This Week's Announcements

Coastal acknowledges Alcohol Awareness Month by hosting a week-long series of educational and fun events on Prince Lawn to illustrate the dangers of alcohol consumption.

Coastal students who live (or work) outside the Conway area don't have to travel to the main campus to take courses. Three off-campus locations—the CCU Higher Education Center in Myrtle Beach, Litchfield and Georgetown—offer credit courses in a variety of subject areas including English, economics, computer science, history, health and physical education, music, political science, psychology and Spanish.

The deadline for submitting a proposal to the Sixth Celebration of Inquiry Conference is Nov. 1. Here's how to submit proposals online.

The Spring 2007 schedule will be available online via WebAdvisor through Oct. 27. Advisement/Advance Registration is Oct. 30 to Nov. 10. Go to WedAdvisor.coastal.edu.

RUF, an evangelical campus ministry, has its weekly Bible Study meeting on Wednesdays at 7 p.m. in the Student Center, 208. All are welcome.

Campus jobs have been posted.
