USC SYMPOSIUM MARCH 4-5

The history of South Carolina's Waccamaw Region will be one of the subjects examined at the First Annual University Trustees Symposium on South Carolina sponsored by USC-Coastal Carolina College on March 4-5.

The symposium, which is a series of historical lectures about the history and culture of South Carolina, is free to the public.

The symposium sessions on Friday, March 4 will be held in Wheelwright Auditorium on the Coastal Carolina campus. The sessions on Saturday, March 5 will be held in the Kimbel Conference Center at the Belle W. Baruch Institute at Hobcaw Barony, which is located near Georgetown.

The symposium, which was created through USC's Council on Regional Studies, will feature a wide range of presentations by professional historians, educators and lay historians.

Session III of the Friday presentations, which begins at 2 p.m., will feature a video study of the rise of the timber and tobacco industries in the Waccamaw Region by Dr. Charles Joyner of the Waccamaw Regional Studies Project; a presentation on the foundation of Colonial-era Kingston township by Rod Gragg; a study of the development of the port of Georgetown by Dr. Ronald E. Bridwell and a presentation on the Georgetown Rifle Guards by Katrina Lawrimore.

The remainder of the symposium features presentations of a variety of subjects related to the history and culture of South Carolina.

HONORS CONVOCATION APRIL 21

The Third Annual Honors Convocation has been scheduled for Thursday, April 21, 1983 at 7:30 p.m. in the Wheelwright Auditorium. A general reception will follow in the Student Center.

All students and their families and friends, along with faculty and staff are invited to attend. Students have asked faculty to wear caps and gowns to the Convocation and to sit in a reserved seating area.

TIME MANAGEMENT SEMINAR AT COLLEGE

Do you have problems getting to do things you think are really important in your job and in your life? Do you find your job taking more and more time away from your personal life? Is your desk cluttered with paperwork? Do you spend a lot of your time managing one crisis after another? Do meetings, telephone calls and interruptions rob you of your time? If you answered "yes" to these questions, you may be interested in an upcoming seminar on time management sponsored by USC-Coastal Carolina College.

The seminar, entitled "How to Manage Time and Increase Productivity," is offered by the college Office of Continuing Education. The seminar is scheduled for 8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m., Monday, March 7 in room 205 of the Student Center at Coastal Carolina College. Tuition is $95 per person, with a reduced fee of $85 for three or more registrants from the same organization. The fee can be tax deductible and continuing education credit is applicable.

The seminar is taught by Dr. Ronald E. Wiley, a management consultant, lecturer and writer from Orlando, Florida, who is director of a nationally based consulting and training firm specializing in time management.

The seminar will teach participants how to control their time, control paperwork, control the telephone, control interruptions, become organized and how to get more done in less time.

Registration may be made by calling the Office of Continuing Education at USC-Coastal Carolina College.

NOMINATIONS SOUGHT FOR ROGERS AWARD

The Student Affairs Committee is asking faculty and staff to submit nominations for the recipient of the 1983 George C. Rogers Service Award. The recipient is selected from campus-wide nominations for eventual campus voting.

The criteria for this award include: a currently enrolled student-Junior or Senior status, cumulative service at the College and service in all areas of the College Community. There is no restriction as to Grade Point Average.

The nominated student should be asked to compile his/her record of campus and community service since this record will be only document considered by the Committee. The completed nomination should be signed by both the student nominated and the person making the nomination.

Deadline for receipt of nominations is March 14, 1983 to the Office of the Dean of Students in the Student Center, Room 206.

CHANTS TO HOST FIRST ROUND DISTRICT VI PLAYOFF

The men's basketball team has won a berth in the NAIA District VI playoffs and will host the first round of play on Tuesday, March 1st at 8:00 against an as yet undetermined opponent.

The CINO club will sell advance tickets at $3.50 for adult and $1.50 for students. Tickets purchased at the gate will be $4.00 for adult and $2.00 for students. Tickets may be purchased at the Athletic Department Office in the Williams Brice Building. Since all District playoffs are NAIA controlled, no season, complimentary or student I.D.s can be honored. Advance tickets will be available until 5:00 Tuesday.

There is strong possibility that the Lady Chants will host the first round of their playoffs on Wednesday, March 2. Advance tickets will be available at the same price at the Athletic Department until 5:00 p.m. Wednesday.

With a 20 win season already under wraps for the Chants and an almost certain 20 win season looming for the Lady Chants, the teams deserve a lot of credit and good fan support through the playoffs. Plan to get your advance tickets and SUPPORT THE CHANTS.

FACULTY, STAFF ACTIVITIES

Former Coastal athletic director Walt Hambrick was recently honored with lifetime membership in the CINO club. In March, Walt will be serving as a consultant with the Horry County Education Department, teaching techniques for assisting crippled children and the severely handicapped.

Dennis Wiseman recently published an article, "Using Instructional Contracts in the Middle School Classroom" in the February issue of Middle School Journal, the official publication of the National Middle School Association.

Coastal's Dr. Ballou Skinner has been appointed to serve on the Horry County Textbook Adoption Committee, which will adopt high school physics and chemistry textbooks for the school years 1983-88.

Coastal political science instructor Paul Peterson appeared on WLAT Radio's "Conway Today" program last week, discussing similarities between President Ronald Reagan and President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Dr. Tim Touzel recently presented a paper entitled "Low Stress Algorithms and Other Strategies in Teaching Computation to the Handicapped Learner" at the annual meeting of the S.C. Council for Exceptional Children. Tim also recently served as a member of the evaluation team reviewing accreditation standards for the Division of Education at USC-Aiken.

Articles by Coastal's Rod Gragg appeared recently in The Southern Partisan magazine and Carolina Lifestyles.

Mr. Bob Porter of the South Carolina Deferred Compensation will be on campus Wednesday, March 9, at 1:30 p.m. in the conference room of the Singleton Administration Building.
