USC-COASTAL CAROLINA COLLEGE

LIBRARY EXTENDS HOURS

Kimbel Library will remain open an extra hour each evening - - until 10:00 p.m. - - Monday through Thursday, beginning April 9 until April 26. This is intended to allow Coastal students some additional time to use the library for research and study during the end-of-semester period. The Media Collection will continue to close at its regular time - - 9:00 p.m.

The Library and Media Collection hours will also be modified slightly during the Easter holiday period:

Fri., April 20 . . . . CLOSED (University holiday)
Sat., April 21 . 12:00 - 4:00 p.m. (regular hours)
Sun., April 22 . 4:00 - 9:00 p.m. (reduced hours/Easter)

FACULTY ARE URGED TO ANNOUNCE
THIS SCHEDULE TO THEIR CLASSES.

N.C. OPERA TO PERFORM

The North Carolina Opera will perform "Daughter of the Regiment" at 8 p.m. Tuesday in Wheelwright Auditorium. Tickets are $12.50. A few student tickets are available at reduced rates. Please support this special celebration!

MYRTLE BEACH FARMS OFFERS SCHOLARSHIP

Myrtle Beach Farms is giving an annual $1,000 scholarship to the Coastal Educational Foundation, Inc., for students here. July 1 is the deadline for applying.

INTERNATIONAL PROGRAM SEEKS HOMES FOR STUDENTS

Dr. Bruno Gujer is looking for local families willing to house exchange students next year.

SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE

Two new scholarships, The Springs Bachelor of Arts Scholarship and The Springs Bachelor of Science Scholarship, will be available to students attending Coastal Carolina next fall. These scholarships were bequeathed by the estate of the late Mrs. Albert L. Springs, who was a longtime supporter of the college.

SPRING ARTS FESTIVAL

This year's Spring Arts Festival began Wednesday, March 28, and continued through Saturday, March 31. The committee worked hard to provide another successful year of cultural events for participants of all ages. We should thank Claudia Cleary, Chair, and Veronica Davis, Co-Chair, as well as the members of the committee for their dedication and many hours of hard work. Thanks also go to John Durrell, Mary Bull, Ed Cerny, Garnett Smith, Tim Touzel, Martha Thomas, Jim Eason, John Eberwein, Shirell Mishoe, Bobbie Lawson, Randall Wells, Bill Hamilton, Violet Meade, David Majewski, Marianna H. Fox, Linda Schwartz, Gerald Groves, Joan Piroch, Sandy Jeffcott, Faye Taylor, Subhash Saxena, and Robert Robinson.

BIG SOUTH CONFERENCE

Please be aware that Howie Bagwell, the Sports Information Director at Baptist College, has officially been named the acting Public Relations Officer of the Big South Conference.

This Week is published by U.S.C. Coastal Carolina College, an equal opportunity employer subscribing to all Civil Rights legislation.

INTRAMURAL PING-PONG CHAMP CROWNED

Mark Roach defeated Jeff Roberts Tuesday afternoon at Kimbel Gymnasium to become Coastal Carolina intramural ping-pong champion. The winning scores were 21-8 and 21-11.

Mark's serve and overall consistency proved to be too much for the twelve-player field. An intramural champion tee-shirt was awarded to Mark after the tournament's final game.

Many thanks to all of the students and faculty that participated and made the tournament such a success.

CINO DAY

CINO Day will be April 6 on the Soccer Field starting at 12:30 p.m. Campus Union invites all students, faculty and staff to attend. One guest will be allowed per person. Admission will be $1, which includes a souvenir CINO Day cup. Food and refreshments will be served with entertainment provided by "Firefall" and the Butterfly Man. Everyone will be required to show Coastal and age I.D.s.

STIPENDS AVAILABLE

Under the Indo-American Fellowship Program for advanced research in India 1984-1986, Americans who are not India area specialists and have had little or no exposure to that country may obtain stipends and travel support in order to pursue research of their choice in that country. Call (202) 833-4983 for information and application forms-Deadline June 15.

FALL 1984 REGISTRATION IS NOW!!

Fall 1984 registration will be held March 26 - April 18. Registration forms should be submitted to the Registration Office during this time. Appointments will be made for students to pick up their schedules and make corrections as necessary.

Since registration is done on a first come first served basis, please encourage your students to register immediately. This will save them from having to deal with closed and cancelled classes later.

FACULTY/STAFF ANNOUNCEMENTS

Don Millus has written an article on medieval, renaissance and modern attitudes toward the sport of hunting. The article has been accepted by Cynegeticus for publication in Vol. 7, No. 4. Don also assisted in producing a short television program on Murrells Inlet fishing for WPDE-TV (Channel 15) in Florence.

Tom Jones served as chairman of a panel at the Southeastern Theatre Conference in Washington D.C.

Marianna Hamilton-Fox recently has a water-color and silk hangings selected for exhibits of works by Southern women artists.

Paul Stanton, professor of psychology, recently spoke to Volunteers in Probation and interested parents in Myrtle Beach and the S.C. Movers Association in Hilton Head. He is also chairman of a program revision panel for United Way of Horry County.

ABWA TO SPONSOR SEMINAR FOR BUSINESS WOMEN

Interested business women are invited to attend an afternoon seminar sponsored by the American Business Women's Association (ABWA). The seminar, entitled "Your Money Matters," will be held April 6, 1:30 to 4:30 p.m., at the Landmark Best Western Resort Hotel in Myrtle Beach.

A recent survey indicates that fewer than one working woman in five has developed an organized financial plan. This seminar will focus on the need for financial planning in the face of inflation, growing medical and educational costs, complex tax laws, and an unpredictable economy.

The seminar will be conducted by Carol Sandman from Carapopolis, PA. Ms. Sandman is a district manager for Waddell & Reed, Inc. The seminar is being held in conjunction with ABWA's 1984 Mid-Atlantic Regional Meeting which also is being held at the Landmark Best Western Resort Hotel.

The cost for the seminar is $23. Inquiries regarding registration and the seminar should be directed to Mrs. Brenda Wadley, publicity chairman for the meeting - - phone 293-3935.
