This Week's Announcements

Who's wearing the Chauncy head? Why, it's Coastal Carolina University President David A. DeCenzo, welcoming freshmen to campus in a video that is posted on YouTube. Check it out at: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=98sD-LNtgF4>

Coastal's new disabilities coordinator, Wendy Woodsby, has a new location. Her office, previously located at Counseling Services, is now part of the Learning Assistance Center on the second floor of the Prince Building. She will continue to be a part of the Counseling Services staff and work on counseling outreach programs, but will spend the majority of her time in Prince.

The Testing Center for students with disabilities who need test accommodations has also been relocated to the Prince Building and will be administered by Woodsby. Questions regarding testing accommodations and use of the Testing Center should be directed to her at 349-2305.

If you have any questions or concerns regarding Disability Services, please contact Wendy Woodsby or Jennie Cassidy at 349-2305.

As part of the International Summer School program, the French movie "The Spanish Apartment" will be shown at 7 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 23 at Wall Auditorium. The movie is free and open to all.

New campus jobs have just been posted. Go to the online newsletter to learn more about them.

Did you know you can now use your CINO (Coastal Is Number One) card as a cash card to purchase items around campus? The official ID card that every student, staff and faculty member is issued can be used to set up an on-campus account. If you choose the cash card feature, you must pre-deposit funds into an account accessed by your card. To activate the cash account, complete the agreement online or visit the CINO card office at Atheneum

Hall between the hours of 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. To access your CINO card, log on to the Web site at www.coastal.edu/cinocard. From there you can enroll and check your balance.
