Royce Green Sr. scholarship established

A scholarship has been established at Coastal in memory of Royce Green Sr.

Employees of the Myrtle Beach location of Rosemary Coin Machines, Inc., the company that Green founded in 1957, made volunteer contributions in order to establish the academic scholarship.

"It's very nice that they [the employees] did this in memory of their founder," said Green's wife, Mary Lee Green.

Recipients must be full-time students with a 3.0 GPA; residents of Horry, Georgetown or Williamsburg counties; and demonstrate financial need.

Four Coastal students have been awarded the scholarship monies in the form of a reimbursement for the 1994 spring semester. They are: Debora Cooper, a May 1994 psychology graduate of Andrews; Kyle Fullwood, a biology junior of Myrtle Beach; Samantha Payne, a biology sophomore of Myrtle Beach; and Michael Sharp, a May 1994 physical education graduate of Surfside Beach.

Campus Friends volunteers needed

Faculty and staff volunteers are needed to participate in Campus Friends, a pilot retention program for entering freshmen at Coastal. The program, coordinated by the Office of the President, is designed to give freshmen and/or their parents a specific contact person on campus if they have a question or problem related to the students experience at Coastal.

According to President Ingle, "As we approach another great year, I've been giving a lot of thought to ways we can improve our institution and have come to believe that student retention is one of our most pressing challenges. In my view, a top priority should be to make Coastal Carolina more 'user friendly,' and I base this opinion on recent feedback from students, faculty and staff."

A Campus Friends volunteer will be a facilitator who is readily available to help a student cope with the first year of college and its related challenges - to be a friend, willing to listen and help with a variety of concerns that may arise.

A Campus Friends volunteer will be in addition to the student's academic adviser. To distinguish the difference, faculty Campus Friends volunteers will not be assigned a student who is majoring in the faculty member's discipline.

Each volunteer will be assigned approximately 10 freshmen.

"I am confident that this simple, one-on-one approach can truly make a difference," Ingle said.

A brief orientation session and luncheon will be provided for Campus Friends volunteers on Monday, August 22 and Monday, August 29.

Campus Friends committee members are June Brown—chair, Pete Barr, Janis Chesson, Eddie Dyer, Thomas Isekenegbe, Tim McCormick, Jill Sessoms, Pat Singleton-Young and Pat Sizemore.

Note: A letter from the president and a response card was sent Aug. 1 to Coastal faculty and staff explaining the Campus Friends program. Any full-time, permanent faculty or staff member who did not receive a letter and response card should contact June Brown at extension 2016 or Tina Davis at extension 2258.

Response cards should be returned by Wednesday, Aug. 10 to June Brown, President's Office, EMS 105. 📞

The next issue of On Campus will be Monday, Aug. 22; deadline to submit information is Tuesday, Aug. 16.

Monograph provides insights of Poland

Poland in Transition: Observations and Insights, a new monograph of essays on Poland edited by Steve Nagle, is available free-of-charge in the Office of International Programs.

The nine contributors, including Coastal's Joe Mazurkiewicz and Billy Hills, were members of the 1992 team of South Carolina educators who spent 38 days of intensive study and travel in Poland supported by the United States Department of Education Summer Study Abroad Fulbright grant.

Members of the group continue to conduct individual and group follow-up activities.

For more information, contact Steve Nagle at extension 2096 or Geoff Parsons at extension 2054.

Office of Admissions relocates

The Office of Admissions is now located in the Admissions Building, on the Horseshoe, formerly the Graduate and Continuing Education Building.

According to Director of Admissions Tim McCormick, "This facility projects a spacious look and will provide a most positive first impression for the many prospective students and their families that visit our campus."

The telephone extensions will remain the same. Campus mail for the Office of Admissions should be directed to the Admissions Building. 📞

Noises Off to be performed on campus

Tricycle Productions, Inc., will perform Noises Off, a comedy by Michael Frayn, as part of the Summer Theater Festival 1994 series. The play runs Friday, Aug. 12 and Saturday, Aug. 13 at 8 p.m., and Sunday, Aug. 14 at 3 p.m.

Noises Off is a play within a play that allows the audience to witness the evolutionary process of a play beginning with dress rehearsal and progressing to opening night. The play traces the cast's problems beginning with set difficulties and progressing to personal entanglements and jealousies that lead to chaos and hilarity as the actors become confused between make-believe and reality.

Noises Off is considered one of the most successful stage farces in the last 25 years. It opened in 1982 and broke box office records during its four-and-a-half year run at London's Savoy Theatre. The play also received the best comedy of the year award during a two-year Broadway run in the 1980s. It has been translated into 36 languages and was adapted to a film in 1992.

Mainstage magazine calls Noises Off "broad humor at its delectable best. It has nothing on its mind but to induce laughter, and it succeeds in provoking gales of that welcome sound."

Director Cheri Ivey has performed in numerous productions and has served as a director with American Playwright's and Three by Two Productions, both in New York City. Noises Off marks her local directing debut.

Cast members and their roles are as follows:

- Walter Hunter – Conway Hospital doctor of internal medicine (role: Lloyd)
- Doris Hudson – retired high school teacher (role: Dotty)
- Joseph Lee – Horry-Georgetown Technical College theater professor and president of Horry Cultural Arts Council (role: Gary)
- Laura Holliday – Winthrop University drama student (role: Brooke)
- Sol Steinberg – local actor and director (role: Freddie)
- Ron Reichman – 60-year theater veteran (role: Selsdon)
- Sabra Bell – school library media specialist for Horry County Schools (role: Poppy)
