ADDICTIONS SEMINAR SET

The Fifth Annual Addictions Symposium will be held Friday, April 27, from 8:30 a.m. until 4 p.m. at the William Jennings Bryan Dorn Veterans' Administration Hospital in Columbia. The Symposium will explore findings about recovery methods for alcohol and drug dependence. For further information, call 803-758-3537, the South Carolina Commission on Alcohol and Drug Abuse.

REPRESENTATIVE RESPONDS

Representative H.E. "Pete" Pearce recently wrote Bill Baxley supporting our efforts to improve the dangerous traffic problem on U.S. Highway 501 and South Carolina Highway 544.

SCSEA TO MEET

The Horry County Chapter of the South Carolina State Employees Association's annual meeting will be 1 p.m., Monday, April 16, at the Conway Motor Inn.

A dutch treat lunch will be served for $3.50 per person. Contact Lindy Smith at ext. 269 by April 12 if you plan to attend.

ART WINNERS ANNOUNCED

The following students won recognition during the second Annual Horry County High School Seniors Art Competition recently. The first place winner is offered a tuition award on enrolling in art at Coastal next fall.

Richard J. Harnette, Jr., of Conway High School won first place, followed by Sam Hodge of Socastee High School and Cecil Bromell of Loris High School.

Honorable mentions were given to Paul Chestnut of North Myrtle Beach High School, Lynn Shelley of Conway High School, and Bryan Creach of Socastee High School.

Harnette is a student of Mrs. Betty Hardwick, and is the son of Harriott N. Harnette of Conway and Richard J. Harnette of Savannah, Georgia.

CONTINUING EDUCATION OFFERS NATURE TRIP

Spending part of May in the Great Smoky Mountains, camping, learning to identify plant life, observing animal activities, backpacking, enjoying nature—all this and more is possible in an exciting new course to be offered by USC-Coastal Carolina College. Instructors for the course will combine lecture and activities in classroom and camping settings to give participants enjoyable and interesting learning experiences. Transportation to the Great Smokies and camping equipment will be provided. Individuals or groups may register and have the option of enrolling for 4 semester hours credit or on a non-credit basis. All interested persons should call the Office of Continuing Education at 347-3161 or 448-1481.

STUDENT EDITOR SEARCH CONTINUES

Applications for the positions of student media editors (newspaper, annual, literary magazine) are now available in the Office of the Dean of Student Development, Student Center 206. Application deadline is April 12, 1984.

This Week is published by U.S.C. Coastal Carolina College, an equal opportunity employer subscribing to all Civil Rights legislation.

COLLEGE AFTER 25

The Continuing Education staff appreciates your interest and support of the College "After 25" program held on March 27. Approximately 30 adults who are interested in beginning or returning to college participated in the program. A check will be conducted in the fall to ascertain how many of these participants register for courses at Coastal. Tentative plans are being made to present this program again in late summer. If you know any adults who may be interested in attending, please refer them to our office.

INTERESTED IN PLAYING SOFTBALL?

The softball field has been reserved for a fun game of softball for students and faculty. Today is the date for this game at 2:00 p.m. Bats and softballs will be provided, but you should supply your own glove. Sign-up sheets are located on bulletin boards around campus, so just sign in and come out and show your skills.

Also, the Seventh Annual Faculty-Alumni Softball game will be played April 12 at 4 p.m. at the college. Any faculty member interested in playing should call Terry Barnett at 131. Alumni should call Debbie Schmitt at 117.

CAROLINA SYMPOSIUM

The Carolinas Symposium on British Studies is seeking submissions for next October's symposium at Appalachian State University. The following areas are of special interest:

- Medieval history
- Medieval literature
- Georgian history
- Georgian literature
- Victorian history
- Victorian literature
- Art History in all periods.

The deadline for proposals is April 15th. For further information, call Don Millus at extension 225.

DEANS REPORT OF FACULTY PROJECTS

Ed Cerny has been asked to judge the marketing efforts of South Carolina high school students participating in the annual DECA Career Development Conference.

He will soon conduct a focus group interview with a group of 18-25 year old Horry County residents.

They will discuss "Leisure Time Activities and the Media."

Audrey Garland served as conference chairperson for the South Carolina Association for Community Education Mid-Winter Conference held in Columbia on March 30. The theme for the conference was Schools and Communities - Partners for Effectiveness. Ms. Judy Koloski, Maryland Director of Adult Education, was the keynote speaker. Other presenters included Mr. John Dawsey, Superintendent of Horry County Schools; Mr. Walter Harris from the South Carolina Development Board; several Community School coordinators and directors; Mr. Walter Tobin, South Carolina Director for Adult and Community Education; and Mr. Ned Cochrane of Riegel Textile Corporation in Greenville.

COFFEES CANCELLED

All student coffees originally scheduled for 8:30 a.m. in the Student Center have been cancelled for spring but will proceed bi-weekly or monthly for fall.

FACULTY-STAFF ACTIVITIES

Dr. Robert W. Squatriglia represented the College of William and Mary at the inauguration of Dr. Thomas C. Stanton as second president of Francis Marion College, Saturday, April 7. Squatriglia is a 1960 graduate of William and Mary (MA 1965) and former Assistant Dean of Men (1963-67) at the College.

He was also the key-note speaker at the annual banquet of the South Carolina Association of College Stores at the Myrtle Beach Hilton on March 29.

Professor John F. Vrooman spoke on "Personal Motivation and Goal Setting" to the Chamber of Commerce State Meeting at Myrtle Beach recently.

Professor Tom Jones is a delegate this week to the International Public TV Screening Conference. He will watch and evaluate TV programs from 15 to 20 countries.

Dr. Roy Talbert spoke to "The Friends of the Library" at North Myrtle Beach on "Reflections on a Changing South by A Southern Historian."

He also spoke recently to the Myrtle Beach Pilot Club on "The U.S. Counterintelligence Posture in the Age of Detente."
