USC-COASTAL CAROLINA COLLEGE

APO BLOOD DRIVE

Alpha Phi Omega will hold its second blood drive this semester on Thursday, Nov. 15. The Bloodmobile will be in the Student Center overflow area from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. The drive will be dedicated in honor of the late Mrs. Violet Alberto Vanderhule, who died of leukemia recently, and to Frank Webster Vanderhule, who has been diagnosed as having leukemia. Both Mr. and Mrs. Vanderhule are grandparents of Cheri Davis, an alumna of USC-Coastal Carolina College. Support from faculty, staff and students will be appreciated.

COASTAL EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATION GOLF TOURNAMENT

The 8th Annual Coastal Educational Foundation Golf Tournament, featuring former New York Yankee Manager Billy Martin, will be held Saturday, Dec. 8 at Myrtle Beach National Golf Course. Entry fee is $35 and is open to men, women, pros and amateurs. For information, contact Nadine Godwin, ext. 2014.

ELEANOR LESTER PETERSON DIES NOV. 1

Dr. Eleanor Lester of Rustburg, Va., who taught English and reading at USC-Coastal Carolina College for 10 years, died Nov. 1. Dr. Lester had a Ph.D. in English from Harvard. She is survived by her husband, Richard Peterson, who was a member of the business faculty. The family requests that those who wish may make donations to the American Cancer Society. Anyone wishing to send a sympathy card to the home may write to Rt. 2, P.O. Box 176, Rustburg, Va. 24588.

HOLIDAY PARTY

The faculty, administration and staff annual holiday party will be held from 6:30-11 p.m. Friday, Dec. 14 in the Student Center. Please remember to reserve this date on your calendar for what the college hopes will be a festive and enjoyable event. Additional information will be announced closer to the date.

UNIVERSITY BUSINESS PROCEDURES TRAINING

A University Business Procedures Training Series for USC employees will be held Nov. 13-15 in room 305 of the Russell House. The Tuesday workshop will focus on payroll, budget and personnel. The Wednesday session will cover purchasing and accounts payable; and the Thursday session is on travel procedures and the treasurer's office. For information, contact Mina Skinner in the Personnel Training Office at 7-6578. There is no fee.

OPEN FORUM

Dr. Danna Brissie of the Grand Strand Counseling Center will be the presenter at the second Open Forum sponsored by the Counseling office. She will discuss everything you always wanted to know about food addiction from anorexia to obesity. The discussion will be in room 205 of the Student Center on Monday, November 19, at 2:30 p.m.

FACULTY/STAFF

(a) Dr. Dale Molander spoke before the Coastal Area Personnel Association at its Nov. 1 meeting on campus. His topic was Organizational Development: A Case Study.

(b) Dr. Milene A. Megel, dean of the School of Nursing, conducted an In-Service Workshop at Georgetown Memorial Hospital on Oct. 18 for nursing staff. Dr. Megel's topic for the workshop was "Legalities Concerning Medication Administration and Medication Errors." Dr. Megel also attended the 1984 annual conference of the Southern Council on Collegiate Education for Nursing in Atlanta, Ga., from Oct. 31-Nov. 2.

(c) Prof. Randall A. Wells spoke on the technique of reading intervention to a class of primary-school teachers in Andrews. The course is sponsored by the S.C. Humanities and Writing program.

(d) Associate Librarian Charmaine Tomczyk has been elected by the USC Four-Year campus librarians to serve as a member of the system-wide committee to study on-line computer systems for the university's future installation of an integrated, automated library network.

(e) Patricia Kirkland, assistant professor, School of Nursing, taught two 12-hour courses in "Physical Assessment of the Adult Patient" during October at Georgetown Memorial Hospital. She also designed a neurologic flow sheet based on the Glasgow Coma Scale, and held four workshops to introduce this assessment tool.

(f) Zdislaw R. Sikora, associate professor of art, took part in the Guest Artist Program at Rice University and University of Houston recently. He also will be attending an executive board meeting of the Southern Graphics Council in Houston during March.

(g) Chancellor Fred W. Hicks spoke to the South Strand Sertoma Club on Nov. 7 at its weekly meeting at Luvan's. His topic was: "The State of the College."
