OCTOBER 5, 1981

HELLO, DOLLY AT WHEELWRIGHT

One of the most successful musicals in stage history, "Hello, Dolly!" has been scheduled for presentation at Wheelwright Auditorium for the 9th, 10th, and 12th of October, with performances scheduled at 8:00 p.m.

Based by Michael Stewart on Thornton Wilder's straight farce, "The Matchmaker", and with songs by Jerry Herman, "Hello, Dolly!" will have Carolyn Cox (Dolly in its central role of the nosey, pushing, meddling, effervescent marriagebroker with a determination to match her most eligible client to herself.

Rob Taylor will play the role of Vandergelder, Dolly's balky customer, who never has a chance of escape. The time is the 1890's. A grouchy fellow who terrorizes his clerks, Vandergelder has one undeniable virtue in Dolly's eyes - he is "half-a-millionaire."

The director is Thomas E. Jones. The musical director is Bill Hamilton and the orchestra director is Marsh Myers, who will be leading a 19-man orchestra.
