New Student Convocation is Monday, Aug. 14

The 2006 New Student Convocation will be held Monday, Aug. 14 at 9:30 a.m. on the Prince lawn. Deborah Walker, assistant professor of English, will deliver the Convocation address on the "Big Read" book, "The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Nighttime." Faculty will assemble, wearing academic regalia, in the Edwards Building lobby by 9 a.m.

CCU Spirit Band readies for season

The Coastal Carolina University Spirit of the Chanticleer Marching Band will bring more than 100 students back to campus a week early to prepare for the upcoming football and marching season. This year the band will open each game with a new pre-game show, which starts with a "party on the field" that also includes the CCU Cheerleaders and Chauncey. The first half time show will feature the music of Michael Jackson and the traditional patriotic celebration.

Travel in CCU style

The CCU Alumni Association is now offering a line of luggage featuring the CCU Chants logo. Available in black, this contemporary, stylish luggage can be purchased directly from the factory distributor. Check out the SwissArmy Brand Travel Gear customized product line at www.sevillemarketing.com

There's also a link on the CCU Alumni Web site to help you locate the product. A royalty is paid to CCU for each item of travel gear that you purchase — just another way you can give back to CCU. Coastal faculty and staff qualify for a special discount, but all items must be ordered and purchased through the Office of Alumni Relations.
