

12-7-1981

Coastal Carolina College This Week, December 7, 1981

USC Coastal Carolina College

Coastal Carolina University

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.coastal.edu/this-week>

Part of the Higher Education Commons, and the History Commons

Recommended Citation

USC Coastal Carolina College and Coastal Carolina University, "Coastal Carolina College This Week, December 7, 1981" (1981). Coastal Carolina College This Week. 83.
<https://digitalcommons.coastal.edu/this-week/83>

This Periodical is brought to you for free and open access by the CCU Newsletters at CCU Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Coastal Carolina College This Week by an authorized administrator of CCU Digital Commons. For more information, please contact commons@coastal.edu.

THIS WEEK

A Newsletter for faculty, administration, and staff of Coastal Carolina College

VOL. 3 NO. 9

USC-COASTAL CAROLINA COLLEGE

DECEMBER 7, 1981

COLLEGE FOUNDATION ELECTS NEW MEMBERS

The local support body of USC-Coastal Carolina College, the Coastal Educational Foundation, has elected three new members, Coastal Carolina College Edward M. Singleton has announced.

Elected to new terms on the Coastal Educational Foundation are: Mrs. Novie Nelson, Paul Eugene Malone and Edward William Jerdon - all residents of Myrtle Beach.

Mrs. Nelson, the widow of the late Jack W. Nelson, is a native of Aliceville, Alabama, who lives in Myrtle Beach. She was educated at the University of Alabama in Tuscaloosa and at the New England Conservatory of Music in Boston. She is a member of the Christain Science Church of Myrtle Beach and is a charter member of the Dunes Golf Club. She has served as her church organist for 20 years, as a church reader for five years and as president of the church for two years. Now retired, Mrs. Nelson, with her late husband, was co-owner of Lake Arrowhead Campground and El Rancho Motel.

Paul Eugene Malone of Myrtle Beach is a native of New York City. He is a graduate of St. Johns University in New York and is a veteran of the U.S. Marine Corps. He is president of Chicora Development of Myrtle Beach, and serves as a trustee for Coastal Academy and as an advisory board member for People's Savings and Loan Association of Myrtle Beach He is a member of St. Andrews Catholic Church in Myrtle Beach and is a member of the Myrtle Beach. He is a member of St. Andrews Catholic Church in Myrtle Beach and is a member of the Myrtle Beach Rotary Club. In 1978, he served as president of the Horry County United Way. He and his wife, Sharon, have two children.

Edward William Jerdon is a native of Collingswood, N.J., who now lives in Myrtle Beach. He is president of E.W. Jerdon Construction Company of North Myrtle Beach. He is a veteran of the U.S. Army, and is married to the former Joan Hines of Washington, Georgia. He is a charter member of the Horry Conty Planning Commission and is an advisory board member of the National Bank of S.C. in North Myrtle Beach. He is also vice president of the Grand Strand Golf Executives Association; chairman of the board of Coastal Golf Corporation; and president of the Grand Strand Investment Company. He is a former director of the Myrtle Beach Chamber of Commerce; a former member of the Board of Visitors of Presbyterian College; a former trustee of Ocean View Memorial Hospital; and a former drive chairman of Boys Scouts of America in North Myrtle Beach.

He is a member of Ocean Drive Presbyterian Church and is a member of the North Myrtle Beach Rotary Club. He and his wife have four children.

"Speaking for the faculty, staff and student body of Coastal Carolina College, we're pleased to have new foundation members with the experience, accomplishments and public interest of Mrs. Nelson, Mr, Malone and Mr. Jerdon," says Chancellor Singleton. "They will doubtlessly make significant contributions to the Coastal Educational Foundation and to Coastal Carolina College."

The Coastal Educational Foundation is the private, local support body which founded Coastal Carolina College in 1954.

SOLICITATION AND DISTRIBUTION

South Carolina Code of Laws, Volume 4, Section 8-11-230, sets forth the Policy on Solicitation and Distribution. The University of South Carolina, as a employer, is legally responsible for promoting the public service it performs. The following rules are promulgated in futherance of that legal responsibility:

1. Solicitation or distribution of pamphlets, products, or other materials by persons other than employees and students of the University in those areas of the University which are not open to the public is prohibited. Solicitation or distribution by persons other than employees and students of the University which are not open to the public is prohibited.
2. Solicitation in conjunction with non-University sponsored activities by University employees on University property during working time is prohibited.
3. Distribution of pamphlets, products, or other materials by University property in non-working areas during working time is prohibited.
4. Distribution in conjunction with non-University sponsored activities of pamplets, products, or other materials by University property in working areas is prohibited.
5. Charitable fund drives approved by the President may be conducted under the University's supervision.

FACULTY, STAFF ACTIVITIES

Coastal's Dr. Tim Touzel recently spoke to parents of preschool children in Georgetown on the subject, "Introducing Children to Mathematical Ideas." Touzel also made a recent presentation to the South Carolina Council of Teachers of Mathematics, meetings in Columbia. His presentation was entitled, "Teaching Multiplication and Division Algorithms."

Coastal English professor Veronica Davis recently conducted a self-help workshop at USC-Columbia for the 2nd Annual Conference of the S.C. Black Students Association. The conference was spearheaded by Coastal student Robert McCray. Davis highlighted her workshop with the theme, "Survival is Successful Only after Negativism is Discarded."

Dr. Dennis Wiseman recently addressed the fall meeting of the S.C. Council for the Social Studies held in Columbia. The address concerned alternative instructional strategies applicable for middle school studies classrooms.

Coastal Director of Public Relations Rod Gragg was recently named as a regular contributing advisor to The Southern Partisan, a new, Columbia-based national magazine which addresses Southern history and culture.

Assistant Librarian Charmaine Tomczyk recently presented a speech on the selective maintenance of library materials to the S.C. Library Association in Columbia. Her presentation was entitled, "Cultivating the Collection in a Drought."

MEN'S BASKETBALL

CHANTICLEERS

PLAY IN

THE FAYETTEVILLE BASKETBALL TOURNEY

7 - 9 p.m.

Fri. - Sat. Dec. 11-12

Fayetteville

FINANCIAL AID FOR DEPENDENTS

The Financial Aid Office now has applications for the 1982-83 Faculty/Staff Dependents' Scholarship Program. This program is open to dependents of full-time slotted University of South Carolina system employees who meet all established eligibility criteria. Deadline for application submission is February 15, 1982. Anyone interested in more information or applications should call, ext. 205..

GREAT MOMENTS IN HIGHER EDUCATION

1958

Cosmic ray instruments developed at the University of Iowa are aboard Explorer 1, the United States' first earth satellite. Professor James Van Allen discovers that belts of radiation circle the planets Earth, Jupiter, and Saturn.

Sponsored by C.A.S.E. - Council for Advancement and Support of Higher Education.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

LADY CHANTS

VS

WINTROP

3:30 pm Sat. Dec. 12

AWAY