DECEMBER GRADUATE RECEPTION

The Alumni Association will host a cocktail reception honoring our December graduates on Tuesday evening, December 6, in Wheelwright Auditorium from 7:00 pm to 9:00 p.m. At this time, the Association will officially congratulate our newest graduates and welcome them to the ranks of "alumni." Alumni and faculty are invited to attend.

POST OPEN AT AIKEN

The University of South Carolina at Aiken is seeking to fill the position of Assistant Dean for Continuing Education and Special Degree Programs and would teach in an academic area. A completed Ph.D. is preferred. The person will report directly to the Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs. Minority candidates are urged to apply. The position will be available January 3, 1984. Send vita, graduate transcripts, and three letters of recommendation by December 16 to Dr. O. Joseph Harm, Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs, 171 University Parkway, Aiken, SC 29801. USC at Aiken is an AA/EO Employer.

REGISTRATION - SPRING 1984

Please announce in your classes-- Last day of registration for Spring 1984 is November 30, 1983. Any student who has not completed their registration is urged to do so immediately. Avoid lines, confusion, and closed classes - SEE YOUR ADVISOR TODAY!

CHICKEN BOG

On Tuesday, November 29, the Society of the Undersea World will be sponsoring a chicken bog dinner in the Student Center from 4:30 pm until 7:30 pm, immediately preceding the Coastal - College of Charleston basketball game. They are offering a special price to faculty and staff - $2.00 - which includes chicken bog, cole slaw, rolls, and iced tea.

This Week is a newsletter for the faculty, staff, and administration of USC-Coastal Carolina College, P.O. Box 1954, Conway, SC 29526.

CHANCELLOR'S INTERNS

Two new interns for the Spring Semester in the Chancellor's Office are:

Mike Monøgeon, a sophomore mathematics/computer science major from Conway, and Ed Patterson, a junior mathematics/computer science major from Conway.

FACULTY/STAFF ACTIVITIES

Dr. Cynthia Terres, Student Development presented a session at the Southeastern Symposium on Stress sponsored by the Waccamaw Center for Mental Health. The topic was "Stress in the Workplace." Dr. Terres also presented a program on "Motivating the Unmotivated" to approximately 100 staff members from the Administration Area 2 offices of the Montgomery County Schools, Rockville, Maryland.

Marianna Hamilton-Fox's art of resist-dyed silk will be presented at the Sumter Gallery of Art in Sumter, South Carolina, on December 4. A reception will also be hosted from 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. by the Sumter Crafters Guild.

Ed Cerny, Terry Barnett, Lynne Smith, and Sarah McDearmon will participate in the January training session for University 101.

Dr. Richard Dame, Professor and Chairman of the Marine Science Department, gave an invited paper, "Oyster Reefs: High-speed Central Processors of Estuarine Material," at the Estuarine Research Federation meetings in Virginia Beach last month. Dr. Dame presented new evidence which suggests that oyster reefs may be critical and controlling systems in marsh-estuarine systems. Dr. Dame was a chair umpire and line judge for the recent All-American Women's Collegiate Tennis Tournament, the proceeds of which went to support the women's tennis team at Coastal Carolina College.

Dr. Richard Koesterer, Associate Professor of Biology, gave a presentation to the Audubon Society meeting on November 3. Dr. Koesterer's talk was entitled "Cameroon: The Land and the People."

Dr. Lynne Smith, Library Director, attended the seminar "Putting the One Minute Manager to Work" at USC-Columbia. The speaker was Kenneth Blanchard, co-author of the best seller "The One Minute Manager."
