OCEAN VIEW FOUNDATION AWARDS $24,000 IN SCHOLARSHIPS TO LOCAL STUDENTS

The Ocean View Memorial Foundation has awarded $24,000 in educational scholarships to 20 students from the Waccamaw-Grand Strand Area, foundation officials have announced.

According to Dr. Holmes B. Springs and Mrs. Margaret Morgan, foundation directors and members of the Ocean View Memorial Scholarship Committee, the foundation has made its annual scholarship awards to students from Myrtle Beach, Conway, Surfside Beach, North Myrtle Beach and Socastee. Students planning to attend USC-Coastal Carolina College will receive scholarships of $1,000, while students planning to attend distant colleges and universities will receive scholarships of $1,500.

Twelve of the scholarship recipients will attend Coastal Carolina College, while eight others will attend various other institutions. Scholarships were awarded to students planning to attend Coastal, Winthrop College, Yale University, USC-Columbia, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, the Medical College of Charleston and Benedict College.

$1,500 SCHOLARSHIP AT COASTAL CAROLINA

Beginning next fall, students attending USC-Coastal Carolina College will be able to compete for a new $1,500 academic scholarship established at the college by two Grand Strand area Rotary Clubs.

Murrells Inlet businessman David Micheaux, immediate past president of Myrtle Beach Rotary Club and C&S Bank executive Charles Hughes, president of Chicora Rotary Club of Myrtle Beach have announced that their Rotary Clubs will sponsor the annual scholarship to the Coastal Carolina College student who best meets the criteria of the scholarship. The scholarship, entitled The W.A. Kimbel Rotary Scholarship, is being established to honor Mr. and Mrs. William A. Kimbel of Murrells Inlet, longtime benefactors of Coastal Carolina College.

STUDENT DEVELOPMENT EVALUATES NASPA CONVENTION

Dr. Bob Squatriglia and other members of Coastal's active Department of Student Development are evaluating information from the recent Myrtle Beach convention of the national Association of Student Personnel Administrators. The regional conference was hosted by Coastal's student personnel administrators. The workshop was a "down-to-earth" discussion of practical problems facing the chief student affairs personnel of today. Institutions ranging from Texas A&M to Vanderbilt were represented at the conference.
