NORTH CAROLINA OPERA COMES TO WHEELWRIGHT

The North Carolina Opera, touring affiliate of the Charlotte Opera Association, will perform DIE FLEDERMAUS by the Waltz King, Johann Strauss, at USC-Coastal Carolina College. Having become quite popular in the last few decades, DIE FLEDERMAUS, presented in English, has enjoyed much popularity as an outstanding box-office attraction. The performance is scheduled in Wheelwright Auditorium at USC-Coastal Carolina College at 8 p.m., April 27th. Tickets are $10 and may be obtained by writing the college or by visiting the box office at Wheelwright Auditorium. The performance is scheduled to honor donors of Wheelwright Auditorium, the new $3 million auditorium at the college.

DIE FLEDERMAUS is a salute to waltzes, champagne and the good life. Set in a Viennese Summer Resort, the hilarious predicaments of Eisenstein, the banker, Rosalinde, his wife, and Prince Orlofsky, the playboy, unfold.

The North Carolina Opera's DIE FLEDERMAUS features some of America's most well-known opera singers. David Bender, Eisenstein, has performed in over 40 operatic roles and been highly praised in New York, Santa Fe and Central City. Claudia Cummings, Rosalinde, performed the role with Houston Grand Opera last February. She has performed many title roles including roles with San Francisco, Chattanooga, Reno and the Canadian Opera companies. Brad Liebl, Charlotte Opera's Affiliate Artist, will perform the role of Dr. Falke. Since his critically acclaimed debut with the Houston Grand Opera, he has continually delighted audiences throughout the nation. North Carolinian David Rae Smith, Prince Orlofsky, has performed with Beverly Sills and in many major opera centers such as Houston, Miami, and Fort Worth. In addition to a cast of 7 principal artists, the production will tour with the Charlotte Symphony Orchestra and a 16 member chorus.

"PLAZA SUITE" OPENS APRIL 23rd

The ever-visible Neil Simon, author of such past hits as "Barefoot in the Park" and "The Odd Couple," is the author of three short plays linked together by their setting and their over-all title of "Plaza Suite," that will be presented at the Coastal Carolina Theatre at 8 p.m. on April 23, 24, and 26 in Wheelwright Auditorium.

Well-credentialed as one of Neil Simon's most uproariously amusing comedies, "Plaza Suite" will have Mary Lou Connally, Cynthia Clontz, Beth Maher, Don Savelle, and Charles Piggett in the starring roles of married couples in ludicrous crises in two of the plays, and --- in the third play --- of long-ago sweethearts in a reunion fifteen years after their school-days romance.

In the gay and breezy "Plaza Suite," Mr. Simon has unified a trio of wildly funny, separate comedies by placing them in a single elegant suite in New York's prestigious Hotel Plaza, on different occasions. Each of the three fables deals with people and situations that are laughable because they so neatly reflect real life in the latter third of this century.

Tickets are $3 at the door and may be purchased in advance.
