Vice president of Institutional Advancement named

Alan L. Nagy has been named Coastal Carolina University's vice president of Institutional Advancement, effective Jan. 1, 1997. He is responsible for programs of resource development for the university, including individual, foundation and corporate fund raising, alumni relations, major gifts and capital campaigns. In addition, he will serve as the university liaison to the Coastal Educational Foundation, Inc., which secures local resources for scholarships and for university programs not supported by state allocations.

Nagy comes to Coastal from Illinois State University, where as director of development he solicited major gifts and planned gifts and developed corporate and foundation proposals that generated more than $1 million for the university. Prior to joining Illinois State in 1994, he served as development associate at Purdue University and as director of development at Olivet College in Olivet, Mich. Nagy also was athletic director at Yale University, New Haven, Conn., from 1972 to 1988.

Nagy earned a master's degree in physical education from Central Michigan University in 1977 and bachelor's degrees in psychology and physical education from Olney College in 1966.

University hosts 10th Annual African American Celebration

The 10th Annual African American Celebration at Coastal will offer 11 events designed to capture the art, history, music and theater of the African American culture. Events will be held from Jan. 17 to April 16 on the university campus. All events are open to the public. Admission will be charged for the "Sheryl Wand and Friends" performance and the "Greek Step Show," all other events are free.

To open the semester-long celebration, a "Peace Circle" commemorating the life and achievements of Martin Luther King Jr. will be formed Thursday, Jan. 17 at 12:30 p.m. on the Horseshoe in front of the Singleton Building. In case of inclement weather, the event will be held in Wheelwright Auditorium.

Attorney Thomas Broadwater of Columbia, S.C., will lead a tribute service in memory of Martin Luther King Jr. on Monday, Jan. 20 at 3:00 p.m. in the Wall Auditorium. Entertainment will be provided by local high school groups, choirs and area youth groups.

An exhibit of the work of photographer Alicia D. Megginson will be displayed in Coastal's art gallery in the Administration Building from Monday, Jan. 20 to Friday, Feb. 7. Megginson's award-winning photos include collages which depict people and places from her ancestral past. The gallery is open weekdays from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

A concert showcasing the splendid vocal talents of local singers, "Sheryl Wand and Friends," is set for Saturday, Feb. 1 at 7:30 p.m. in Wheelwright Auditorium. The concert will feature blues, gospel, jazz, pop standards and spirituals. Admission is $10, $5 for students. For ticket information, call the Wheelwright Box Office at extension 2502.

The Coastal Carolina University Gospel Choir, other university choirs and guest choirs from the Waccamaw region will present the "Great Gospel Sing Out" on Sunday, Feb. 9 at 5:30 p.m in Wheelwright Auditorium. This concert, an annual favorite, is a celebration of joyous, moving music.

Comedienne Renee Hicks will perform Monday, Feb. 10 at 7:30 p.m. in Wheelwright Auditorium. Hicks has appeared on "Comic Strip Live," "Evening at the Improv" and the television comedy show "Hanging With Mr. Cooper." She was named the National Association of Campus Activities Comedy Entertainer of the Year in 1995.

Coastal Carolina University students will present "Do You Know...?" a recognition," which is an exploration of the scientific, artistic, cultural and social contributions of African Americans through monologues, poetry, skits, music and readings. The event is scheduled for Wednesday, Feb. 26 at 6:30 p.m. in the Wall Auditorium.

"An Evening with April Turner and Galen" will be held Wednesday, March 5 at 7 p.m. in the Wall Auditorium. Turner, an actress and writer, has appeared in numerous television and film projects including Stephen King's "The Night Flier" and "Other Voices, Other Rooms." She will present her one-woman show, "Postcards from the Kingdom." Galen, a jazz artist, has performed and recorded with acclaimed pianist Billy Taylor and Meda Moore. His ensemble performs at colleges and universities across the nation.

A panel discussion on diversity issues at Coastal, "Educational Forum" will be held Wednesday, March 26 at 12:30 p.m. in the Wall Auditorium.

Students from traditionally African American fraternities and sororities will present a "Greek Step Show," a performance of synchronized stepping and dancing, on Saturday, April 5 at 6 p.m. in Wheelwright Auditorium. Admission is $5 for students.

"Cultural Explosions," a day-long festival celebrating cultural diversity through music, art, food and more, will be held Wednesday, April 16 from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. in Spadoni Park. There will be charges for refreshments and items will be available for purchase.

For more information, contact Pat Singleton-Youn of the Office of Minority Student Services at extension 2581.

Director of Safety named

Donald O. Brook has been named Coastal Carolina University's director of safety, effective Jan. 1, 1997. His responsibilities include the administration of the Department of Law Enforcement and Safety and the development and administration of the university's fire, safety and hazardous materials program. He also will serve as a liaison between the university and health and safety compliance agencies such as the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA).

Brook served with the Clinton (Mich.) Township Police Department for 26 years, including two years as deputy chief of police. He served three terms on the Chippewa Valley (Mich.) Public Schools Board of Education and held adjunct faculty positions at Macomb Community College in Clinton, Mich., and at Central Michigan University in Mt. Pleasant, Mich.

Brook earned an E.D. in administration and supervision from Wayne State University in Detroit, Mich., in 1982, a master's degree in management and supervision with a concentration in public administration from Central Michigan University in 1978, and a bachelor's degree in sociology from Oakland University in Rochester, Mich., in 1977.

Did you know?

Bob Beckham and RonPro Entertainment.
Veronica harmonica player Kirk "Jelly Roll" Johnson, another veteran of the Songwriters in the Round concerts, is a Nashville-based studio musician who has recorded with Reba McEntire, Randy Travis, The Judds, Kenny Rogers and more than 70 other country stars. From 1979 to 1987, he performed regularly with star singer songwriter Billy Conn, opening for such acts as Alabama, the Oak Ridge Boys, Loretta Lynn, Emmylou Harris and appearing on Austin City Limits, Nashville Now and other national television shows.
Amanda Hunt-Taylor grew up in Myrtle Beach, where her parents owned a tailoring shop which produced stage clothes for Dolly Parton, Porter Wagoner and others. A 10-year veteran of the songwriting trade, Hunt-Taylor penned the number one song, "Your Love Amazes Me," recorded by John Berry in 1993. The song won her a Songwriter of the Year award in 1994 and was named Song of the Year in the TNN Country Music Songwriters Awards in 1995. Some of her other songs have been recorded by Tanya Tucker, Doug Supernaw and Jeff Carson.
In his eclectic 57-year career, Jack Williams has played lead guitar for blues great John Lee Hooker and Big Joe Turner, played trumpet in a jazz quartet, won a national arts grant for a piece of chamber music he composed, and led back-up bands for such artists as the Shirelles, the Drifters and the Platters. Since 1993, Williams has worked as sole accompanist to legendary songwriter Mickey Newbury and co-produced Newbury's 1996 CD Laid by Moonlight, which was listed as "pick of the week" for two consecutive months in Billboard magazine.

Jazz concert featuring the Warren Vache Trio
Regarded as one of the finest ensembles in jazz, the Warren Vache Trio will present a concert in Wheelwright Auditorium on Saturday, January 25 at 7:30 p.m. as part of Coastal's Wheeler Series. Tickets are $15, $5 for students.
Warren Vache's brilliant musicianship has kept him in constant demand in concert halls as well as on stage, screen, radio and television for the past three decades. Vache, who plays muted cornet, began playing professionally at age 15 and joined Benny Goodman's legendary band when he was in his mid-20s. Other jazz immortals of whom Vache has played with include Immortal Louis Armstrong, Cooney, Woody Herman and Hank Jones. He has performed in top venues around the world, including Carnegie Hall, Lincoln Center, the Vienna Opera as well as jazz clubs in the United States, Europe, Japan and Australia.
Vache taught actor Richard Gere to play the cornet for his role in Francis Ford Coppola's The Cotton Club and performed on the soundtracks of Blues Brothers, Woody Allen's Crimes and Misdemeanors and other films. He was musical director of the Richard Burton-Elizabeth Taylor revival of Noel Coward's Private Lives. Vache records for Mute Records of New York and his most recent release is Horn of Plenty and Talk to Me Baby.
"Vache is one of the giants of traditional jazz," said Paul Peterson, a past chairman and current member of Coastal's Cultural Arts Committee. "We have been trying to get him here for five or six years. He ranks with Ruby Braff and Wynton Marsalis as a comet player. The Vache concert should rank right up there with the concerts that Dizzy Gillespie and Scott Hamilton gave at Wheelwright. We are delighted that we have finally been able to arrange for this show to take place."
In addition to Vache, the trio features Joe Puma on guitar and Murray Wall on bass.

Six honored in University adult education program
Six Horry County residents earned certificates for completing educational courses as part of the Job Training Partnership Act (JTPA) program at Coastal Carolina University.
The three-to-six month program is sponsored by Job Link, an employment training agency funded through the Waccamaw Private Industry Council which prepares adults to enter the job market by enhancing their practical work experience skills. The JTPA program, in its first year at Coastal; combines classroom instruction and on-the-job training. "The classes focus on computer and occupational skills, developing resumes, business behavior and ethics," said Kim Barth of the Office of Human Resources and Affirmative Action.
Participants in the program are selected by Job Link. For more information about the Job Training Partnership Act program, contact Kim Barth at extension 2256 or Tim Wert at extension 2036.
Creative Dating Workshop to be held on campus
The Campus Program Board will sponsor the Creative Dating Workshop on Wednesday, Jan. 22 from 7:30 to 9 p.m. in the Wall Auditorium. The program is free and open to Coastal's students, faculty and staff.
The interactive workshop is designed to assist students in discovering options regarding relationships and orientations, how to approach tough, current issues in a constructive way, and developing new feelings of confidence in relationships. Some of the topics to be discussed include making a good impression; interpersonal dating communication; the impact of alcohol and AIDS on relationships; bringing back romance; dating expectations; breaking up, making a good break-up, and "The Showdown" (last five minutes of a date).
For more information, contact Debbie Conner at extension 2251.
Funding for benefit School of Education
The Board of Visitors of the School of Education will sponsor their second annual fundraiser to be held Friday, Jan. 31 at The Dunlen Golf and Beach Club in Myrtle Beach. Tickets are $100 which will admit two people and includes heavy hors d'oeuvres, an open bar and drawings for prizes to be held throughout the evening. A grand prize drawing for $2,500 will be held. All proceeds will be used to increase the technology resources of the School of Education and for student scholarships.
For more information or to purchase tickets, contact Dennis Wiseman at extension 2600.

Questions about submitting items for consideration should be directed to Margaret Pain, chair of the Academic Affairs Committee, at extension 2160.

In appreciation
Dear Coastal family,
All the cards, notes, and flowers my family and I received during December touched us deeply. My family was especially grateful for all the expressions of sympathy which our friends from CCU sent. Thank you so much for taking time from your busy holiday schedules to let us know how much you cared.
Fondly,
Judy Ingle

Megginson photography to be exhibited
An exhibit of photographs titled "Ancestral Dialogues" by Felicia D. Megginson, an award-winning artist whose works explore the connection between memory and identity, will be on display at the art gallery in the Admissions Building from Monday, Jan. 20 at 1 p.m. to Friday, Feb. 14. The opening reception for the exhibit will be held Tuesday, Jan. 21 from 2 to 4 p.m. The exhibits and the reception are free and open to the public. The gallery is open weekdays from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.
In two series of photographs called "Ancestral Altars" and "Haunted Interiors," Megginson seeks to define her identity through the creative investigation of her family's history. Her photographs combine family snapshots and images of houses, rooms, furniture and clothing from her family's past.
"My work serves as a sort of memory 're­collections' whereby I collect images and memories from the past in an attempt to develop a better understanding of who I am, who I am becoming," said Megginson. "In essence, I am trying to see into the future by looking into my past.
"Haunted Interiors" depicts rooms in the house of Megginson's 87-year-old aunt. Although she is no longer capable of living in the house, her aunt's presence is suggested through the clothing and possessions she left behind.
Megginson was born in Los Angeles. She earned a bachelor's degree in English from the University of Virginia in 1988 and a master's degree in studio and environmental art from New York University in 1996. She was the 1996 recipient of the Jack Goodman Award for Art and Technology from New York University.
For more information about the exhibit, contact Cheryl Green at extension 2700.
