COLLEGE OFFERS CHRISTMAS GIFT CERTIFICATES

If you're ready to rip up your shopping list because you can't find a Christmas gift for that somebody who has everything, cheer up. USC-Coastal Carolina College, of all places, may have a solution. The Continuing Education Department at the college is now offering Christmas gift certificates for special non-credit spring classes in subjects ranging from photography to speedreading to karate.

The unusual idea in educational marketing belongs to Dr. Sally Z. Hare, Director of Continuing Education at Coastal Carolina College.

"One of the few things still hard to buy is knowledge," she explains, "and that's what we're offering in the college's Continuing Education program. Beginning at the first of the new year, we'll be scheduling more than 60 brief, non-credit courses which are informative and, in most cases, entertaining. These classes would make great Christmas gifts and anybody is eligible to take them."

Among the courses offered are: The Time-Life Photography Workshop; Waccamaw Riverboat Cruise; Speedreading; The Motion Picture Film Experience; Women's Issues in Today's Society; Elements of Salesmanship; Art for Children; Professional Bartending; Advanced Photography; Photography for Educators; Drawing; Snow-skiing; Backgammon and Chess; Raising Kids O.K.; Golf Clinic for Women; Golf Clinic for Men; Beginning, Intermediate and Advanced Bridge; Study Skills; Beginning, Intermediate and Advanced Tennis; The Tennis Industry; Batik Workshop; Death: A Part of Life; Workshop for Parents of Elementary School Students; You and Your Heart; Making Your Money Work; Hula; Preparation for the NTE and SAT; Karate; Computers and Computing; Aircraft Gliding; Quilt-making; Crochet; Knitting; Songwriting; Guitar; Popular Music; Assertiveness Training; Communications Skills; Changing Lifestyles; and Belly dancing.

What does Dr. Hare suggest as a gift for the person who has everything? "How about hula lessons," she offers.

SACS MEETING ON VIDEOTAPE

The General Meeting on December 2, 1980 to discuss the SACS Self-Study, was well-attended.

For those faculty and staff who were unable to attend a Video-Tape of the meeting is available for in-house use.

Please contact Shirley Gawler, SACS Secretary, Library Conference Room (Extension No. 290). The Tape will be available for review until Wednesday, January 7, 1981.

SOCCER, GOLF AND VOLLEYBALL LOOK TO NEXT YEAR

The Coastal Carolina Soccer team finished the season with a 12-4-2 record and earned runner-up in District 6. Additionally, the Chants earned national ranking this season and had two players in the national rankings as well. Brian Knoess earned a spot in Team High Scorer and Individual High Scorer while Bill Dickens took honors for saves and shutouts.

Coach Farrelly was pleased with his team's performance for the season. Although the loss of the District championship was a disappointment he concluded, "The best team won."

The Coastal Carolina Golf team, playing mostly their Freshman recruits to give them tournament experience before the start of the season finished no worse than sixth place in any of the tournaments. Coach Cooke indicated he was pleased with the overall performance of his team.

Plagued with injuries the Lady Chants' Volleyball team finished the season with a 6-17 record. Coach Meade's very young team played well and showed a great deal of potential but were unable to keep up with the more experienced AIAW teams in their conference. Coach Meade remarked, "Our biggest weakness was in our hitter department and we hope to rectify that situation through more experience by next season."

FACULTY MEETING JAN. 8

A general faculty meeting is scheduled for Jan. 8, 1981, 10:30 a.m., on the first floor of the College Center.

FACULTY-STAFF ACTIVITIES

Coastal faculty member Tim Touzel recently gave a math presentation to the South Carolina Council of Teachers of Mathematics at the council's annual meeting. His presentation, entitled "Teaching Computational and Practice Skills," was delivered to more than 700 educators meeting in Columbia.

Director of Continuing Education Dr. Sally Hare appeared on WLAT's "Conway Today" program last week to discuss Continuing Ed gift certificates. Continuing Education administrator Helen Hood discussed the same subject last week on WTGR Radio.

A special Teacher Education project at Socastee High School was the subject of a television news feature produced recently by the Office of Public Relations and the Media Services Center. The story aired on television newscasts in Columbia, Wilmington, Florence, Charleston, Spartanburg, Greenville and Charlotte.

Coastal's Dr. Jim Rex addressed approximately high school principals last week in Conway. His topic dealt with the evaluation of teacher effectiveness and recent state legislation.
