AMBER CAMPBELL
Olympic athlete
Honorary Doctor of Science

Amber Campbell is one of the best women’s hammer throwers in the world. She has won 11 national championships, and she is a two-time Pan American Games Medalist. She owns the Olympic Trials and American Olympic record. She has represented Team USA at five World Championships (2005, 2009, 2011, 2013, 2015) and is a three-time Olympian (2008, 2012, 2016).

Her mark and placing at the Rio Olympics in 2016 were the best ever by an American woman. Campbell finished with a throw of 72.74 meters – just two meters away from the bronze medal. She threw her personal best – 74.03 meters – at the Olympic Trials in Eugene, Ore., in June.

Originally from Indianapolis, Ind., Campbell graduated from Coastal Carolina University in 2004 with a bachelor’s degree in psychology. One of the most distinguished student-athletes in CCU history, she was a five-time NCAA All-American, 16-time conference champion and three-time Big South Athlete of the Year. She lives in Myrtle Beach and continues to serve her alma mater as a volunteer assistant coach for throwers. Campbell was inducted into the Coastal Carolina University Hall of Fame in 2009 and the Big South Conference Hall of Fame in 2016.
HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS

WILLIAM H. ALFORD
Doctor of Public Service

William Herbert “Billy” Alford has served in many key leadership positions in the governance of Coastal Carolina University. After graduating from Myrtle Beach High School and serving in the U.S. Marine Corps during the Vietnam conflict, Alford earned a bachelor’s degree in political science from Coastal Carolina College in 1977. Later, as chairman of the Horry County Higher Education Commission, Alford challenged the University of South Carolina and the S.C. Commission on Higher Education on funding practices at Coastal Carolina College. This led to the successful campaign to win Coastal Carolina University’s independence from USC. He was also instrumental in the creation of CCU’s academic outreach centers. He later served as chairman of CCU’s board of trustees and the Coastal Educational Foundation, and he is chairman emeritus of the Horry County Higher Education Commission.

In 1974, Alford, along with his partner, Danny Isaac, started A&I Fire Restoration. A consensus builder in civic matters, Alford helped to save Horry County’s railroad and was influential in the development of the Carolina Bays Parkway. As chairman of the South Carolina Highway Commission, he ensured the funding to construct the Conway Bypass (S.C. 22), and the bridge over the Intracoastal Waterway is named in his honor.

Alford has also served on the boards of Crescent Bank, the Carolina Financial Corporation, the Myrtle Beach Area Chamber of Commerce, the Northeast Strategic Alliance and the Horry County Museum Foundation. He and his wife, Dawn, have two children and two grandchildren.

ROBERT W. HONEYCUTT
Doctor of Science

Robert Honeycutt is the co-founder and chief visionary of SixAxis Manufacturing Technologies and its diverse portfolio of companies. In 2003, with business partner Fred Harmon, Honeycutt founded his first company, SafeRack, which delivers high quality loading rack and fall protection solutions to companies.

The firm opened its first manufacturing facility in Andrews, S.C., in 2005. By 2008, SafeRack appeared on Inc.’s “Fastest-growing Private Companies in America” list. The company generates significant employment opportunities and economic impact for the Andrews area of Georgetown County. The company initiated a $20 million expansion last year that is expected to bring 100 new jobs to the region. SixAxis’ other brands include ErectaStep, PerfectaStep, RollaStep, ErectaRack, Atlatl Software, Quotebooks and Red7. This diverse portfolio represents manufacturing safety and productivity products as well as sales software and marketing support.

Under Honeycutt’s leadership and day-to-day oversight, all of the SixAxis brands constantly strive to deliver a quality customer experience. Connecting with customers and building relationships has been a hallmark of Honeycutt’s success in a career spanning 25 years. Honeycutt began his career in the industrial safety and fall prevention field and has been recognized as one of the industry’s top salespeople.

Honeycutt resides in Pawleys Island, S.C., with his wife, Julie, and two daughters, Elizabeth and Mary.
RETIRING EMERITUS FACULTY

JOHN BEARD
Distinguished Professor Emeritus

John Beard joined the Department of English faculty in 1988 and spent most of his academic career in the Edwards College of Humanities and Fine Arts, balancing a traditional academic career with an increasing array of administrative duties. In the fall of 2002, he accepted an appointment as associate dean in the Edwards College and later served two terms as interim dean. For the past six years, Beard has served as associate provost for assessment and accreditation in the Office of the Provost. In this position, he has been responsible for supervising all curriculum development from its origin to final approval. He earned bachelor’s and master’s degrees from Middle Tennessee State University and a Ph.D. from Florida State University.

JEANNE COBB
Distinguished Professor Emeritus

Jeanne Cobb is professor of literacy and director of the Chanticleer Center for Literacy Education in the Spadoni College of Education. During her 34-year career in education, she has been an elementary school teacher, reading curriculum specialist, Title I teacher, university professor and reading clinic director. Cobb is a co-author of a textbook and a children's book and has published more than 35 articles and book chapters. She was instrumental in the design of CCU’s Master of Education in Learning and Teaching Literacy program. Cobb earned a doctorate in literacy from the University of Tennessee at Knoxville. She joined the CCU faculty in 2006.

ELIZABETH KELLER
Distinguished Professor Emeritus

Elizabeth Keller, professor of art, is known for her narrative ceramic sculptures and whimsical teapots. During her 22 years at CCU, Keller’s work has been seen in more than 90 exhibitions, including 37 national juried exhibitions, and has won more than 30 awards. Her teaching career has focused on preparing students in 3D design and ceramics. Keller holds bachelor’s degrees from the University of Massachusetts in anthropology and Furman University in fine arts. She earned an MFA in ceramics from Clemson University. Additionally, she has studied Christian and Jewish theology at Fuller Theological Seminary and the University of Judaism. She is also known for her collection of more than 80 bonsai trees.
PAUL A. OLSEN

Distinguished Professor Emeritus

Paul Olsen created the graphic design and photography programs in Coastal Carolina’s Department of Visual Arts. For 25 years, he was the faculty adviser to the award-winning student literary/art publication Archarios. He co-established the Ashes2Art program, a digital reconstruction project of ancient Greek monuments that received a National Endowment for the Humanities grant. A Vietnam veteran who served three years in the U.S. Army, Olsen, with retiring history professor Ken Townsend, was embedded in Afghanistan for two weeks in 2007 with a S.C. National Guard unit as a photo-documentary researcher. He also served on the original steering committee of the Myrtle Beach Marathon. Olsen earned a Master of Fine Arts from the University of Miami.

LINDA J. PALM

Distinguished Professor Emeritus

Linda J. Palm joined the Coastal Carolina Department of Psychology in 1992. Her research focus is on psychosocial correlates of academic achievement and the evaluation of learning technologies. She served as faculty adviser of CCU’s chapter of Psi Chi, the psychology honor society, and coordinated the Behavior Therapy Internship program in which student interns have provided more than 7,000 hours of therapeutic services to children diagnosed with autism. She earned a bachelor’s degree in behavioral science from Rollins College, a master’s degree in psychology from Wake Forest University and a Ph.D. in experimental psychology from the University of South Florida.

JOAN F. PIROCH

Distinguished Professor Emeritus

Joan Piroch served as chair of the Department of Psychology and Sociology for 21 years. Born in Butler, Pa., she earned a bachelor’s degree in liberal arts from Slippery Rock University, a master’s degree in psychology from Western Washington University and a Ph.D. in psychology from the University of Southern Florida. Piroch joined the Coastal Carolina faculty in 1982. For two years, she was interim dean of the College of Science. As a professor for the senior research course required for psychology majors, Piroch has supervised research for nearly 1,400 students.

ELDRED E. “WINK” PRINCE

Distinguished Professor Emeritus

Eldred “Wink” Prince began his career as an instructor in Coastal Carolina’s Department of History in 1987 and rose to become full professor, chair of the department, and director of the Waccamaw Center for Cultural and Historical Studies. In addition to many essays and reviews, Prince is the author of Long Green: The Rise and Fall of Tobacco in South Carolina (2000), which won the George C. Rogers Award for the Best Book of South Carolina History, and The Great Harvest: Remembering Tobacco in the Pee Dee (2012). He also wrote many entries in the South Carolina Encyclopedia (2006). He earned a bachelor’s degree, master’s degree and Ph.D. from the University of South Carolina.

NELLJEAN RICE

Distinguished Professor Emeritus

Nelljean Rice is the first dean of University College, which was established in 2010 to assist first-year undeclared students in successfully transitioning from high school. Rice joined the Coastal Carolina Department of English faculty in 1987 and was instrumental in starting the minor in women’s and gender studies. In 2006, she was redirected from teaching to work full time to develop CCU’s First-Year Experience program, which she directed for three years. She earned a bachelor’s degree in English from Beloit College, a master’s degree in English from Eastern Washington State University, an MFA from the University of Arkansas and a Ph.D. from the University of South Carolina.

KENNETH TOWNSEND

Distinguished Professor Emeritus

Kenneth Townsend, professor of history, joined the CCU faculty in 1989 after 15 years as a middle school social studies teacher. His general area of expertise is the social, cultural and military history of the United States after World War II; his secondary area of scholarly interest is Native American cultures and history. He is the author of World War II and the American Indian (2000), South Carolina (2008) and First Americans: A History of Native Peoples (2012). He earned a Ph.D. in history from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Townsend has served as a consultant for the Horry County school district, and he contributed to the PBS production Way of the Warrior.
NICHOLAS TWIGG

Distinguished Professor Emeritus

Nicholas Twigg, professor of management, joined the CCU faculty in 2006. He edited the Coastal Business Journal, and he has represented the University by serving on the education committee of the Grand Strand chapter of SCORE and on the board of directors of the Waccamaw Regional Transit Authority. He earned a doctorate of business administration from Louisiana Tech University and an MBA from Southeastern Louisiana University. Prior to his academic career, Twigg served in the U.S. Navy’s nuclear program, including extended tours on the U.S.S. Nimitz and U.S.S. Enterprise. He also facilitated the introduction of total quality management concepts at high-energy physics research facilities such as the Fermi National Accelerator Laboratory and Brookhaven Laboratory.
On the evening of July 23, 1954, a group of Horry County citizens met at the Horry County Memorial Library to discuss a daring proposal – the creation of a local college. These civic leaders were determined to improve the educational and economic profile of the area, and in less than two months – on Sept. 20 – Coastal Carolina Junior College held its first classes in the old Conway High School (enrollment: 53).

For its first four years, the new endeavor was sponsored by the College of Charleston. In 1958, Horry County voters approved a referendum levying a three-mill tax to fund the two-year college independently. Members of the college’s governing board, the Coastal Educational Foundation, personally pledged funds to meet financial shortfalls.

From the beginning, Coastal Carolina has maintained a close, reciprocal relationship with the surrounding region, which during the past half-century has advanced from a primarily agricultural district into a major Atlantic coast resort. In 1959, the state’s general assembly created the Horry County Higher Education Commission, a regulatory body to manage the college’s county tax money. For more than 50 years, the Coastal Educational Foundation, which concentrates on private fundraising, and the Horry County Higher Education Commission have worked in concert to guide the University’s endowment and fiscal policies.

In 1960, Coastal Carolina became a regional campus in the University of South Carolina system, the beginning of a 33-year affiliation. (The deal was finalized at the Chat & Chew restaurant in Turbeville, halfway between Conway and Columbia.) The following year, a site was chosen for a permanent campus. Most of the land for the present location near Conway was donated by Burroughs Timber Company and International Paper.

The traditional Georgian architecture of the first campus structure, now the Edward M. Singleton Building, set the style for the new campus when it was completed in 1963. Enrollment was 110 that year, and it increased steadily during the 1960s. The present Atheneum Hall was built in 1966, featuring the trademark symbol of the institution. In 1975, USC Coastal Carolina College awarded its first four-year bachelor’s degrees, and the first residence halls opened in 1987.

By the end of the 1980s, enrollment had reached 4,000 and there were 175 full-time faculty members. In view of sustained growth and obvious potential, many supporters of the college believed that the time had come to consider leaving the USC system. In 1991, the Horry County Higher Education Commission voted to seek legislative approval to establish an independent Coastal Carolina University. This bold move, a watershed event in our history, was officially accomplished in 1993 when Gov. Carroll Campbell signed the bill on the steps of the Singleton Building.

Coastal Carolina’s new status as an independent state university set the stage for a new era of growth and achievement. During the next decade, graduate courses were offered for the first time; new academic and residence buildings were added; the faculty increased in number and distinction; and the institution began attracting an increasingly diverse and gifted community of students.
In September 2003, Coastal Carolina University won its inaugural football game in the brand-new Brooks Stadium. Founding member of the Big South Conference since 1983, the Chanticleers (our mascot, derived from The Canterbury Tales) have a proud history in 19 sports, winning the conference’s Sasser Cup a total of 11 times.

In 2004, Coastal Carolina University celebrated its 50th anniversary. Enrollment reached 7,000 students, and the campus was expanding significantly, with properties now situated across U.S. 501 and S.C. 544 as well as its splendid 1,105-acre ocean research site on Waties Island.

Under the administration of President David A. DeCenzo, CCU’s leadership has successfully held down costs while advancing the University’s academic progress. For two years (2012 to 2014), tuition for in-state undergraduates did not increase, even during a significant building program. This was achieved as a result of careful long-range planning, augmented by a local 1-cent sales tax for education-related construction. Enrollment is now more than 10,400 students.

In 2014, Coastal Carolina University established its first doctoral degree program, in coastal and marine systems science. The Chanticleer baseball team won the NCAA College World Series on June 30, 2016, the first national title for CCU. On July 1, 2016, the Chanticleer athletic programs officially joined the Sun Belt Conference.
The custom of wearing a distinctive dress for academic ceremonies dates back to the Middle Ages, when people dressed in keeping with their class: nobility, clergy or third estate. The faculties of American universities have worn distinguishing costumes since the beginning, in 1636, at Harvard University.

Today, academic regalia is worn in the United States by persons taking part in academic ceremonies in general, at commencement exercises, at baccalaureate services and at various inauguration ceremonies, such as the installation of a president, the conferring of an honorary degree on a distinguished guest or the laying of the cornerstone of a building.

The institutions awarding degrees, the nature of the degrees and the major fields of knowledge represented by the degrees can be readily identified by the designs and colors used.

The baccalaureate gown is the simplest in design. Usually black, it is distinguished by a wide yoke with shirring in front and back and by open flowing sleeves that end in a point. The baccalaureate gown is worn closed.

The master’s gown is similar to the baccalaureate gown except that it has a closed or glove sleeve that is open at the wrist. The master’s gown has no other trim and may be worn either open or closed.

The doctoral gown is full flowing and has large bell-shaped sleeves. It is trimmed with velvet panels down the front and has velvet chevrons on the sleeves. While black is still the predominant color for doctoral gowns, the trim may be in a color that denotes the wearer’s discipline or the color of the gown may denote the wearer’s university.

The square Oxford cap, or mortarboard, of serge or broadcloth with a stiff crown is traditionally black. Once the baccalaureate degree has been conferred, the tassel is worn on the left side. The tassel is usually black, but may be of a color denoting the major field of knowledge for bachelor’s and master’s degrees and gold for doctoral degrees.

Candidates who are eligible to be recognized for graduation with honors wear the embroidered official white honor stole with the University Seal at graduation. Also, students who are members of the University Honors Program, the Wall Fellows, the Jackson Scholars, the Swain Scholars or other selected University honors programs are eligible to wear the University stole.

Recognized honor societies by Coastal Carolina University are:

ACADEMIC REGALIA AND PROCESSION

The greatest degree of symbolism is represented by the hood. The size and shape of the American hood mark the college degree attained by the wearer. The lining of the hood is indicative of the college from which the degree was granted. If more than one color is used, one color is generally arranged as a chevron upon the other. The velvet trim of the hood indicates the major field of knowledge.

Most academic ceremonies begin and end with an academic procession. At Coastal Carolina University, candidates for degrees are first and process in the order in which the degrees will be bestowed, followed by the faculty, with senior professors first, and the platform party.
The University Seal
The seal of Coastal Carolina University designates the founding year of the institution and associates the campus symbol, the Atheneum, with the coastal locale of the University. Carrying the Latin motto – Ex Libertate Veritas (from liberty, truth) – the seal refers to the Temple of Athene in ancient Athens where professors and students came together. The Greek temple was named for Athena, the daughter of Zeus, who embodies wisdom and reason. The waves at the foot of the Atheneum acknowledge a diversified coastal environment encompassing a distinctive geography and history, a vital present, and an abundant future. The seal was commissioned by Trustee Oran P. Smith as a gift to celebrate the July 1, 1993, establishment of the University as an independent, public institution of higher education.

The University Logo
The identifying symbol of Coastal Carolina University captures the dynamic and traditional commitment of the University to teaching and learning. The Atheneum, constructed on the campus in 1966, is a recognized architectural symbol of a meeting place for persons engaged in literary and scientific pursuits. In the logo, the Atheneum is set against an undulating background that captures the energy and unbounded promise of the institution.

The University Medallion
As symbols of events and affiliations, medallions in academic regalia can be traced to religious orders during the Middle Ages. Since many orders, societies and universities used similar designs – a circle, cross or an oval – the detailed artwork in the center of the medallion was adopted to differentiate each affiliation. Colleges and universities traditionally use ceremonial and commemorative medallions for formal occasions such as commencements, convocations and inaugurations, when academic regalia is worn. To commemorate Coastal Carolina's status as an independent university, the institution's medallion was commissioned in 1994. The installation of President Ronald R. Ingle on Oct. 22, 1994, was the first time the Coastal Carolina University medallion was publicly displayed.

The University Mace
The University mace, the symbol of the Coastal Carolina University community, attaches significance to important events of the academic calendar. Commissioned by the Horry County Higher Education Commission, the mace was designed and crafted by silversmith Alfred D. Ward and presented to the University in the spring of 1997. The mace is carried during official convocations of the University by the senior member of the faculty. When not being used for a convocation, the mace is on display in the boardroom of the E. Craig Wall Sr. College of Business Administration.

The three-dimensional, 48-inch staff is topped with a 22-karat gold-plate model of the campus symbol, the Atheneum. Modified relief seals of the University and engraved lettering embellish the sterling silver cup. Supported by a base of solid walnut, the stem of the mace is adorned with sterling silver shells, reflecting the coastal location of the University. On the base of the stem is an engraved seal of the state of South Carolina, representing the University's status as a public institution.

The list of candidates for graduation was prepared before final grades were reported, and inclusion herein does not constitute evidence of graduation. The listing of a name in this program should not be construed as an indication that the person will, in fact, receive a degree from Coastal Carolina University at this commencement. Conversely, the absence of a student’s name from this list does not necessarily mean that the person will not be awarded a degree.

Honors for degree candidates are based on the cumulative grade point average on file at the end of the previous term. Honors to be printed on the diplomas will be based on the final Coastal Carolina University cumulative grade point average.

Where indicated with an icon (.), the individual has completed all requirements for multiple degrees.

Where indicated with an icon (°), the individual has received the Trustee Award.

Commencement DVDs
To preserve your memories of this proud occasion, the Coastal Carolina University Alumni Association is making available a DVD of these commencement exercises.

Orders can be placed today at the Alumni Relations table or ordered online at coastal.edu/commencement/orders. DVDs are $25 each, which includes shipping and handling; cash, check, VISA and MasterCard are accepted. DVDs will be shipped within a few weeks of your purchase date.

Alumni Walk Bricks
Recognize your new Coastal Carolina University graduate with a lasting imprint on campus. The new Alumni Walk, which leads up to the recently renovated Atheneum Hall Alumni Center, is being enhanced with a limited number of special bricks engraved with the names of alumni and friends. Money raised through the brick campaign will support CCU’s Alumni Endowed Scholarship for students.

To order a brick, visit ccubrick.com or visit the Alumni Relations commencement table located in the concourse.

For more information, please call the Office of Alumni Relations at 843-349-ALUM (2586).

The Office of Alumni Relations extends a sincere congratulations to Coastal Carolina University’s Spring Class of 2017.

Hearing Impaired Services
An American Sign Language (ASL) interpreter will be on stage to accommodate guests who are deaf or hearing impaired. It is recommended that guests sit in Section 104 in view of the interpreter. Interpreters will not sign while graduate names are being read.
Alma Mater
Coastal Carolina

We come to you to lead our search, and learn to reach beyond ourselves –
below the earth, beyond the stars – to form our dreams for better years.

Here, green and bronze in nature, light – sweet pine forest that surround us, ocean waters that sustain us – reflect your standards that prepare us.

May we return in thought and care to share your promise of enrichment, and celebrate and sing our praise for Coastal Carolina.

– Bennie Lee Sinclair

The Coastal Carolina University Alma Mater was written in 1994 by the late Bennie Lee Sinclair, the fifth poet laureate of South Carolina, to commemorate the first year of the institution’s status as a university. The original score for the Alma Mater was written by Coastal Carolina University emeritus professor William R. Hamilton.
