FOUR TRUNK LINES TO BE ADDED

Two Conway lines, and two Myrtle Beach lines, soon will be added to the telephone system. This is to help ease congestion of phone lines.

RESEARCH TRAVEL SUPPORT OFFERED

The National Endowment for the Humanities will accept applications for the "Travel to Collections" program. This will help scholars travel to research collections in North America and Western Europe. Complete proposals must be postmarked on or before September 15 for travel to begin after December 1. Proposals must be postmarked after January 15, 1985 for travel to begin after June 1, 1985. Applicants may be college faculty members or others who conduct advanced research in the humanities. For information, write: Program Officer, Travel to Collections, Division of Research Programs, Room 319-GT, National Endowment for the Humanities, 1100 Pennsylvania Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C. 20506. The telephone number is (202) 786-0207.

THANK YOU TO MAINTENANCE DEPARTMENT

A special word of appreciation goes to the USC Coastal Carolina College Maintenance Department for helping various departments during a hectic week: Registration, the WKZQ remote, the Glennmore Plantation barbecue and the Faculty/Staff Barbecue. The maintenance department worked long hours in making sure these events ran smoothly.

LIBRARY TOURS

Librarians will be giving 30-minute introductory library tours to students who want to learn how the library is arranged and what services are offered. The tours begin at the library's information desk at the following times: 11:15 a.m. Monday, September 10; 1:30 p.m. Wednesday, September 19 and 11:15 a.m. Thursday, September 20.
