

5-5-1997

On Campus, May 5, 1997

Coastal Carolina University

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.coastal.edu/on-campus>

 Part of the Higher Education Commons, and the History Commons

Recommended Citation

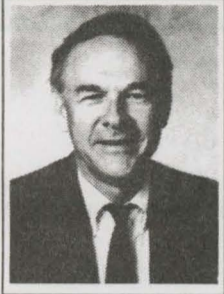

Coastal Carolina University, "On Campus, May 5, 1997" (1997). On Campus Newsletter. 102.
<https://digitalcommons.coastal.edu/on-campus/102>

This Periodical is brought to you for free and open access by the CCU Newsletters at CCU Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in On Campus Newsletter by an authorized administrator of CCU Digital Commons. For more information, please contact commons@coastal.edu.

On Campus

A Newsletter for Faculty and Staff of Coastal Carolina University • Volume 6, Number 9 • May 5, 1997

Coastal Commencement set for May 10

Lesesne

Coastal Carolina University will recognize approximately 400 candidates for graduation during commencement exercises Saturday, May 10 at 9 a.m. at the Soccer Stadium. May and August candidates will be recognized. The public is welcome to attend.

Joab M. Lesesne Jr., William F. Davis and Fred P. Brinkman will receive honorary degrees.

Joab M. Lesesne Jr., president of Wofford College since 1972 and a former Coastal administrator, will deliver the commencement address and receive the honorary degree of Doctor of Humane Letters.

A native of Greenville, S.C., Lesesne grew up in Due West and received a bachelor's degree from Erskine College and a master's degree and a Ph.D. in history from the University of South Carolina. He has completed the Institute for Educational Management at the Harvard Business School and is a graduate of both the Army Command and General Staff College and the Army War College.

Lesesne taught history and political science at Coastal from 1960 to 1962, and served as assistant director from 1961 to 1962. Coastal was then a branch campus of USC with an enrollment of 100 students. He went to Wofford in 1964 as an assistant professor of history. Three years later, he was appointed director of development, a position he held for a year before being named dean of the college. He served as dean from 1970 to 1972, when he was named president. Under Lesesne's leadership, Wofford has received national recognition for its leadership in liberal arts education.

Lesesne has served on the board of directors of the American Council on Education, as president of the Southern University Conference and as a member of the Commission on National Challenges in Higher Education.

William F. Davis served on the Horry County Board of Education for 29 years, and was chair of the board for 28 years, from 1954 to 1982. An original founder of Coastal Carolina, he was involved in early discussions about the establishment of the institution and later was instrumental in securing funding for the first building on the Coastal campus, the Edward M. Singleton Building. He is a charter member of the Coastal Educational Foundation, Inc., and served as a member of the foundation from 1954 to 1956. Davis has been a member of the Horry County Higher Education Commission since 1986.

Davis

Davis also served on the Conway Hospital Foundation and the United Methodist College Board of Higher Education. He is the recipient of the Aynor Area Citizen of the Year Award, the South Carolina School Board Association Distinguished Service Award, and the Conway Area Chamber of Commerce Lifetime Achievement Award. He also received the Holliday Appreciation Award for 60 years of service.

Born in Kings Creek, South Carolina, in 1914, Davis was educated in the public schools of Horry County and at the University of South Carolina. He is management consultant for Holliday Associates and Blackwater Corporation. Davis will receive the honorary degree of Doctor of Public Service.

Fred P. Brinkman led South Carolina's tourism industry to international importance during his career. He twice served as director of the Myrtle Beach Area Chamber of Commerce, from 1956 to 1964 and again from 1970 to 1973. From 1973 until his retirement in 1991, Brinkman was executive director of the South Carolina Department of Parks, Recreation and Tourism (PRT), the state's tourism promotion agency. Under Brinkman's leadership, PRT developed tourism-related education programs in collaboration with many of South Carolina's institutions of higher learning and began offering scholarships to students preparing for careers in the industry.

Brinkman was presented the Order of the Palmetto by Governor Carroll Campbell in 1992. He received the Southeast Tourism Society's Shining Example Award in 1994.

Born in Overland, Missouri, in 1925, Brinkman served in the U.S. Navy in World War II. He earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from Florida State University in 1953. Brinkman will receive the honorary degree of Doctor of Public Service

In case of inclement weather, the commencement ceremony will be held in Kimbel Gymnasium; a closed-circuit broadcast also will be shown in Wheelwright Auditorium. ♦

Brinkman

Coastal faculty earn promotions

The Coastal Carolina University Board of Trustees has approved the recommendations by the administration for faculty promotions and tenure, effective Aug. 16, 1997.

• Arlene Adams has been promoted from assistant professor to associate professor of education with tenure. Adams joined the Coastal faculty in 1991. She earned a Ed.D. in education from the State University of New York at Albany.

• Constance Edwards has been promoted from associate professor of mathematics to professor of mathematics. Edwards joined the Coastal faculty in 1989. She earned a Ph.D. in mathematics from the University of Wisconsin.

• Paul Gayes has been promoted from associate professor of marine science and geology to professor of marine science and geology. Gayes joined the Coastal faculty in 1987. He earned a Ph.D. in coastal oceanography from the State University of New York at Stony Brook.

• Steven L. Hamelman has been promoted from assistant professor of English to associate professor of English with tenure. Hamelman joined the Coastal faculty in 1991. He earned a Ph.D. in English and American literature from Brandeis University.

• Michael M. Lackey has been promoted from assistant librarian to associate librarian with tenure. Lackey joined the Coastal staff in 1991. He earned a M.L.S. degree in library science from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

• James L. Michie has been promoted from assistant professor of history to associate professor of history with tenure. He joined the Coastal faculty in 1990. Michie earned a master's degree in anthropology from the University of Tennessee.

• Brian K. Nance has been promoted from assistant professor of history to associate professor of history with tenure. Nance joined the Coastal faculty in 1991. He earned a Ph.D. in history from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

• Prashant B. Sansgiry has been promoted from assistant professor of mathematics to associate professor of mathematics with tenure. Sansgiry joined the Coastal faculty in 1990. He earned a Ph.D. in applied mathematics from the University of Wyoming.

• Kenneth W. Townsend was promoted from assistant professor of history to associate professor of history with tenure. Townsend joined the Coastal faculty in 1989. He earned a Ph.D. in American history from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. ♦

Cooperative Golf Program creates partnership with Spain

Coastal Carolina University officials and education and golf industry representatives from Barcelona, Spain, unveiled plans for a first-of-its-kind cooperative golf education program at a press conference Friday, May 2.

Designed to provide educational opportunities for aspiring golf professionals in Spain by combining academic studies and professional golf experience, the program is a collaborative effort between Coastal Carolina University, the Catalan Institute of Business Studies, the Catalan National Institute of Physical Education, the Catalan Federation of Golf and the Spanish Royal Federation of Golf.

Students participating in the five-year program will study in Barcelona for the first three years, then matriculate into the Cooperative Golf Management program at Coastal Carolina University to earn the Bachelor of Science in Business Administration - Cooperative Golf Management degree.

The Catalan Institute of Business Studies will recruit students into the program and provide the first three years of academic studies. These studies will include foundation courses in business and the humanities. The Catalan National Institute of Physical Education will collaborate in the design and teaching of the science courses. The Catalan Federation of Golf offers golf training sessions during the first three years.

In the final two years, students will matriculate into the academic program at Coastal. They will complete the academic requirements of the program here and will serve apprenticeships under Class A golf tutors at Grand Strand area golf courses. Those who successfully complete the program will be recognized by the Spanish Royal Federation of Golf and will be awarded its equivalent Class A professional status.

The program begins in the fall 1997 semester. "This unique international cooperative is an

continued on page 2

COASTAL CAROLINA
UNIVERSITY

Did you know?

Average undergraduate resident tuition and fee charges for colleges and universities in South Carolina were $3,210 for the 1996-1997 academic year. South Carolina ranks 20th in the nation in college fees.

Source: College Board Survey

Cooperative Golf Management Program

continued from front page

important step for Coastal Carolina University," said President Ingle. "It speaks directly to our mandate for global diversity and opens up new avenues for cooperative exchanges involving students and faculty. All the partners in this innovative program will benefit," said Ingle.

"This is a great opportunity because the sport of golf is on the rise in Spain," said Pedro Cardelús Muñoz-Seca, vice president of the Spanish Royal Federation of Golf. "The federation has nearly 108,000 members now and is growing rapidly. This program fulfills the mission of the Spanish Federation of Golf to raise the level of professionalism in Spain's golf industry."

"This program is also important because it enhances the economic vitality of the entire Grand Strand area by initiating new opportunities for international tourism," said Pete Barr, dean of the Wall School of Business.

"Each of the five organizations in this partnership plays a vital role in the program," said Barr. "All of the partners have collaborated in the review of the curriculum and will continue to work jointly to provide the highest level of education and professional experiences for the students enrolled in the program."

In addition to Cardelús, representatives of the partnership who met with Coastal officials this week include Pedro Masafret Vidal, director of the Catalan Institute of Business Studies, Carlos Rosal Bertrand, president of the Catalan Federation of Golf, and José Antonio Sancha de Prada, director of the Catalan National Institute of Physical Education and site director of the European Network of Sport Sciences in Higher Education.

For more information about the Cooperative Golf Management Program, contact Barr at extension 2640. ♦

Honors Convocation recognizes students and faculty

Coastal Carolina University presented awards for student academic achievement at the annual Honors Convocation on Tuesday, April 29. Faculty recognition awards also were presented.

Heidi Zeleznik, senior mathematics and marine science major from Poughkeepsie, N.Y., received the 1996-1997 Faculty's Academic Excellence Award. Candidates for this award must attain a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.5, the endorsement of a faculty adviser, and a record of academic honors while at Coastal. Zeleznik, whose cumulative grade point average is 3.959, is president of the Mathematics honor society Pi Mu Epsilon. She was awarded a summer student internship at the Argonne National Laboratory in 1996 and was chosen for the Space and Life Sciences Training Program at the Kennedy Space Center and Florida A&M University in summer 1995. A member of Coastal's Honors Program, she has been inducted into three national honor societies while at Coastal.

James D. Dukes Jr., senior political science major from Kingstree, S.C., received the 1996-1997 Ronald D. Lackey Service Award. Named in honor of a retired Coastal faculty member and university chaplain, the award is given annually to a senior on the basis of conspicuous service to the university through involvement and leadership in campus organizations. Dukes has served as president of the Student Government Association (SGA), senior class president, governor of the South Carolina Student Legislature, president of Pi Kappa Phi fraternity, chair of the Student Affairs and Safety Committee of the Student Senate, and U.S. Senate intern.

Eldred E. "Wink" Prince Jr. was presented the Student Affairs Division Award, which honors faculty who have made significant contributions to the quality of student life through participation and leadership in the co-curricular activities of the university. Prince joined the Coastal faculty in 1987 and has been an active member of Coastal's Student Affairs Committee and an adviser to Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority. He earned a Ph.D. in history from the University of South Carolina in 1993, a master's degree in 1988 and a bachelor's degree in 1972, both from the University of South Carolina.

Sara L. Sanders, associate professor of English, received the Distinguished Teacher-Scholar Lecturer Award. Sponsored by Horry Telephone Cooperative, this award was initiated in 1996 to recognize faculty members who have distinguished themselves as teachers, scholars and communicators. During the fall, the recipient delivers a public lecture drawn from his or her area of expertise. Sanders joined the Coastal faculty in 1987 and directed the university Honors Program from 1992 to 1996. She earned a Ph.D. in linguistics from the University of South Carolina in 1981, a master's degree in linguistics from the University of South Carolina in 1978, and a bachelor's degree in English from the Baptist College of Charleston in 1976. Her interest in international education has led to teaching assignments in Russia, Poland, Italy and Uruguay. During recent summers she has been a visiting professor in the School of International Studies at St. Michael's College in Vermont. Her lecture this fall is entitled "The Story Way of Knowing" and will demonstrate how narrative can influence lifelong learning.

Richard N. Weldon, tourism research coordinator in the E. Craig Wall Sr. School of Business Administration and Computer Science, received the Teacher of the Year Award, which recognizes faculty who have demonstrated excellence in teaching. Weldon has served as an instructor and an adjunct at Coastal and has taught courses in commercial law and the legal environment of business. He earned a juris doctor degree from the University of South Carolina School of Law in 1991 and a bachelor's degree in political science from Coastal Carolina in 1988. Weldon has a private law practice.

Department awards were presented to 26 students in recognition of outstanding academic accomplishments and contributions to the academic quality of their respective departments. Candidates for academic awards are nominated by respective department faculty.

Peter Barr, dean of the E. Craig Wall Sr. School of Business Administration and Computer Science, led the presentation of the following awards:

- Accounting - Gregory Ackerman of Johnsonville
- Finance - Tomas Malik of Bratislava, Slovakia
- Management - Amy Cannon of Loris,
- Marketing - Roberta Croteau of Murrells Inlet
- Computer Science - Robin Boyea of Myrtle Beach
- Wall Street Journal Academic Award - Tomas Malik of Bratislava, Slovakia
- Computer Science - Robin Boyea of Myrtle Beach

Dennis G. Wiseman, dean of the School of Education and Graduate Studies, led the presentation of the following awards:

- Early Childhood Education - Alisha Adkins of Conway
- Elementary Education - Traci Figler of Albany, N.Y.
- Secondary Education - Lakesha Doctor of Loris
- Health and Physical Education - Martha Dimaio of Aynor
- Recreation - Howard Watts of Conway

John B. Durrell, dean of the School of Humanities and Fine Arts, led the presentation of the following awards:

- Art Studio - Lee R. Jones Jr. of Little River
- English - James S. Guignard of Charlotte, N.C.
- Foreign Languages - Christine Delannay of Myrtle Beach
- History - Jason R. Baxley of Hemingway
- Music - Olindo Marseglia III of Columbia
- Philosophy and Religion - Vanessa Haar of Myrtle Beach
- Theater - Brian P. Roth of Damascus, Md.

Valgene C. Dunham, dean of the School of Natural and Applied Sciences, led the presentation of the following awards:

- Biology - Jennifer Cardinal of Conway
- Chemistry - Christine Forsythe of Poquoson, Va.
- Marine Science - Caryn Self Sullivan of Fredericksburg, Va.
- Mathematics - Heidi Zeleznik of Poughkeepsie, N.Y.
- Psychology - Linda Petursdottir of Hafnarfjordur, Iceland.
- Sociology - Dorothy Breckner of Myrtle Beach

Lisa Daniel Lawn of Pawleys Island received the Interdisciplinary Studies Award from program director John Vrooman, director of advisement and retention.

Marios Katsioloudes, director of Coastal's Honors Program, led the presentation of the following awards to students in the Honors Program:

- Gregory Ackerman of Myrtle Beach - Accounting
- Daniel C. Aronson of Myrtle Beach - Marketing
- Brian K. Batten of Chesterfield, Va. - Marine Science
- Pamela M. Behm of Falmouth, Va. - Marine Science, Applied Mathematics
- Byron G. Carle of Loris - Art Studio
- Brian D. Forbus of Myrtle Beach - Biology
- Christopher Newton of Conway - Political Science and

Check out Coastal's appearance on Rivertalk

Coastal Carolina University will be featured on the television program Rivertalk, from May 5 through 9. The program may be viewed on:

- Time Warner Cable, Channel 47: 6 a.m., noon, 6 p.m.
- Horry Telephone Cablevision, Channel 4: Noon, 2 p.m., 4 p.m., 6 p.m.

For more information, contact the Office of Public Information at extension 2102. ♦

History

- Jason L. Peaslee of Surfside Beach - Biology and Marine Science
- Donya T. Smith of Myrtle Beach - Management
- Heather Roberts of Great Falls - Applied Mathematics and Marine Science
- Helen Zeleznik of Poughkeepsie, N.Y. - Applied Mathematics and Marine Science

The more than 260 members of Coastal's 12 honor societies and the 42 students listed in Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities also were acknowledged. ♦

Mace on display in Kimbel Library

The Coastal Carolina University mace will be on display in Kimbel Library through Thursday, May 8. The May 10 Commencement will mark the first time the mace will be used during an official convocation of the university.

The mace was commissioned by the Horry County Higher Education Commission and was officially presented to the university during the April 18 Board of Trustees meeting. ♦

In appreciation

"I want to express my sincere appreciation to everyone at Coastal for the many acts of kindness shown to me and my family during my husband's recent death. This outpouring from my Coastal 'family' was greatly appreciated. ♦

Jan Blakey, Department of Psychology

On Campus

On Campus publication during the summer is as follows:

Publication date:	Deadline to submit information:
Monday, May 26	Tuesday, May 20
Monday, June 16	Tuesday, June 10
Monday, July 14	Tuesday, July 8
Monday, August 4	Tuesday, July 29
Monday, August 18	Tuesday, August 12

Items to be included in On Campus should be submitted to the Office of Public Information in SNGL 204 by noon the Tuesday before publication.

Coastal Carolina University is an affirmative action, equal opportunity institution.

Coastal hosts Jump for the Sun program

Coastal Carolina University will host "Jump for the Sun II, A Collaborative Research Project Designed to Encourage Girls and Women in Math and Science" beginning in June 1997 and continuing through May 2000.

Sally Z. Hare and Mary Crowe recently were awarded a National Science Foundation grant for $900,000 to fund the program through the next three years. Part of the grant will be used to fund a teacher-in-residence position beginning this year and for the following two academic years.

By June 1, 18 students from the middle schools of Horry County will be chosen to participate in the 1997-1998 program, as well as 18 teachers—two from each middle school in the county. The parents of the students also will be involved in the program. These students will take part in a number of science/education-related projects throughout the year, including teaching elementary school students at the South Carolina Children's Museum. The Jump for the Sun program also will include Environmental Institute, an intensive summer program, from July 21 to 31, 1997. Based on the information presented at the institute, students will select, as a group, a specific environmental topic which will serve as the core of the next nine-month program.

Another aspect of Jump for the Sun will involve changing how science is taught to Coastal's education majors.

The project goals are (1) to create permanent changes in the science and math climates for students, both in the school district and in the preparation of teachers at the university; (2) to create hands-on learning opportunities in science and math at the South Carolina Children's Museum and to showcase girls and women as leaders and teachers in presenting exhibits; (3) to empower participants to make a difference in protecting our environment; and (4) to create awareness in parents and teachers to make a difference in the ways we are raising and motivating female students in science and math.

For more information, contact the Center for Education and Community at extension 2667. ♦

National leadership society inducts 11 students

Eleven students were inducted into the Coastal Carolina University Circle of Omicron Delta Kappa for the 1997 spring semester.

Omicron Delta Kappa is a national honor society that recognizes achievement in scholarship, athletics, campus or community service, mass media and the creative and performing arts.

The students are:

- Ralph Argondizzo, junior elementary education music major of North Myrtle Beach;
- Megan Dombrowski, junior accounting major of Myrtle Beach;
- Jennifer Fluet, junior marine science major of Leominster, Mass.;
- Meagan Fuller, senior secondary elementary education music major of Belvidere, Ill.;
- Steve Kocot, senior elementary education major of Myrtle Beach;
- Scott Hadeka, senior management major of Myrtle Beach;
- Tomas Malik, senior finance major of Surfside Beach;
- Linda Petursdottir, senior psychology major of Hafnarfjordur, Iceland;
- Markus Rechsteiner, junior finance major of Myrtle Beach;
- Donald Shock, senior marine science major of St. Jacob, Ill.; and
- Shae Tetterton, senior history major of Conway. ♦

COASTAL CAROLINA PEOPLE

Lance Bedwell and Gilbert Hunt had their article "Perceptions of a Middle Level Field Experience by Preservice High School Teachers," published in the February-March, 1997 Volume of The High School Journal.

Steve Berkowitz made a presentation at Earth Day activities at Brookgreen Gardens.

Mary Crowe delivered a presentation discussing butterflies which are common to our region at the Waccamaw Audubon Society meeting on May 1.

Jackie Gmuca has presented three papers recently: "Dimensions of Magic Realism in Laur Esquivel's Like Water for Chocolate" at the 18th Annual Conference on the Fantastic, held at Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.; "An Issue of 'Fareness': First Generation College Students Become Working Class Academic/Scholars," co-presented at the 10th Annual Women's Studies Conference held at USC Columbia; and "Southern Children's Periodical Literature During Reconstruction" co-presented at the Second Biennial Conference on Modern Critical Approaches to Children's Literature held in Nashville, Tenn. Gmuca also is serving a second term as president of the Carolinas Symposium for British Studies.

Lois Graff has been named in the 20th Edition of Marquis Who's Who of American Women.

Emory Helms, Gilbert Hunt and Lance Bedwell had their article "Pre-service Practicum Experiences: Anticipated vs. Encountered Problems" published in the spring 1997 volume of South Carolina Middle School Association Journal.

Gilbert Hunt, Dennis Wiseman and Sandra Bowden had their textbook, The Middle Level Teachers' Handbook: Becoming a Reflective Practitioner, accepted for publication by Charles Thomas Publisher, Ltd. The publication date is set for early fall 1997.

Allen Michie presented a paper, "A Keen, Laughing, Hare-Brained Vein of Home-Felt Truth: The Richardson/Fielding Rivalry in the Nineteenth Century," at the American Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies conference held in Nashville, Tenn., April 12.

Paul Peterson's essay, "Ronald Reagan and the Reformation of American Conservatism," has been published in Ronald Reagan's America, edited by Eric J. Schmertz, Natalie Datlof and Alexej Ugrinsky and published by Greenwood Press. This essay is an extended version of the paper Peterson presented at the 1993 Hofstra University conference on the Reagan presidency.

Jose Sanjines has had several articles accepted for publication. "The Screen of Our Dreams: Christian Metz and the Horizons of the Imaginary" was published in Semiotica: Journal of the International Association for Semiotic Studies, edited by Thomas A. Sebeok, (1996). His review of Elzbieta Szoka's book A Semiotic Study of Three Plays by Plinio Marcos was published in the Interdisciplinary Journal for Germanic Linguistics and Semiotic Analysis, fall 1996 issue; and "Conscious Illusions: The Problem of the Cinematic Frame" was published in Semiotics Around the World: Synthesis in Diversity (Proceedings of the Fifth Congress of the International Association for Semiotic Studies, Berkeley 1994) edited by Irmengard Rauch and Gerald F. Carr. Sanjines also presented a paper, "Exuberance and Frame in Like Water for Chocolate" at the 44th Annual Conference of the South Eastern Council on Latin American Studies (SECOLAS) held in San Jose, Costa Rica, Feb. 28. He also served as a contributing editor in the new issue of the journal Point of Contact. This special issue is titled "Eye on Cinema," Winter/Spring 1997.

Subhash Saxena made a presentation, "Modern Day Compass and Sraighted Geometer's Sketchpad and Geometry Teacher's Dream," at the Lowcountry Instructional Technology Conference held in Charleston. The conference was co-sponsored by Colleges and University Science and Mathematics Educators (CUSME) of South Carolina. As a member of the executive committee, Saxena also participated in the CUSME deliberations in Charleston.

Phil Schneider's article "A note on Mr. DeMorgan" was published in the Journal of the American Philosophical Association, spring 1997 issue. The article deals with solving a long-standing problem in the symbology of modern propositional logic.

Birthdays in May

5	Sharon Tully
6	Carolyn Hickman-Williams
8	Darnell Magwood
	Mark Mathews
	Homer Schofield
	Edward Smith
9	John Goodwin
	Frances Richmond
11	Joe Mazurkiewicz
16	Stephen Bush
	Dennis Rauch
17	Neil Gielstra
	Shirell Mishoe
18	Lynne Brock
	Nelljean Rice
20	Sally Counihan
	Nila Hutchinson
22	David Parker
24	Blake Deegan
	Kevin Jenerette
25	Barbara D. Scott
26	Sue Colvard
	Henry Robinson

End of semester celebration

The final Singleton House spring semester activity for Singleton House members will be Thursday, May 8 at the Singleton House. The celebration will begin at 4:30 p.m.; food will be served at approximately 5:30 p.m. Grading of final exams during the festivities will be frowned upon.

Singleton House membership is open to faculty and staff. Dues are $20 per semester.

For more information or to join Singleton House, contact Joan Piroch at extension 2271. ♦

Order lab manuals now

Printing Services urges faculty who plan to use lab manuals that will be printed on campus to please expedite the information to their facility as soon as possible, preferably before the faculty leave campus for the summer.

Printing Services personnel are preparing for both summer sessions and the fall semester; therefore, in order to guarantee that the lab manuals will be available in the Bookstore for the students when they are needed the lab manuals should be submitted for printing immediately.

Your cooperation is appreciated. For more information, contact Jeannie Turner at extension 2921. ♦

Campus Menus

THE CAFE

Lunch menu week of May 5:

Monday: Baked Barbecue Chicken; Philly Cheese Steak Sub; Pizza

Tuesday: Lemon Baked Chicken; Spaghetti with Meatballs; Hot Turkey and Cheese Pocket; Marinated Chicken Breast

Wednesday: Fried Chicken; Carved Pork; Beef Chimichanga

Thursday: Chicken Parmesan; Hamburger Steak; Baked Zita; Veggy Pot Pie; Marinated Chicken Breast

Friday: Chicken Kabobs; Turkey Tetrazini; Beef Lo Mein

Note: Vegetarian selections, hamburgers, hot dogs and grilled sandwiches also are available at The Cafe in addition to the menu items listed.

CAMPUS STATION

Week of May 5:

Monday: Jerk Chicken or Spaghetti Marinara

Tuesday: Beef and Broccoli Stir Fry or Chicken Fajita

Wednesday: Chicken Stir Fry or Beef Stroganoff

Thursday: Hawaiian Chicken or Rainbow Tortellini

Alfredo

Friday: Meatball Sub or Chicken Pot Pie

Note: Menus are subject to change due to product availability.

Campus Dining Services will be closed Saturday,

May 10 through Sunday, June 8; and reopen

Monday, June 9. For more information, contact Evan

Klingman at extension 2365.

Dr. Campbell
 May 5, 1997
 P. O. Box 261954 • Conway, SC 29528-6054
 Office of Public Information
 COASTAL CAROLINA UNIVERSITY

On Campus Calendar

MAY

5
Final exams for Regular Spring classes continues through Friday, May 9

6
Final exams for Spring II (T, TH classes)
La Table Francaise-French Conversation Table
 1 to 2 p.m.; The Cafe
 Suzanne Thompson, Randall Wells and Dale Collins
M.A.T. Testing
 3 p.m., PRIN 215
 Linda Ford
Relationship Issues, Group Counseling Session
 6:30 to 8:30 p.m., RES HALL M-Gameroom
 Stacy Cretzmeyer

7
Last day of classes for Spring II (M,W classes)

8
End of Semester Bash for Singleton House Members
 4:30 p.m., Singleton House
 Joan Piroch, Colleen Lohr
College Level Examination Program (CLEP) Testing
 2 p.m., PRIN 215
 Linda Ford

9
Final exams for Spring II (M,W classes)
Alumni Association Garden Party
 5 to 7 p.m., Lawn by the Lake
 Mona Dukes

10
Commencement
 9 a.m., Soccer Stadium
 Bob Squatriglia
Residence halls close
Baseball
 Coastal at UNC Asheville, double header, noon
Men's and Women's Track and Field
 Tar Heel May Madness, 5 p.m., Chapel Hill, N.C.

11
Baseball
 Coastal at UNC Asheville, 1 p.m.
Catholic Mass
 7:30 p.m., ADM 003. Newman Club
 Tim McCormick

13
M.A.T. Testing
 3 p.m., PRIN 215
 Linda Ford

15
College Level Examination Program (CLEP) Testing
 2 p.m., PRIN 215
 Linda Ford

16
Baseball
 Big South Conference Tournament at Asheville, N.C. continues through May 18

17
Baseball
 Big South Conference Tournament at Asheville, N.C.
 continues through May 18
Men's and Women's Track and Field
 Final Qualifying Meet, 5 p.m., Chapel Hill, N.C.

18
Catholic Mass
 7:30 p.m., ADM 003. Newman Club
 Tim McCormick
Baseball
 Big South Conference Tournament at Asheville, N.C.

20
M.A.T. Testing
 3 p.m., PRIN 215
 Linda Ford

25
Catholic Mass
 7:30 p.m., ADM 003. Newman Club
 Tim McCormick