Dear Members,

Promises! Promises! The promises made about the history of Horry County are being fulfilled. The Independent Republic is finally published and copies are being mailed to those who reserved them.

When you read it, I hope that you are as excited about it as I am. This is the first history book about Horry County.

To celebrate the publication there was a reception on September 15, 1985, at the Fellowship Hall, First United Methodist Church, Conway, honoring the author, Dr. A. Goff Bedford.

Thanks to the faithful members who have worked hard to make this volume a reality.

Sincerely,

Miriam Tucker

FIRST UNITED METHODIST CHURCH OF CONWAY DESIGNATED HISTORIC SITE
by Greg Martin

Bishop Francis Asbury, the early Methodist missionary, first visited this area in 1785. He made later visits in ensuing years, but the first recorded instance of his preaching in Horry County was on December 24, 1795. He noted in his journal, "We came to Kingston (Conway) where I preached in an old Presbyterian meeting house now repaired for use by the Methodists." This meeting house was located near the present Kingston Presbyterian Church.

When Asbury preached at Kingston on February 8, 1801, he recorded, "A lovely day, but few people--perhaps not more than one hundred including the coloured folks. My subject was Luke ix:24. Brother Whatcoat spoke on John iii:16. It is now sixteen years since I rode, anxious and solitary, through this part of the land; there was scarcely a house to receive me and no Methodist to bid me welcome, but God hath given us many friends, of some of those whose houses I lodged in; witness the children of Mr. Clark and of Durant and their widows also." Clearly, these early visits by Asbury planted the seeds from which Methodism in Conway began to grow, and the church in which we worship today is a direct outgrowth of his ministry here.

In the early 1800s the first Methodist church in this area was erected on the old Georgetown highway (Ninth Avenue), two miles west of Conway on a site known as the old campground. No record of the description of this church as to size, shape or material has been found, nor is the exact location known, the only evidence left being the old burying ground.

First Methodist Church in Conway was organized in 1828 and was started by a small group of women meeting in the home of Mrs. Jane Norman. Mrs. Norman suggested that the group start a fund for a church, then passed a bowl around for a collection. This bowl can be seen in the church parlor.

On April 16, 1842, Mary Hillen deeded land to the trustees of the church "for and in consideration of her love to our blessed Lord and Savior Jesus Christ." These trustees were John H. Robinson, Thos. Beaty, Thos. King, John Durant, Richard Green, Samuel G. Singleton, Joseph Vaught, Alexander J. Wilson and Cornelius B. Sarvis. Many of their descendants have been associated with Methodism through the years.

By 1844, the first church building was completed. It was built on the corner of Main Street and Fifth Avenue on the site of the Hut Bible Class building. This church building was a medium-sized wooden building, rectangular in shape, with three large windows on each side and none at the end. With steps covering the width of the front.

In 1898, the first church building was dismantled and the second sanctuary was constructed. This building is now known as "The Hut" or "The Little Church" and is used by the Hut Bible Class. The building was constructed in the Gothic style with a seating capacity of 330. It has ornamental windows of opal glass, the main ones being 15 feet high. This church was dedicated Sunday, October 23, 1898.

The third church building, a mission style sanctuary, was built in 1910. The architect was Mr. Leitner of Wilmington, North Carolina, and the contractor was H. P. Little of Conway. The structure has a stuccoed exterior with gable roof. Both ends of the facade have spires with curvilinear parapets. All windows are stained glass. The cost of the building was $13,000 and it has a seating capacity of 500. The building served as the sanctuary until 1961 and presently serves as the church fellowship hall. It has undergone restoration as part of the current improvements program. An educational building was erected adjoining this structure in 1938 to which an addition was built in 1952.

In 1961 the present sanctuary was constructed. Designed in the Georgian style architecture, it was designed by Harold Riddle of Myrtle Beach and constructed by Dar- gan Consruction Company of Conway. It has a seating capacity of 600.

Also owned by the church is the Jenkins house at 1101 Fifth Avenue. This large Victorian style house was built in 1909 by G. B. Jenkins. It features a two story pedimented polygonal turret topped with a metal finial. It houses Mercy Hospice which ministers to terminally ill patients and their families.

In addition to being honored with an official South Carolina Historical Marker, First United Methodist Church of Conway has also been listed on the Register of United Methodist Historic Sites, has been designated an Horry County Historic Site, and is included on Conway's Historical Trail.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

Methodist Bishop Francis Asbury's many visits to Kingston (Conway) between 1785 and 1815 preceded the organization of a Methodist congregation here. Land was obtained in 1842 and the first church building was constructed here in 1844. Still standing are the 1898 gothic-style and the 1910 mission-style buildings. The church was renamed First Methodist in 1958 and the current Georgian sanctuary was completed in 1961.

John Vaught, a German immigrant, arrived in Charleston, S. C., in June of 1750, with his wife and ten day old infant son Matthias. It is not known just where this family settled upon arrival in America but twenty years later there are records that indicate they were living in what is now Horry County. Family tradition indicates they came to America from Hanover, Germany, and the son, Matthias, was a ten day old infant when they landed.

The earliest grant to John Vaught (spelled Vought) is found in the S. C. Archives, Columbia, S.C., in Land Grant Plat Book 20, page 482, and is as follows: "Pursuant to a precept from Jno. Bremarl, Esq., Deputy, dated 5th. June 1770, I have admeasured and laid out unto John Vought a tract of land containing 200 acres in Craven county between Little PeDee and Waccamaw, bounding Southwestly on land laid out to Jonathan Drake and on all other sides vacant. Certified 29 November 1770. George Pawley, Junr., Deputy Surveyor."

The Descendants of John Vaught have owned many thousands of acres of land in the area between Little River and Myrtle Beach. They have been prominent in community affairs of the area as well as politics. While there remain numerous descendants in the Horry County area, most of them have scattered and can be found in perhaps every state in the nation.

The names of only two children have been found for John Vaught:

1. Matthias Vaught
2. John Vaught, Jr.

1. Matthias Vaught (31 May 1750–13 November 1833), veteran of the Revolutionary War, was among the earliest land owners in the Ocean Drive Beach area. In the S.C. Archives, Land Grant Plat Book 20, Page 240, is the following: "Pursuant to a precept from Jno. Bremarl, Esq., Deputy Surveyor General, dated the 5th. day of June 1770 and prolonged to the 1st. day of April 1771, I have admeasured and laid out unto Matthias Vought a tract of land containing 200 acres in Craven county on Waccamaw Neck near Little River butting and bounding to the Northeast on land granted or owned by Mr. Crosswaith and on all sides else on vacant lands and hath such shape, form and marks as the above plat represents. Certified 9 July 1771. George Pawley, Jr., Deputy Surveyor." The plat of this grant is a square being Northeast 59 degrees, 44.73 chains and Northwest 31 degrees 44.73 chains. A marsh is shown on the southern side with a branch running back that forks and creeks run from the east and west. William W. Crosswaite is known to have owned land that encompassed the main street section of Ocean Drive Beach, so this land seems to have adjoined Matthias Vaught's grant on the east. This evidently would be the swash in the Ingram Beach area.

Matthias Vaught volunteered and joined Marion's Light Horse forces. When the British invaded South Carolina at Camden and Eutaw Springs, he was with Gen. Marion's men when Marion harassed the British by his forays from the swamps of the Santee and Waccamaw rivers—participating in the Battle of Cowpens and other engagements. Marion's Light Horse encountered Tarleton's Cavalry at Cowpens. Here it was that Matthias Vaught engaged in a hand-to-hand sabre fight and a British cavalryman practically cut off his left leg. The state of South Carolina afterwards awarded Matthias Vaught a pension for the rest of his life. Salley's Indents, Book Z, No. 120, show him receiving pay for 335 days Militia duty.

About 1778, Matthias Vaught married Martha Mercy Todd, daughter of Captain Charles Todd, an immigrant to South Carolina. Captain Todd's children, in addition to Martha, included Richard, Solomon and Joseph Todd. Matthias and Martha Todd Vaught settled on a plantation west of Wampee near what was then known as Lee's Mill, once the polling place for the community, where they had eleven children:

  a Martha Vaught
  b Mary Vaught
  c Sarah Vaught
4  d Joseph Vaught
5  e Elizabeth Vaught
  f William Vaught m. Mary Hankins, dau. of Dennis Hankins. No issue.
6  g Charlotte Vaught
7  h Rebecca Vaught
8  i Peter Vaught
9  j Solomon Vaught
 k Anne Vaught m. William Bellamy who was seemingly a son of Abraham Bellamy. No further record.

2. John Vaught, Jr., was born prior to the American Revolution. The 1790 census for All Saints Parish shows his family with one male over 16 (himself), three females and three slaves. Old deeds show him as having owned land adjacent to Little River prior to 1808 and his residence seems to have been there where he served the community as a doctor. Dr. John Vaught, who died in 1808 or 1809, married Frances Moet (also spelled Moat) who died in 1819. Their children included:

  a Hannah Vaught
10  b Matthias Vaught
  c Martha Vaught

There seems to be some connection of this family with Thomas Ready who lived nearby. In 1819, Frances Moet Vaught made an agreement with Thomas Ready for her above named children.

3. Martha Vaught b. 1793 m. John Dunn (of Scotland) b. 1774. John Dunn seems to have been related to James Dunn who was in partnership with James Beaty as Indian traders in the area; also Alexander Dunn who was a member of the Committee of Safety for Little River, S. C., in 1775. Alexander Dunn owned a plantation in Little River neck and Dunn's Sound there is named for him. Children:

  a Charlotte Dunn, b. 1820
  b Francis Dunn, b. 1829
  c John Dunn, Jr., b. 1840

4. Joseph Vaught m. Sarah Brantley

Joseph and Sarah Vaught resided on the "King's Highway" a short distance west of the present day Nixon's Crossroads. He owned thousands of acres of land in this area and was a member of the board of trustees for Cedar Creek Church to which he deeded a half acre of land in 1840. Sarah Brantley was seemingly a daughter of Anthony Brantley who lived nearby. Many Brantleys lived in Brunswick County, where an island on the coast is named for them, and Sarah's family probably came from there. Children:

  a Walter Vaught (or Armalain)
  b Harriet Vaught m. Otho Haynes in Stark County, Fla.
  c Isabella Vaught also m. a Haynes—perhaps a bro. of Otho. There is no further record of this family locally.
5. Elizabeth Vaught (1795-1857) m. 1 in 1814, John Bellamy (1750-1826) and had issue.

Elizabeth Vaught m. 2 Henry C. Williams and had at least three children:
   a. B. M. Williams
   b. W. W. Williams
   c. E. R. Smith (probably a daughter or son adopted)

6. Charlotte Vaught m. 1823 David (?) Taylor. Children:
   11 a. Joseph Taylor m. Catherine Giles, dau. of Hugh Giles.

Charlotte Taylor died after the birth of Joseph and Rebecca and her two children were reared in the home of their Grandfather Matthias Vaught who made special provisions for them in his will.

7. Rebecca Vaught (b. 1802) m. Captain Peter Cox who was born the same year. His parents were Captain Josiah Cox and his wife, nee Harriss, of Cox's Ferry on the Waccamaw. Josiah Cox was a private in Captain Moses Pearson's Company 1780-1782, according to Gregg's History of the Old Cheraws. Peter Cox served as the only Postmaster of Dogwood Neck, S. C., 1847 to 1866. Their children:
   13 a. John H. Cox
   14 b. Charlotte Cox, b. 1833
   15 c. Lenora Cox, b. 1835
   16 d. Caroline L. Cox, b. 1839
   17 e. Peter Cox, Jr., b. 1841
   18 f. Charley W. Cox, b. 1842 m. Elizabeth Wall, sister of Martha Wall.
   19 g. Mary Cox, b. 1852
   20 h. Joseph Cox, b. 1869
   21 i. Mary Cox, b. 1868

Joseph and Mary Cox were probably Grandchildren. They are shown as members of the family of Peter Cox in the 1870 census but their age difference with the other children indicate they were not his children.

8. Peter Vaught I (30 May 1784-Nov. 1867) m. 1 Mary Sweet, dau. of Anthony Sweet II of Horry County. Peter Vaught I resided on a plantation near his father between Wampee and Red Bluff during the early years of his first marriage. Later he resided on a large plantation in the Long Bay area between Windy Hill Beach and Myrtle Beach. The Dunes Club section of Myrtle Beach were once part of his plantation.

Peter Vaught was active in public life, having taught the Rice Planters' School, was Sheriff of Horry County and served in the State Legislature prior to the War between the States. He was concerned about the Yankee ships shelling the numerous salt manufacturing works along the Horry coast and requested protection by Confederate forces.

A dignified scholarly gentleman, Peter Vaught was warm hearted, sympathetic and gentle, a person who was trusted implicitly. He married second Sarah Lee, of Lee's Mill, in 1846, whom he named in his will. No children are known of their union; however he had six children by his marriage to Mary Sweet:
   14 a. Peter Vaught II
   15 b. Anthony Sweet Vaught
   16 c. Waties Alston Vaught – no further record.
   17 d. Mary Sweet Vaught
   18 e. Martha Caroline Vaught
   19 f. Charlotte Rebecca Vaught
9. Solomon Vaught b. 1782 m. Angeline Hughes. Children:
   a. Thomas Vaught
   b. Albert Vaught m. Rebecca Sweet of Gallivants Ferry.
   c. Nathan Vaught d. in Jacksonville, Fla.
   d. Matthias Vaught II

10. Matthias Vaught, b. 7 Dec. 1790, resided in Simpson Creek township. The 1870 census shows him to be 83 years of age. He m. 1 Kitsey West, daughter of Robert and Mary West of the Wampee section; m. 2 Jane West, b. 1810, no issue. Information on only one son of Mathias Vaught and Kitsey West Vaught:
   a. John Vaught

11. Joseph Taylor and his wife, Catherine Giles resided on South Island near Georgetown, S.C., according to Sellers' History of Marion County. Children:
   a. Hugh Giles Taylor m. Ella McClelland of McClellandsville.
   b. Joseph E. Taylor
   c. Edwin E. Taylor
   d. Archie Taylor
   e. Charlotte Taylor m. Cobb
   f. Sallie Taylor

12. Rebecca Taylor m. James Baker who was a brother of Mary Baker that married Gospero Sweet, son of Anthony Sweet II, then of Liberty County, S.C. Anthony Sweet II was the great uncle of Margaret Mitchell of Gone with the Wind. Children of James and Rebecca Taylor Baker:
   a. Joseph Baker
   b. William Baker
   c. James M. Baker

13. John H. Cox, b. 1832, resided in Little River township, m. Martha Ann "Pattie" Wall (9 June 1845-14 Nov. 1917), dau. of Mary Sweet Vaught and her husband, Washington Bradley Wall (see no. 16). Children:
   a. John Cox, b. 1867, d. young.
   b. Peter Cox

14. Peter Vaught II, b. 1823, resided on the plantation of his father near Myrtle Beach, at Vaught, S.C., where he was appointed Postmaster in 1888, a position he held for twelve years. He m. 1 Joemma Harrel and had two children:
   a. Cornelia Vaught
   b. Ellen Vaught

Peter Vaught II m. 2 Louise Cuckon Futch (b. 28 April 1840), widow of Kendrick H. Futch, b. 20 Feb. 1833, d. at Little River, S.C. 26 Sept. 1862, of yellow fever while in the Confederate service. Kendrick H. Futch was a son of David Kendrick Futch (1801-1875) and his wife, Mary Jane Mott, of Scotts Hill, New Hanover County, N.C. This was the first family of the Futch name in the Little River area. They resided in Little River neck and Futch Beach, now East Cherry Grove Beach, a part of their plantation, was named for this family.

Louise Cuckon was a daughter of Dr. William K. Cuckon (1806-1874) and his wife Jane Elizabeth Lovell, who were married 25 Dec. 1836. Dr. Cuckon resided and had his office near the site of where the post office Lay, S. C. was later located, between Nixon's Crossroads and Wampee. He administered to the ill of the area during the Confederate War period. Children:
c Peter Vaught III, d. young

d Annie Vaught m. Roach, resided in Illinois. One account says that Peter Vaught II was visiting this daughter when he died and is buried in Illinois, but this has not been proven.

e Charlotte Vaught m. Smith, son of Senator Jeremiah Smith of Horry County

f Della Vaught m. B. A. Elks

g William Hampton Vaught

h Louisa Vaught

15. Anthony Sweet Vaught m. 1862 Anna M. Driskell (or Drisdale) (18 Sept. 1844-8 Sept. 1931) at Wellington, Kansas. He moved to Kansas in 1856 and took a claim where Aitchinson, Kansas is now, later went on west and helped organize the town of Palmetto which name was later changed to Marysville, Kansas. Here he was in business for a time then traded his business for a ranch known as the 17 mile point. Their children included:

27  a Peter W. Vaught
    b H. M. Vaught, Wallowa, Oregon
    c A. G. Vaught, Powell, Wyoming
    d John M. Vaught, Tacoma, Washington
    e Emma m. J. C. Day and resided in Nebraska.

16. Mary Sweet Vaught m. 1 Washington Bradley Wall, son of Wright Wall and Mary Bradley, and had eight children:

28  a Peter Wright Wall
    b Marhta Ann "Pattie" Wall m. John H. Cox (see no. 13) c Gabriella Bradley Wall m. Leonard R. Owens
    d George W. Wall
    e Columbus Wall
    f Sara Wall
    g Amanda Wall m. Barney Collins, resided in McColl, S. C. h Elizabeth Wall m. Charles Cox and resided at Hand, Horry Co., S. C.

Mary Sweet Vaught m. 2 George Solomon Jordan and had children:

29  i Ellen Vaught Jordan m. William Chesley Kerce, Gainesville, Fla.
    j John G. Jordan m. Nora Atkinson. Their son, Myron Glenn Jordan, d. in World War II.

WILLIAM GREEN PHOTOGRAPHS ON EXHIBIT AT THE MUSEUM

The Horry County Museum will present an exhibit of the work of William Green from September 3 through November 2, 1985. Green was a professional photographer active in the western part of Horry County from 1930 until 1951. His photographs feature a wide range of subjects, but most deal with the people of the area and their lifestyles. Perhaps nowhere can one see more clearly the pride, strength, and determination which carried the people of Horry County through the Depression and World War II than in the faces of Green's subjects.

The exhibit, "Horry County in Black and White", consists of a cross section of Green's photographs depicting life in the area during the years when America was coming out of the Depression and realizing that the world was a much larger place than we had imagined. They are a glimpse into the last years of America's innocence and isolation as seen by those in the rural South.
PETITION TO ESTABLISH HORY DISTRICT
& BUILD COURTHOUSE AND JAIL

or
THE CURIOUS CASE OF WHAT HAPPENED TO HUGERBOROUGH

by Catherine H. Lewis

In 1801 the citizens of Kingstown County, part of Georgetown District, petitioned the General Assembly to create a new district. They complained of the "risque of water passage" which they encountered in trying to get to Georgetown for court business or to sell their produce. They hinted that crimes "of a light nature" went unpunished "by reason of the many disadvantages attending a prosecution".

There are at least eleven petition documents addressed either to the Senate or the House of Representatives. Each is slightly different in text and signers, but the signatures appended to these papers must represent most adult males of the district at the time. They are interesting for this reason alone.

There are, however, other interesting things about these petitions. For example, the name of Robert Conway appears among the proposed commissioners in each document where that portion is legible, but his signature is nowhere to be found. The documents are not dated, so it is possible that he had departed for Columbia to take his seat in the House of Representatives. But Thomas Fearwell, who was also a member of the House and one of the proposed commissioners, did sign.

The petitioners asked that the seat be named Hugerborough. This would change the old name of Kingston. The document does not indicate which member of the prominent Huger family was to be so honored, but it must have been either Benjamin Huger or his half-brother Francis Kinloch Huger. Odds are the exploits of Francis Kinloch Huger had captured the imagination of the local citizenry. About seven years earlier, while touring in Vienna, Austria, he learned that Lafayette, the Revolutionary hero and a friend of the Huger family, was imprisoned at Ulmutz. With a friend he rescued Lafayette in a dramatic plot, but he was quickly recaptured and Huger and his friend also were taken and spent eight months in jail for their trouble.

Curiously two of the petitions have the name of Hugerborough scratched through, suggesting some lack of unanimity about changing the name of Kingston, but none about the creation of Horry District.

On Nov. 26, 1801, the House of Representatives received the petition and referred it to a committee composed of "Col. Conway, Major Nesmith and Mr. Rothmaler."

Robert Conway and Thomas Fearwell were the members from Kingston. John Nesmith represented Williamsburg and Erasmus Rothmaler, Prince George Winyah.

On Dec. 3 Col. Conway reported for the committee and it was ordered for consideration the next day. The House Journal for Dec. 4 reports:

The Committee to whom was referred the Petitions of Sundry Inhabitants of Kingstown County praying for a seperate district report that they have considered the same, and are of opinion that the Prayer of the Petitions ought to be granted, they therefore recommend that leave be given to bring in a bill for that purpose. Resolved that this House do agree to the Report.

Final reading was given Dec. 17 and the bill was passed to the Senate. It was recorded as received on Dec. 18 and placed on the agenda for the following day, Dec. 19. On that final day of the Fourteenth General Assembly it was passed and signed into law.

At some point in this process the name of the county seat became Conwayborough, not Hugerborough. What happened? Was Conway responsible or did the House wish to compliment one of its own? Both Hugers had been senators from All Saints and Benjamin had served in the House from Prince George Winyah, but neither were current members.

However it came about, it was not a popular decision with everyone back home. In 1802 some residents of the new district again petitioned the General Assembly, claiming that the action taken the year before was "disagreeable" and asking that the name Hugerborough be given to the village of Kingston. Among the signatures were those of three men who had been named commissioners of Horry District: Thomas Fearwell, William Hemingway and Thomas Livingston. The request failed.

The signatures to the petitions are given below, but the text of only one document is given. The signatures are identified by the document number assigned by the State Department of Archives and History, in the event a reader should wish to do further work with these papers.

To the Honourable the President and Members of the Senate of South Carolina

The petitions of sundry Inhabitants of Kingstown County Humbly Sheweth That your Petitioners do labour under many distresses & difficulties by reason of the great distance of their residence from the Court House & Public offices in Georgetown & many inconveniences & losses arise to them by the risque of the water passage to carry thier Produce to market as well as for the want of a better circulation of the crossing streams which at some periods are dangerous & frequently unpassible so that many offences of a light nature go unpunished by reason of the many disadvantages attending a prosecution at from 30 to 80 miles distance and they are well convinced (Although it has been Otherwise represented to your Honorable body) that by uniting them in a district with the other part of the County their Interest & ease will be much benefitted. Therefore your petitioners do earnestly request that the wisdom of your Honorable House would take their case into consideration and grant the same relief to them that has been granted to other parts of the state in similar Circumstances and pass a law for Establishing a district building a Court House and Gaol in Kingstown County. That the title thereof be changed & called Horry District & Hugerborough to comprehend & include the ancient boundaries of Kingstown County And that John Graham, Senr Samuel Foxworth Williams and Samuel Floyd Esquires be appointed commissioners to conduct effect And Your Petitioners as in duty bound will pray

To the Honorable the President and Members of the Senate of the State of South Carolina

The Petition of sundry Inhabitants of Horry District in the said State humbly sheweth

That at the last sitting of the Legislature your Petitioners Presented a Memorial to your Honorable body praying to have the Name of the Village of Kingstown Changed to that of Huberborough, but for Reasons unknown to your petitioners and Disagreeable to their wish the above Borough is called Conwayborough -- Your petitioners therefore pray that your Honorable House will Grant the prayer of their former Petition in calling the said Village, Hugerborough, and your Petitioners as in Duty bound will ever Pray.

CAN YOU HELP?

Bennett Odom Stalvey, 2589 Emerald Way North, Deerfield Beach, FL 33442, sends his ancestral chart and asks for help from IRQ readers:

(1) Need information about Rev. George Stalvey (1805-1879), and his father George Stalvey (1774-1841). Each had a wife named Martha, but we don't have last names for either. One Martha died in 1894, the other died in 1844. Rev. George Stalvey believed to have preached at the Socastee Methodist Church, but need verification.

(2) Need to know more about the elder George Stalvey's parents, Peter Stalvey and wife Margaret. Her last name? Their dates? Other children? Brothers, sisters, parents?

(3) Need information on when first Stalvey (original spelling thought to be Stalvier(s) came to South Carolina? One of Huguenot emigrations? Or from Pennsylvania? Or elsewhere?
