USC-COASTAL CAROLINA COLLEGE

SCHOLARSHIPS

The Scholarship Research Institute of Washington, D.C., will offer three, $1,000 scholarships to undergraduate, fulltime students with grade point averages of 2.0 or above. Recipients will be selected based upon academic performance, leadership ability, high school and community activities. The deadline is Dec. 10, 1985. For applications write: Scholarship Research Institute, P.O. Box 50157, Washington, D.C. 20004.

COLLEGE CLOSED NOV. 6

USC Coastal Carolina College will be closed Tuesday, Nov. 6 for General Election Day.

WINTER CAMPING

A winter camping trip to Mt. Rogers in the Appalachian Mountains of southwestern Virginia will be Dec. 15-21. Registration deadline is Nov. 15. Participants must be at least 16 years old, capable of running 20 minutes daily, and carry a 50-70 lb. pack for six hours each day. The cost is $175 per person and $150 for students. This includes everything but personal items and hiking boots. Mt. Rogers is a 5,700-foot peak topped with a spruce-fir forest and grassy meadows. Deer and wild goats are in abundance. Contact the Office of Continuing Education for details.

COMPUTER GRAPHICS

An introduction to a new phenomenon in art technology, Computer Graphics, will be a teleconference Saturday, Nov. 10 from 3-5:15 p.m., in room 201 of the Academic Building. The cost is $25 for the public and $10 for students, faculty and staff. Viewers will be introduced to computer-generated graphics, software, terminologies and practices by some of the outstanding leaders in the field. The program also will cover typesetting, color separation, printing and layout.

CLOTHING DRIVE

The student Nurses Association is sponsoring a clothing drive for Waccamaw Mental Health Center. Donations of clothing may be turned in at the Nursing Lab upstairs in the EMS Building.

ALL NATURAL

Dr. Joe Pinson of the biology department will speak on "Natural Areas of Horry County" at 2 p.m. Monday in room 107, Science Bldg.

OMICRON DELTA KAPPA

The voting on the ballot for fall Omicron Delta Kappa National Leadership Honor Society inducted will be at 2:30 p.m. Monday, Nov. 5 in room 201 of the Student Center.

WCOX TO TAPE WEEKLY TELEVISION SHOW AT COASTAL CAROLINA

WCOX-TV will film a weekly talk show in the lobby of Wheelwright Auditorium each Wednesday from noon to 1 p.m., although for this week only, the show will be taped on Thursday. The "Kathy D'Antoni Show at Coastal" requests students, faculty and staff to take part in the show either as an audience or as talk show participants. Because the show will be taped each week, everyone is asked to use the Wheelwright Box Office Entrance when entering and leaving the building so as not to interfere with the production. To appear on the weekly talk show, contact Debbie Putnam of WCOX-TV.

TELEPHONE EXTENSION CHANGE

Barbara Prevatte is now in the Academic Building. Her extension is 2602.

This Week is published by U.S.C. Coastal Carolina College, an equal opportunity employer subscribing to all Civil Rights legislation.

OPEN ENROLLMENT

FACULTY/STAFF

Personnel Services announces that during the month of November there will be an Open Enrollment for the Insurance program. This Open Enrollment will include changes in the HEATH INSURANCE and the OPTIONAL LIFE PROGRAMS.

During this time employees may change the health insurance in order to:

1. Add eligible dependents.
2. Change plans of coverage.
3. Add dependent life coverage.
4. Delete coverage or dependents, or reduce benefits.
5. Change addresses, names, and beneficiaries missed throughout the year.

Also, an employee may make changes in the Optional Life program:

1. If the salary level has changed during the past year to a new qualifying level, the employee may change without evidence of insurability provided they are presently insured at the maximum.
2. Enroll for the program if they refused coverage initially by providing Medical Evidence of Insurability.
3. Increase coverage to a new level if enrolled below the maximum by providing Medical Evidence of Insurability.

All changes must be made through Personnel Services, Room 121, EMS Building.

SEASCAPE PERFORMANCES

The Edward Albee play, Seascape, will be performed Nov. 9-11 in Wheelwright Auditorium. The play, which will be the college's entry in the American College Theatre Festival XVII, also will be performed the following weekend at Converse College in Spartanburg. The play is about a middle-age couple sharing a picnic on the beach and discussing home and family when they are joined by two sea creatures. The sea creatures, contemplating the possibility of life out of water, have urgent questions that the couple try to answer. The Friday and Saturday performances are at 8 p.m. and the Sunday performance is at 2:30 p.m.

(a) Philip Massey and Joyce Parker were among six area singers who presented a concert in Mt. Pleasant on Oct. 28. The concert was at the Presbyterian church there. Others singing were Judy Dunn Sedwick, Dr. Charles Sasser, Terry Gaskin, Janet Mayers, Jimmy Brown and Davis Inabinet.

(b) Veronica G. Davis, assistant professor of English, recently presented a paper at the Mid-Atlantic Writers' Conference in Washington, D.C. Her topic was "Folklore in the Writing of Julia Peterkin: A Need for Preservation." Julia Peterkin, a southern novelist and recipient of the 1929 Pulitzer Prize in literature, collected much of her folklore in the Georgetown/Murrells Inlet area.

(c) Dr. Dan Poore, professor of marketing, conducted a marketing/advertising workshop for the Grand Strand chapter of Service Corps of Retired Executives on Saturday, Oct. 20. The workshop was part of SCORE's overall theme: "Starting and Managing a Profitable Business." The workshop was held at the Breakers Resort Hotel, Myrtle Beach.

(d) A print by Zdzislaw R. Sikora, associate professor of art, has been accepted for exhibition in the "7th Hawaii National Print Exhibition." The jurors were Ron Kowalke, Pritwish Neogy and Joseph Feher. The exhibit runs March 7- April 7 at the Honolulu Academy of Arts, Honolulu, Hawaii.

(e) Zdzilaw Sikora recently delivered a slide lecture on the development of his work to the members of the North Carolina Print and Drawing Society at the Arts and Sciences Council of North Carolina. He also addressed approximately 150 students from the University of North Carolina-Charlotte and Central Piedmont Community College on the preparatory drawings and methods of drawing in his work. He also demonstrated simple colour intanglio methods and the more complex use of colour in his prints.

(f) Randall A. Wells spoke on the technique of reading intervention to a class of primary school teachers in Andrews. The course is sponsored by the S.C. Humanities and Writing Program.

"CALENDAR GUYS"

The USC Coastal Carolina College "Calendar Guys" can brighten your year. The college choir is selling the calendars, which feature 12 men on campus, as a fund raising effort. The calendars also include athletic and cultural event schedules. A special price of $3 is available for students until Nov. 16 before the regular price of $5 is charged. The calendars will make good Christmas gifts, and are available from any choir member.

CO-ED BEACH VOLLEYBALL

A Co-Ed Beach Volleyball Game will be held at 1:30 p.m., Saturday, Nov. 10 at the Holiday Inn—Surfside Beach. T-shirts will be given to all members of the winning team. Sign-up on the Intramural bulletin board in the WilliamsBrice Building. All faculty, staff and students are invited.

CHANCELLOR HICKS ACCEPTS STATE AWARD FOR "INNOVATIVE PROGRAM"

Dr. Fred W. Hicks, chancellor of USC Coastal Carolina College, has accepted an award for the most innovative program in higher education in South Carolina. The award, presented Thursday at a luncheon of the South Carolina Association of Higher Continuing Education meeting in Columbia, was given for Coastal's "College After 25" program, a plan for recruiting older students developed by Audrey Garland of the Department of Continuing Education.

The "College After 25" program is sponsored by the college Office of Continuing Education. Dr. Sally Hare, assistant chancellor for academic affairs, said more than 79 students have participated in the program so far this year. She said the focus of the program is to "orient students who've been away from an academic setting, and to offer help and encouragement as they pursue careers or seek to enrich their personal lives through education."

She said the format of the program gives returning students an opportunity to meet one another and to talk informally with faculty and administrators before taking classes.

The next "College After 25" programs are planned for Georgetown Nov. 26, at 6 p.m. in the Georgetown Education Center, and Dec. 3 at 6 p.m. on the Coastal campus in the Student Center. Programs are free.

BASKETBALL RALLY

Campus Union is sponsoring a basketball rally/mini-concert featuring entertainer Carl Rosen on Friday, November 9. The event will be held in the Student Center from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. The men and women basketball players will be introduced and snacks will be provided. Everyone is invited to come and meet the 1984-85 Chants.
