Extended Learning extends offer to faculty/staff

The Office of Human Resources and Affirmative Action and Division of Extended Learning and Public Services are pleased to announce a special arrangement for faculty and staff to enroll in designated fall 1997 non-credit courses at no registration fee on a space available basis.

By contacting Extended Learning, full-time faculty and staff may have their name placed on a waiting list. Within two days of the beginning of the course, employees on the waiting list will be contacted regarding the availability of seats. Seats will be filled on a first come, first serve basis.

This offer is available for the following programs:
- CyberPays computer workshops
- Effective Employee Management courses
- Enhancing Your Writing Skills courses
- Foreign language courses
- Lifelong Learning courses

Employees enrolling in the courses will be responsible for purchasing textbooks or other required materials.

Faculty and staff also are eligible to receive a 50 percent discount on selected one-day workshops on a space available basis. The selected workshops and discounted registrations fee are as follows:
- Overcoming Everyday Stress Syndrome – $65
- How to Build and Deliver Powerful Presentations – $69.50
- Cognitive-Behavioral Self-Help Mental Health – $44.50

For more information on courses offered or to have your name placed on a waiting list, contact Janice Sellers at extension 2665 or visit the Division of Extended Learning and Public Services in SNUL 210.

Palmetto Fellows Scholarship recipients

Tracy M. Strickland of Nichols and Scott B. Sturkie of West Columbia recipients of Palmetto Fellows Scholarships for the 1997-1998 academic year, are enrolled as freshmen at Coastal Carolina University. Gregory S. Evans of Bennettsville, also a Palmetto Fellow, is beginning his second year at Coastal this fall.

The Palmetto Fellows Scholarship was established by the South Carolina Commission on Higher Education to foster scholarship among the state's post-secondary students and to retain outstanding South Carolina high school graduates in the state through awards based on scholarship and achievement. Recipients are chosen on the basis of their PSAT/SAT scores, grade point averages, class rank, participation in extracurricular activities, leadership abilities and letters of recommendation.

Palmetto Fellows are eligible to receive a scholarship award of $5,000, which is renewable annually for up to four years if eligibility criteria are met. Seven hundred eighty-one 1997 high school graduates from South Carolina were named Palmetto Fellows. Strickland is majoring in marketing; Sturkie is majoring in management; and Evans is majoring in biology.

CINO Club begins annual fundraising campaign

The CINO Club, which is the Coastal Carolina University athletics booster club, has begun its annual campaign for scholarship money to support student-athletes. More than 40 volunteers will be actively involved to help the club reach its goal of $80,000 and a membership of more than 300.

A campus team has been established to solicit faculty and staff participation in the CINO Club. All donations will be used for scholarships for Coastal's student athletes.

To get involved or to join CINO Club, contact Dave Blank at extension 2666.

Vehicle parking passes for visitors required

Vehicle parking passes are required for visitors and are available in the Office of Law Enforcement and Safety. If you expect a visitor on campus, please request a Visitors Temporary Pass prior to their visit.
