USC-COASTAL CAROLINA COLLEGE

THE NORTH CAROLINA OPERA TO STAGE "CINDERELLA"

The North Carolina Opera will present the delightful favorite CINDERELLA at 10:00 a.m. in Wheelwright Auditorium at USC-Coastal Carolina College on May 7, 1984. This production with the music of Rossini is sponsored by the Coastal Educational Foundation. Students in grades 3 through 6 are invited to attend at no charge.

CONFERENCE ON WOMEN IS SATURDAY

The 1984 Conference on Women sponsored by the Office of Continuing Education will be held here from 8:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m., Saturday, May 12. Ms. Magazine Editor Gloria Steinem will be keynote speaker. Several hundred women have registered for the conference, and more are expected to register that day.

GRADUATION THANKS

The commencement committee deserves thanks for their work making Saturday's commencement successful. Bob Squatriglia, Debbie Schmitt, and Glenda Sweet deserve special recognition for their responsibilities, as do Jim Branham, Clyde Richardson, Phillip Ockunzzi, Garnett Smith, Carolyn Cox, Ron Lackey, Janelle Gasque, Lisa Graham, Tammy Holden, Ester Edwards, Ricardo Cerda, Christopher Edmonds, Bud Edge, and Linda Ford.

SECURITY COMMENDED

Our campus police department deserves special recognition for their competent response to the recent campus flood caused by broken water pipes in the EMS building. Thank you, Philip Ockunzzi, and staff for your hard work.

ROTC STUDENTS RECEIVE AWARDS

Ashley Todd Rollings of Jefferson, South Carolina received the Myrtle Beach Chapter Retired Officers Association Award for being the outstanding sophomore student in the ROTC program.

Sherri Renee Johnson of Bayboro received the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution Award for being the outstanding student in the ROTC program at Coastal Carolina College.
