through February 8. The exhibit, held in the College Center, includes both wall hangings and clothing designed and dyed by the batik process of resist-dyeing. The display gallery is open Monday through Friday when the reception/information desk is staffed.

The library will also have an exhibit of traditional Indonesian textiles until February 5. Batiks and ikats, dyed woven fabrics from Bali, are on loan from the collection of Marianna Hamilton of Coastal's Art Department.

COASTAL HOSTS 'WORLD OF WORK' WORKSHOP

On Tuesday, January 29th, Coastal will host a workshop entitled, "Adults, Education and the World of Work." The one-day workshop is designed to explore the changing educational and occupational needs of adults. Counselors, educators, social workers, ministers, librarians and youth workers are invited to attend the conference, which will meet at 9 AM in the College Center. The conference was developed by USC's Educational Referral Services.

MURPHY ADDRESSED FLORIDA CONFERENCE

Coastal Director of Career Development Mary Kay Christian Murphy addressed the Southern College Placement Association Annual Conference in Orlando, Florida last month. Approximately 1,000 participants heard her presentation, "Community Involvement in Career Development—Where to Begin?"

MUSIC EDUCATION PROGRAM ACCREDITED

Coastal's Music Education Program has been fully accredited by the Carolina State Department of Education. The program received the highest possible rating, becoming the final Teacher Education Program to receive full accreditation.

DR. CANDAL PLEASE

Coastal Professor Patsy Candal is now Dr. Candal. She successfully defended her dissertation last month and completed the requirements for a Doctor in Education degree from the University. Congratulations, Dr. Candal.

Please have all items of business to be placed on the Faculty Senate Agenda for the February 7th meeting sent to Dennis Wiseman in the Academic Building by noon on January 29th.