O'Doherty, Pat Singleton, Nancy Smith, E. Thomas Smith, Ethel Stanko and Judith Wall. Ex Officio Members are William Baxley, John B. Durrel and Robert Elvington.

NEWSPAPER WANTS STUDENT EMPLOYEE

The Sun News is looking for a student who will work part-time as a night receptionist and file clerk. Minimum wage will be paid and hours are Wednesday-Sunday, 5 p.m. to 9 p.m. To apply, make an appointment with Jerry Ausband, editor of The Sun News, or contact Meredith Crews at extension 2016 for more information. The newspaper will make arrangements to vary working hours during exams.

FACULTY/STAFF

Dr. Richard Moore, dean of the School of Sciences, and Greg Cornwell, education coordinator at Brookgreen Gardens, have been awarded a grant from the South Carolina Wildlife and Marine Resources Department. The grant will fund a study on the distribution and abundance of amphibians and reptiles at Huntington Beach State Park. Dr. Moore and Cornwell will be documenting the occurrence of the endangered Island Glass lizard, a legless lizard often confused with a snake. It is found in the dunes, marshes and maritime forests of the southwestern United States.

Alisa G. Mosley, director of Career Planning and Placement, has been elected president of the South Carolina College Placement Association for 1984-85.

Dr. Dennis Wiseman, dean of the School of Education, recently gave a presentation to the Waccamaw Academy Parent-Teachers' Organization. The presentation was titled "Enhancing Your Child's Education."

Brenda S. Bellamy, assistant professor of Nursing, recently earned certification by the Nurses Association of the American College of Obstetricians, Gynecologists, and Neonatologists, a group that certifies expertise in inpatient obstetrical care.

TELEPHONE EXTENSION CHANGES

Changes in Kimbel Library telephone extensions have been made. Laura Jurosko will have extension 2405, which was to have been Doris Hamilton's extension. Also Cathy Opalko should be added to the list as extension 2409.

TUTORS NEEDED IN ENGLISH LAB

The English Lab needs students to work during the first and second semesters. Students with good communications skills, who are dependable and able to work at least 10 hours a week, should contact Veronica Davis or Sherill Mishoe in the Humanities office, Kimbel Hall.

SPRING ARTS FESTIVAL

Spring Arts Festival '85 is scheduled for April 10-12. The festival committee is chaired by Veronica Davis and co-chaired by Joan Piroch and Sandra Bowden. If you have suggestions for programming, or want to help, contact Veronica Davis at ext. 2429.
