Coastal to host breakfast for business leaders

Coastal Carolina University is inviting area business leaders to the Breakfast with Coastal Series. The program is sponsored by volunteer community leadership organization, the Coastal Advancement Advisory Board, and includes breakfasts with business leaders in the Conway, Myrtle Beach and North Myrtle Beach areas.

Business leaders in North Myrtle Beach have been invited to the first breakfast which will be held Tuesday, March 21 at the Surf Golf and Beach Club.

At each breakfast, President Ingle will discuss the university and its ambitions, and the need for community involvement and support.

The Coastal Advancement Advisory Board is composed of members representing area businesses and

Economic Conference

The Wall School also will host the Coastal Economic Conference on Thursday, March 23 from 1:30 to 5 p.m. in the Wall Auditorium. Past conferences have featured major organizations whose tourism-based capital investments are driving the economic boom of the Grand Strand. This year, the conference expands this concept with the theme "Tourism Dimensions." Panelists will explore various dimensions of the tourism experience that make the Grand Strand a vacation destination choice for millions.

- Lawrence Henry, president of Brookgreen Gardens in Murrells Inlet, will speak on Leisure Initiatives: A Natural Success
- Mark Caldwell of DHEC Coastal Resources in Myrtle Beach, will speak on Where's the Beach? An Update
- Cecil Brandon, founder of Myrtle Beach Golf Holiday, will speak on The Golf Dimension: Changes and Challenges
- Joe Burch, tourism coordinator for the Waccamaw Regional Planning Council, will speak on The Grand Strand Economic Forecast: Applications

Attendance at the Economic Conference is by invitation.

Nominations being accepted for student awards

Faculty Academic Excellence Award

The Office of the Provost is accepting nominations for Coastal's Faculty Academic Excellence Award which recognizes a graduating student who has demonstrated outstanding academic achievement. The deadline to submit an application is Monday, April 3 at 4:30 p.m. Nomination forms are available in the Office of the Provost, EMS 121.

To be eligible for the award, students must:

- be a 1995 spring, summer or fall graduate;
- have earned a 3.5 or more cumulative grade point average; and
- have submitted a completed nomination form, endorsed by a faculty member certifying academic excellence reflected by a "discipline-related activity," with an attached copy of the student's transcript from the Office of the Registrar.

Nominations will be reviewed and the recipient named by a committee consisting of faculty members representing Coastal's four academic schools.

The award will be presented at Coastal's annual Honors Convocation on April 25 at 7 p.m. in Wheelwright Auditorium.

For more information, contact Chris Martin at extension 2086.

Ronald D. Lackey Service Award

The Student Affairs Committee is accepting nominations for the Ronald D. Lackey Service Award which will be presented at Coastal's annual Honors Convocation in April. The deadline to submit a nomination form is Friday, March 31 at 5 p.m. A campus-wide vote for the award recipient will be held the week of April 3.

To be eligible for this award, students must meet the following criteria:

Talley's Folly performed in Little Theater

Coastal Carolina University Theater will perform Talley's Folly, a 1980 Pulitzer Prize-winning romance written by Lanford Wilson, on Friday, March 31 and Saturday, April 1 at 7:30 p.m., and Sunday, April 2 at 3 p.m. in the Little Theater in the Admissions Building. Tickets are $5, $3 for students and are available in advance at the Wheelwright Box Office or at the door.

The play depicts the 1940s courtship of a shy Missouri spinster, Sally Talley, by brash New York accountant Matt Friedman. The wooing takes place in a ramshackle gingerbread boathouse built by Sally's uncle and nicknamed "Talley's Folly" by bemused locals.

The playwright considers Talley's Folly his personal favorite of the more than 40 plays he has written. According to Wilson, the play is a valentine to romantic love and emotional commitment. He said his plays usually have six different things going on, but Talley's Folly is one simple romance.

Symphony concert to be rescheduled

The Saturday, April 1 performance of the choirs of Coastal Carolina University and the Long Bay Symphony has been cancelled due to scheduling problems at the university. The performance was part of Coastal's

Business lecture by USC professor

James A. Kuhlman, the J. Willis Cantey professor of International Business and Economics of the College of Business Administration at the University of South Carolina in Columbia, will present a lecture, "Emerging New Markets: Eastern Europe and Russia," on Friday, March 31 from 2 to 4 p.m. in the Wall Auditorium. The lecture is free and open to the public; a reception follows.

The lecture is sponsored by the student Management, Business and Accounting Association of the Wall School of Business.

Kuhlman is co-authoring a textbook in strategic management with Coastal business professors Marios Katsioloudes and Robert Nale. The book will be available in 1996.

Kuhlman's teaching and research focus on East/West economic relations, technology transfer and international investment and trade policies. He has conducted business briefings and workshops on Russian, CIS and East European markets for companies such as Eastman-Kodak, IBM, KPMG, Westinghouse and Coca-Cola.

Kuhlman served as USC's system vice president for research from 1985 to 1986. While on leave from USC in

Library display on freedom of information

Kimbel Library has on display ten of the most notable South Carolina state publications in conjunction with Freedom of Information Day which was held on Thursday, March 16. The publications will be exhibited through the end of March and are available for checkout.

The 1994 most notable publications on display are as follows:

- African-Americans and the Palmetto State E185.93 .S7 A47 1994 (circulating collection)
- Causes and Prevention of Mental Retardation and Related Disabilities: A Handbook for Professionals in School and Community Programs in South Carolina D 6302 8.M35
- Changing Minds, Opening Doors: A South Carolina Perspective on Mental Health Care M 5283 2.M35
- Cutting Off Crime and Violence at the Roots: An Initial Directory of Community Prevention Programs in South Carolina At 855C 8.C64
- Federal Funds in South Carolina: A Brief Overview

Students, faculty and staff are eligible to nominate candidates for the award. The nomination form requires signatures of both the person submitting a candidate for the award and the person whose name is being submitted.

Nomination forms are available in the Office of Student Affairs, SC 206-D; completed nomination forms should be submitted at the same location.

For more information, contact the Office of Student Affairs at extension 2302 or 2300. ♦

The play ran on Broadway for 279 performances starring Judd Hirsch in the leading role.

New Yorker magazine called the play an enchanting comedy. A United Press International critic said "Talley's Folly sparkles with wit."

Director Thomas E. Jones interprets the play in the same way as the playwright. "Talley's Folly is a good theatrical vehicle, not great drama - Wilson presents predictable, vulnerable, character-based melodramas."

Jones has previously directed Wilson's 5th of July at Coastal.

Coastal freshman English major Neal Utterback of Darlington plays Matt Friedman. The role of Sally Tulley is played by community member Susan Pierce.

Community member Hank Alexander is lighting designer.

For ticket information, call the Wheelwright Box Office at extension 2502.

Wheelwright Series.

It is anticipated that the event will be rescheduled in fall 1995.

1987 and 1988, he was appointed associate director of the State Development Board in charge of the Division of International Business Development.

From 1969 to 1985, Kuhlman taught Soviet and East European studies in USC's Department of Government and International Studies, while holding departmental positions as chair and vice chair. From 1979 to 1984, Kuhlman was the first director of USC's James F. Byrnes International Center. From 1979 to 1985, he served as executive director of the International Studies Association; the association moved its headquarters to South Carolina with his appointment. From 1976 to 1977, Kuhlman served as a visiting research professor with the Strategic Studies Institute of the U.S. Army War College.

Kuhlman serves on the International Advisory Board of the Russian Science Foundation and is a corporate representative for the state of South Carolina on the Trade and Economic Council of America and Russia and the U.S. Southeast European Economic Council.
