WCOX INVITES PUBLIC TO ATTEND SHOW TAPING

The weekly taping of the Kathy D'Antoni Show, at noon each Wednesday in the lobby of Wheelwright Performing Arts Center, will discuss the following topics in January:

- Jan. 23: The New Age Study Group (discussing reincarnation and the unknown.)
- Jan. 30: Child Abuse.

Coastal faculty interested in suggesting topics for shows, or appearing as panelists, should call the public relations office at ext. 2015 or ext. 2016.

CULTURAL AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

The Cultural Affairs Committee will meet at 2:15 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 23 in room 202 of the Student Center.

NOTE TO FACULTY

Faculty members are reminded that library reserve materials should be given to Peggy Bates in Kimbel Library at least one week prior to the time that students are assigned reserve reading. This will allow time for processing these materials.

FACULTY DEVELOPMENT GRANT DEADLINE

Faculty members are reminded that Friday, Feb 1 is the deadline to apply for spring semester faculty development grants. Application materials may be obtained from school deans. Information also is available from Tom Boyd, chairman of the Faculty, Welfare and Development Committee, at ext. 2270. Previous recipients are reminded that a written report covering progress or completion of their earlier funded projects must be submitted before new applications will be considered.

FACULTY/STAFF

Bruno Gujer was invited to present a talk on "Slavery in the American South" during a visit with colleagues at the University of Zurich, Switzerland, which is his alma mater. Dr. Gujer's seminar was part of Prof. Urs Bitteli's seminar on "Cross-cultural contacts in history." On Jan. 3-5, Dr. Gujer attended the annual meeting of International Student Exchange Program (ISEP) coordinators at Plymouth Polytechnic in Plymouth, England.

Richard Dame recently presented an invited lecture to the biology department of the University of Texas-Arlington. Dr. Dame spoke on the flux of materials (nutrients) in a tidal estuary. Dr. Dame also attended the winter meeting of the American Society of Limnology and Oceanography in San Francisco. At this meeting, he was a participant in a symposium on New Perspectives in Aquatic Nitrogen Cycling. He presented a paper on the "Uptake and Release of Nitrogen by Oyster Reefs: A Possible Case of Animals Controlling Plants." During his trip to California, Dr. Dame visited the University of California at Davis and consulted with ecologists there on Landscape Ecology in the Coastal Zone. Dr. Dame also recently presented a talk to the American Association of Retired Persons on Beach Erosion.

Ann Finch, instructor in the School of Nursing, attended the National League of Nursing First Annual Conference on Nursing Education. The conference was held in Philadelphia, Pa., in early December. Topics focused on the unfolding patterns in nursing education.

“THIS WEEK” DEADLINE IS EARLIER
DUE TO SYSTEM PR MEETING

The deadline for This Week, normally at 5 p.m. on Tuesdays, instead will be Monday, Jan. 21 because of a USC System public relations meeting in Columbia on Wednesday and Thursday. The USC meeting will be followed by a two-day seminar for the College News Association, a statewide organization made up of public relations personnel of all the colleges and universities in both North and South Carolina. The Office of Public Relations will be closed Jan. 23-25.

CORRECTION

Brenda Cox's extension remains 2012. It was reported incorrectly in last week's edition.

CHILDREN OF A LESSER GOD

The Grand Strand Play Series will bring the Asolo State Theatre Company of Florida to Wheelwright Performing Arts Center at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 22 for a production of Children Of A Lesser God. Tickets are $ 7.50 and will be available at the door. The play, which won the 1980 Tony Award for Best Play of the Year, also won the Drama Desk and Outer Critics Circle award. The production is being taken to 10 states in the Southeast and Midwest. For information, contact the Grand Strand Theatre Series, Box 7643, Myrtle Beach, S.C. 29577, or Rod Reichman at 272-7554.
