Coastal Carolina People
Faculty and staff are encouraged to submit information to be included in the "Coastal Carolina People" section of On Campus. Information will be published following the presentation or activity.

- Darla Domke-Damonte and Taylor Damonte presented "The Impact of Attractions Demand on Lodging Demand" at the 1999 Council on Hospitality, Restaurant, and Institutional Educators (CHRIE) conference in Albuquerque, N.M. from Aug. 3 to 6.
- Darla Domke-Damonte presented "The Effect of Cross-Industry Cooperation on Performance in the Airline Industry" at the 1999 Council on Hospitality, Restaurant, and Institutional Educators (CHRIE) conference in Albuquerque, N.M. from Aug. 3 to 6. The article was accepted for publication in the International Journal of Hospitality and Tourism Management, Vol. 4, No. 3, scheduled to be released later this year.
- Val Dunham and John Idoux were the subjects of an interview article which recently appeared in the national publication Council on Undergraduate Research (Vol. 19, June 1999, pages 175-179). The article, "Integration of Research and Education: Advice and Recommendations from a Recent Awardee of an NSF-AIRE Grant," describes Coastal’s educational programs and its competitive position with regard to the NSF-AIRE program.
- Paul Gayes presented "The Role of Aquaria in Environmental Education, Research and Conservation" at the unveiling ceremony for the U.S. Postal Service’s new Aquarium Fish Stamp, held July 29 at Ripley’s Aquarium in Myrtle Beach.
- John Idoux was re-elected for a two-year term as treasurer and board member of the Council on Undergraduate Research. The Council is a national organization representing more than 1,000 colleges and universities. Its primary purpose is to promote, generate awareness and garner national support for undergraduate education and research in predominantly undergraduates institutions of higher education. Idoux has been an active member and leader of the Council for 20 years and has served as treasurer and a board member since 1993. Among his duties as treasurer, he manages the Council’s endowment investments.

CCU Lifelong Learning Society announces new courses for fall 1999
The Lifelong Learning Society (LLS), a learning in retirement program of Coastal’s Division of Extended Learning and Public Services, will offer more than 50 courses during the 1999 fall semester, beginning Sept. 13.

LLS is designed for adults who are interested in learning, exchanging ideas and becoming more socially and culturally interactive. Members are entitled to special features and benefits of the university, including use of the campus library, free admission to athletic events, student rates for events in Wheelwright Auditorium, as well as special events such as one-day seminars and lunch programs.

In addition to the traditional lecture course, the program offers several day-trip classes to places of historical or ecological interest and to area art museums. Courses are offered in five and 10 week segments.

Most classes are held in the Society House on the Coastal campus. Extension sites include locations in North Myrtle Beach, Murrells Inlet and Webster University in Myrtle Beach.

Only LLS members may register for classes. Early registration is recommended since many courses have limited enrollment. For more information, call extension 2665 or visit the Web site at: www.coastal.edu/learn.

Coastal offers SAT preparation courses
Students interested in earning high SAT scores may sign up for a SAT Preparation course offered through Coastal’s Division of Extended Learning and Public Services. The five-week course is designed both for students who are taking the test for the first time as well as those who are planning to retake the test.

The strategies of the course include determining students’ strengths and weaknesses and developing an interactive training program to help students boost their scores.

The fee for the class is $139. Two sessions will be offered at Coastal’s Society House:
- Tuesdays, Sept. 7 to October 5 from 5 to 8 p.m.
- Saturdays, Oct. 2 to 30 from 9 a.m. to noon

For more information, call extension 2665 or visit the Web site at: www.coastal.edu/learn.

"We would like to express sincere gratitude to our Coastal Carolina friends for the flowers, cards, prayers and many acts of kindness extended to our family during the recent loss of our daughter, Jennifer. Coastal Carolina was always very special to Jennifer. She was proud of her education as a Coastal graduate and received such joy from teaching at the child development center, as well as her own three children, using the skills she learned here. Your thoughtfulness and compassion have meant so much to us and has truly helped our family get through this most difficult time. Please keep us in your prayers."

Sincerely,
Nancy Burton and family

To All Our Friends at Coastal:
"Words cannot express my gratitude for your many kind words and expressions of sympathy in the loss of my best friend, partner, and spouse, Tommy. Tommy loved Coastal almost as much as I do, and he would have been pleased to know of how the Coastal "family" rallied round me in my time of need. Thank you for being there."
