USC-COASTAL CAROLINA COLLEGE

RAY NAMED TO BOARD OF VISITORS

Conway businessman and Realtor Charles Ray has been named to the Board of Visitors for the USC-Coastal Carolina College School of Business. The board advises and consults with the dean of the School of Business and the Chancellor. Ray is president of the South Carolina Association of Realtors and heads Ray Realty in Conway.

DR. TALBERT ON S.C. COMMITTEE FOR HUMANITIES

Dr. Roy Talbert of the History Department has been selected to serve with the state-based agency of the National Endowment for the Humanities, which is the S.C. Committee for the Humanities. The board of directors establishes committee policies and guidelines, makes decisions about future directions and program priorities, and reviews grant applications submitted to the committee.

Dr. Talbert's four-year term begins Nov. 1.

KEEPING IN TOUCH

Marianna Hamilton-Fox, a former USC-Coastal Carolina College art instructor, recently wrote a letter to Chancellor Fred Hicks. Marianna is teaching a course this fall at Rollins College in Orlando, Fla., and will have a one-person exhibit of her watercolor paintings and painted silk batiks in the Cornell Fine Arts Center in April, 1985. Marianna writes that she is teaching a class for children at Loch Haven Art Center this summer, and has met many people in the educational and art communities.

FACULTY/STAFF ANNOUNCEMENTS

- A) Dr. Dennis Wiseman, dean of the School of Education, has recently served on the NASDTEC Re-assessment teams appointed by the State Board of Education to review the teacher education programs of Morris College and Presbyterian College.
- B) Dr. Sandra Bowden and Patricia Taylor from the School of Education will attend a workshop of Newsletter Design and Production, taught by Dr. Albert Walker, a professor of journalism at Northern Illinois University. The workshop will be August 9 and 10 in the college Student Center, sponsored by the Office of Continuing Education.
- C) Thomas E. Jones, chairman of the Department of Theatre and Speech, School of Humanities, recently returned from Greenville, where he served as a state judge for the Miss T.E.E.N. Contest for the state pageant.

Jones frequently serves as an adjudicator for similar events in the southeastern part of the United States. The Miss T.E.E.N. contest is for girls between the ages of 14 and 18 who are academically outstanding and who take part in community service. This year, the contestants earned more than $900 for the March of Dimes.
