Seats still available for bus trip to Wofford football game

Seats are still available for the bus trip to the Wofford football game this Saturday. The bus will be leaving at 12:30 p.m., and the cost is only $20 for students and $25 for fac/staff, which includes transportation, game ticket and snack. E-mail Kelly Moore at kmmoore@coastal.edu or go by student activities to sign up.

Reminder of CCU's 9-11 program

"9-11â€"Memories and Perspectives" will take place from 2:30 to 6 p.m. on Monday, Sept. 11 in the Recital Hall of the Thomas W. and Robin W. Edwards College of Humanities and Fine Arts building. The event is free and open to the public. The presentations include an eyewitness account of the attack on the Pentagon, a faculty panel discussion on the nature and implications of terrorism, a look at the event through the eyes of poets, artists and journalists; and a briefing by two Coastal professors who were recently embedded with troops in Afghanistan. A question-and-answer period will follow each session.

Chicken bog lunch coming up

Coastal is sponsoring a chicken bog lunch and silent auction in Atheneum Hall on Wednesday, Sept. 20, to benefit the American Heart Association. This year's fundraising efforts are dedicated to CCU employee Chris Martin, who is ill. The goal is to raise $5,000. Chicken bog tickets can be purchased from any team captain for $6 each; lunch will be served on the back patio from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. The silent auction items will be displayed in the lobby beginning at 11 a.m. on the same day. Final bids will be accepted by 2 p.m. (Note: if you would like to personally donate an item for the silent auction, please take your item to Susan Feliciano in Singleton 121 by Monday, Sept. 18.)
