LIBRARY MOVE

From all indications, the library move will take place next week (October 10-16) as previously announced.

TEXTBOOK ORDERS

Textbook orders for the spring semester of 1978 should be given to the bookstore no later than October 21, 1977. Please do not order by telephone. Please use textbook information forms.

GOLF MAGAZINE

Complimentary copies of the Coastal Carolina region's new golf magazine are available for faculty, staff, administrators, and their friends. Just drop a note with the number needed to Don Millus, c/o Humanities Division.

NEW YORK
THEATER SERIES

Faculty are eligible for student-priced tickets for the New York Theater Series. There are five shows this season:

October 17	Robber Bridegroom
November 2	Vincent Price
January 17	Same Time Next Year
February 14	My Fair Lady
March 16	Bubbling Brown Sugar

The ticket order must go in soon. Please call Michael Fortner at Ext. 150 to arrange for reservations.

MINI-COURSES

The Office of Continuing Education is in the process of developing the mini-course schedule for this fall. The mini-courses will meet from October 31 - December 9. Classes will meet one night each week for the six-week period. Classes will normally be for two hours each evening. Academic credit will not be given for these classes; however, participants will receive continuing education units. If you have any interest in teaching a class, or if you have interests in particular classes, please contact Dr. Marshall Parker (Ext. 171). Persons conducting the classes will be paid $20 per contact hour.

COMBINED COASTAL
CAROLINA CAMPAIGN

Another reminder of the Combined Coastal Carolina Campaign! Kickoff to be announced soon. Please give generously!
