COLLEGE SPONSORS COMMUNICATIONS SEMINAR

The Office of Continuing Education at USC-Coastal Carolina College is sponsoring a seminar on effective business and personal communications. Entitled "Creative Communication Seminar," the workshop is designed to teach participants how to effectively communicate with friends, associates, business contacts and other relationships which require competent communications.

The seminar is scheduled for November 19, 9 a.m. - 4:30 p.m., with registration at 8:30 a.m. The workshop will be held in room 205 of the Student Center at USC-Coastal Carolina College, which is located off U.S. 501 between Myrtle Beach and Conway. Registration is $60 per person and includes materials and refreshments. A 10 per cent discount is offered to firms or organizations which enroll three or more persons in the seminar.

The seminar instructor is Dr. Hilda Lee Dail, a New York-based communications consultant who has developed sales and communication techniques for numerous American businesses and corporations.

"This seminar will teach you how to create a climate of trust with another person," she says, "which is central to developing effective communication. Participants in this one-day program will learn the technology of communication which will help identify and dissolve barriers, so communication can become spontaneous and natural. That's good for personal relationships. It's good for business. It's good for life."

Details about the communications seminar are available at the Office of Continuing Education at Coastal Carolina College.

STUDENT LEADERSHIP WORKSHOP

The Student Development Division is sponsoring the annual Student Leadership Workshop on Thursday, November 18, 1982 from 2:30 until 8:30 in the Student Center for all interested students. The workshop is free and includes dinner. Registration deadline is Friday, November 12, 1982.

All faculty members are encouraged to announce the workshop to their classes.

COLLEGE PRESENTS THE MIKADO NOV. 19

Gilbert and Sullivan come to the Grand Strand this Fall when the USC-Coastal Carolina Concert Choir presents THE MIKADO opening Nov. 19 in Wheelwright Auditorium at Coastal Carolina College. This musical event will be typical of all Gilbert and Sullivan productions, with its spoof of the "establishment" of nineteenth century England. With Nanki-Poo (the wandering minstrel) in love with Yum-Yum (the luscious ward of Ko-Ko, the Lord High Executioner) and even the Mikado of Japan in full regalia. There is never a dull moment.

THE MIKADO is the major fund raiser for the choir this year, and proceeds will be used to help them take a very special trip to Hawaii in the Spring of 1983. Members of the choir and Coastal professors will be onstage and backstage, working hard for the success of this project. Production dates are November 19 and 20 at 8:00 p.m. and November 21 at 3:00 p.m. Choir members may be contacted about tickets; tickets are $5.00.

MINI-ADVISING WORKSHOPS

A series of mini-advising workshops to be held from 1:30 to 2:00 p.m. on each Monday in November. All of the workshops will be held in AC 111.

Please bring your catalog and your advisor's manual to each meeting. Although workshops will be brief, there will be time for questions.

The workshops will focus on how to give academic advice about courses in the following Schools.

Mathematics	November 1	Dean Cicero
Science	November 8	Dean Moore
Social and Behavioral Sciences	November 15	Dean Vrooman
Music and Foreign Language	November 22	Carolyn Cox and Al Hall
Interdisciplinary Studies	November 29	Glenda Sweet
