

7-15-1996

On Campus, July 15, 1996

Coastal Carolina University

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.coastal.edu/on-campus>

Part of the Higher Education Commons, and the History Commons

---

Recommended Citation

Coastal Carolina University, "On Campus, July 15, 1996" (1996). On Campus Newsletter. 84.
<https://digitalcommons.coastal.edu/on-campus/84>

This Periodical is brought to you for free and open access by the CCU Newsletters at CCU Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in On Campus Newsletter by an authorized administrator of CCU Digital Commons. For more information, please contact commons@coastal.edu.

On Campus

A Newsletter for Faculty and Staff of Coastal Carolina University • Volume 5, Number 13 • July 15, 1996

University announces summer theater schedule

Two comedies will be staged in repertory as part of Coastal Carolina University's Summer Theater program in Wheelwright Auditorium. The plays will be performed at 7:30 p.m. Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays beginning July 25.

Sandi Shackelford will perform her one-woman Southern gothic comedy, Truth, Beauty and FDR on July 25, 26, 27 and August 1, 2 and 3. Bill C. Davis' comedy of youthful passion vs. aged compassion, Mass Appeal, will be performed August 8, 9 and 10.

Shackelford, associate professor of dramatic arts, debuts Truth, Beauty, and FDR, by Edgar-award winning playwright Jean Cooper, on the Wheelwright stage after a two-week successful run as part of the 1996 Piccolo Spoleto in Charleston. With eight seconds for costume changes, Shackelford portrays the three eccentric Rivers siblings of Rosecreek Estates (Truth, headmistress of a finishing school for girls; Beauty, a schizophrenic who likes to perch on the bell tower; and FDR, an alcoholic and reclusive travel writer) as well as an overworked tour guide. The secrets, the gossip and the longings of this funny and touching household are revealed as the characters parade through Rosecreek's private study, where the

Coastal Carolina University job listings to go on-line

Coastal Carolina University is expanding its service for area employers seeking to fill part-time, full-time seasonal or professional positions. Beginning August 1, employers who wish to advertise positions with Coastal's Office of Student Employment and Career Management Services must enter job listings on JOBTRAK, an electronic job listing service which will allow students and alumni to access information via the Internet.

Job listings from area employers also will be posted on the bulletin board at Coastal's Office of Student Employment. Part-time jobs will be posted for two weeks and full-time jobs will be posted for one month.

JOBTRAK, an Internet-based delivery system on the World Wide Web, allows employers to list

Jimmy D'Angelo golf tournament rescheduled

Coastal Carolina University will host the first annual Jimmy D'Angelo Third Quarter Invitational Golf Tournament on Saturday, Aug. 17, at Belle Terre Golf Course. The tournament was originally scheduled for July 13.

Proceeds from the tournament will support Third Quarter, an academic enrichment program for men and women who are age 50 or older. Established in 1988, Third Quarter has brought together individuals with diverse backgrounds, skills and interests in the pursuit of knowledge. Administered through the School of Education's Center for Education and Community, the program is unique in that it has been developed and is directed by its participants. One of the group's main objectives is to fund the construction of a building which will house Third Quarter activities.

audience is gathered as if for a tour of the estate.

Davis' Mass Appeal features Charles Whetzel, associate professor of dramatic arts, and Jason Vail, a Coastal Carolina graduate and first-year student in the Professional Acting Program at the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill. Whetzel plays the beloved leader of St. Francis Church, Father Tim Farley, whose comfortable manner and theology is challenged by the appearance of a young seminarian, Mark Dolson, played by Vail. Dolson espouses a doctrinaire theology that upsets not only Father Farley, whom Dolson calls "a song and dance theologian," but the whole congregation. But as the young priest trains with Father Farley, he discovers values that his fiery temper and textbooks had not allowed him to learn. The New York Times calls Mass Appeal "First rate... a wise, moving, and very funny comedy about the nature of friendship, courage and all kinds of love."

Tickets are available at the Wheelwright Box Office between noon and 5 p.m. weekdays, and reservations can be made by calling extension 2502. Tickets are $10 and $5 for students. Complimentary gourmet coffees and desserts will be offered. ♦ company profiles at no charge and job listings for $12.50 each, according to Mollie Fout, coordinator of Coastal's Career Management Services.

"This new service represents a quantum leap in information access for both employers and students," said Fout. "The information can be accessed 24 hours a day, seven days a week." Students and alumni interested in a job listing can find out about companies, available positions and names of contact persons. JOBTRAK offers information on more than 100,000 employers nationally and internationally.

Employers interested in listing available positions on JOBTRAK may call 800-999-8725. To recruit on campus, employers may contact Mollie Fout at extension 2333. ♦

The tournament will consist of up to 36 four-person teams, captain's choice, and will begin at 8:30 a.m. with a shotgun start. Check-in begins at 7:30 a.m. Cost of the tournament is $50 and includes cart and greens fees; space is limited, early registration is recommended. An awards reception will be held at Thoroughbreds Restaurant in Myrtle Beach from 4 to 6 p.m. following the tournament.

The Jimmy D'Angelo Third Quarter Invitational Golf Tournament serves as a benchmark which will allow the Third Quarter program to further Coastal's mission of service to the community and better serve the area's growing older population.

For more information or to register, call Danielle Eiler at extension 2673.

New Principals' Academy to be held at Coastal

The university will host approximately 25 first-year principals from across the state from July 21 to 26 as part of the 11th annual New Principals' Academy, sponsored by the South Carolina Department of Education's Office of Professional Development.

The New Principals' Academy is designed exclusively for new principals of elementary, middle/junior high and senior high schools and offers curriculum to help them develop and improve presentation and leadership skills.

Seminars and other activities will be conducted by local and state experts. Scheduled topics include school climate and culture, leadership and management, adult learning theory and supervising instruction. Follow-up meetings throughout the year provide a forum for the exchange of ideas and provide new principals with additional training.

Each participant is paired with an experienced principal who serves as a mentor.

For more information, contact Pat Taylor at extension 2616. ♦

Scholarship recipient to attend Coastal

Gregory S. Evans of Bennettsville, S.C., recipient of a Palmetto Fellows Scholarship for academic year 1996-1997, will begin pursuing a bachelor's degree in biology at Coastal Carolina University in the fall.

The Palmetto Fellows Scholarship was established by the South Carolina Commission on Higher Education to foster scholarship among the state's post-secondary students and to retain outstanding South Carolina high school graduates in the state through awards based on scholarship and achievement. Recipients are chosen on the basis of their PSAT/SAT scores, grade point averages, class rank, participation in extracurricular activities, leadership abilities and letters of recommendation.

Evans is eligible to receive a scholarship award of $5,000, which is renewable annually for up to four years if eligibility criteria are met. The amount of the scholarship is determined by the South Carolina Commission on Higher Education.

Evans grew up in Bennettsville and graduated from Marlboro County High School in the spring. "I chose Coastal because I like the size of the school and the location. It's not too big and it's only about 75 miles from home."

Evans is planning to become a pharmacist. ♦

Credit Union announces extended hours

The extended hours of operation for the Coastal Carolina University branch of the Carolina Collegiate Federal Credit Union will be Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. effective Monday, July 22. The credit union is located in SNGL 223. ♦

COASTAL CAROLINA
UNIVERSITY

Did you know?

The student-faculty ratio at Coastal Carolina University for academic year 1995-1996 was 18 to 1.

Summer hours for food services

ARAMARK, Inc., food service providers for the campus, has announced summer hours for The Campus Station and The Cafe.

The Campus Station, located in the Student Center, will be open weekdays from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. through Friday, August 9. Selections are available from the Grille, the Deli or Pizza Hut menu items.

The Cafe, featuring an all-you-can-eat menu, is located adjacent to the new residence halls.

The Cafe will be open weekdays through Tuesday, August 6. Meal costs and the hours of operation are as follows:

- Breakfast: $3.50; served from 7 to 9 a.m.
- Lunch: $4.50; served from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.
- Dinner: $5; served from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m.

For more information, contact Evan Klingman at extension 2365. ♦

Psychology students present research projects

Eight Coastal Carolina University senior psychology majors recently presented research projects at the Carolinas Psychology Conference in Raleigh, N.C. Students submitted abstracts of research papers for consideration prior to the conference, which was cosponsored by North Carolina State University and Meredith College.

The participating students presented the following project topics:

- Melissa Bednarski of North Myrtle Beach, Stress, Personal Strain and Coping Abilities Among Catholic Priests and Nuns;
- Susan Boguszewski from Berlin, N.J., The Differences in History of Lifetime Aggression Between Violent and Non-Violent Criminal Offenders;
- Nicolina Fazio of Surfside Beach, The Effect of Attributional Style and Depression on Academic Achievement;

- Tanya Mendleson of Myrtle Beach, The Effects of Type of Test Administration on Quantitative Performance on Graduate Record Exam;
- Christine Merritt of Surfside Beach, Effects of Recreation Therapy on Depressive Symptomatology and Blood Pressure of Residents in a Residential Care Facility;
- Paula Pyle of Conway, The Effects of Program Content on Aggressive Behavior in Children;
- Barak Rush of North Myrtle Beach, The Effects of Test Mode on Quantitative Performance on the Graduate Record Exam; and
- Christian Young of Myrtle Beach, Dedication to Exercise and Self-Esteem.

Pyle and Fazio also presented their research at the 10th National Conference on Undergraduate Research in Asheville, N.C. ♦

Orientation 1996 marches forward

Orientation '96 sessions for new students and their families will be held on campus as follows:

Freshmen students

- Monday, July 22 and Tuesday, July 23
- Thursday, August 15 and Friday, August 16

Transfer students

- Friday, July 19
- Wednesday, August 14

Please mark your calendars and be ready to welcome these new people to Coastal Carolina.

For more information, contact Pat Singleton-Young at extension 2304. ♦

Campus Calendar

JULY

16

Orientation '96

for new students and their families (Day 2): all day, campus.
Pat Singleton-Young

M.A.T. Testing

3 p.m., PRIN 215
Linda Ford

17

Narcotics Anonymous Closed Meeting

6:30 p.m., KH 106
Vicki Gardner

19

Orientation '96

for transfer students: all day, campus.
Pat Singleton-Young

20

Narcotics Anonymous Open Meeting

6:30 p.m., KH 106
Vicki Gardner

22

Orientation '96

for new students and their families (Day 1): all day, campus;
continues through July 23
Pat Singleton-Young

23

Orientation '96

for new students and their families (Day 2): all day, campus.
Pat Singleton-Young

M.A.T. Testing

3 p.m., PRIN 215
Linda Ford

24

Narcotics Anonymous Closed Meeting

6:30 p.m., KH 106
Vicki Gardner

27

Narcotics Anonymous Open Meeting

6:30 p.m., KH 106
Vicki Gardner

30

M.A.T. Testing

3 p.m., PRIN 215
Linda Ford

31

Narcotics Anonymous Closed Meeting

6:30 p.m., KH 106
Vicki Gardner

AUGUST

3

Narcotics Anonymous Open Meeting

6:30 p.m., KH 106
Vicki Gardner

Birthdays in July and August

July

- 16 Philip Powell
17 June Barfield
Eric Koepfler
18 Bruce Martin
Lindy Smith
Sandy Williams
19 Peter Zuraw
20 Denvy Bowman
Peter Lecouras
21 Steve Hamelman
Lamonica Yates
23 Paul Fowler
Joann Pugh
24 Paul Camp
25 Nancy Goettel
Kevin Hefferan
Carl Keller
Deborah Vrooman
26 George Gibson
27 Ethel Aldridge
Brenda Cox
28 Leister Butler
29 Jim Blackburn
Barbara Driver
Julia Wilcox
31 Kay Alford

August

- 1 Amy Virginia Clark
Jess Dannelly
Marlene Marvin
Constance Opalko
3 Billy Hills
4 Donna Gregg
5 Deryl Edwards

New zip code for university post office box

Effective July 8, the zip code for the main university address, P.O. Box 1954, is 29528. Where possible, please make necessary changes in all outgoing correspondences. When envelope stock in your area begins to get low and is reordered in the Office of Public Information, layouts for reprinting will reflect the change in zip code. Letterhead and business card reorders also will be changed to the new zip code.

The University shipping address, 755 Highway 544, retains the 29526 zip code.

All mail to and from students who live in the residence halls will not be affected by this change. ♦

A reminder . . .

The Coastal Carolina University logo is a registered and fully protected trademark. As such, the logo must only be used for approved purposes and cannot be modified in any way without prior approval from the Office of Public Information.

For more information and for logo approval, call the Office of Public Information at extension 2003 or 2017. ♦

On Campus

On Campus will be published as follows:

Publication date:	Submission deadline:
Monday, Aug. 5	Tuesday, July 30

On Campus is published by the Office of Public Information. Items to be included should be submitted to the Office of Public Information in EMS 204 by noon the Tuesday before publication.

Coastal Carolina University is an affirmative action, equal opportunity institution.