COASTAL CAROLINA COLLEGE

OPEN HOUSE IS APRIL 20

Coastal Carolina College is hosting an Open House Day on Saturday, April 20 for high school students (sophomore to senior years) and their parents. Faculty and staff members are invited to attend. Budget limitations, we regret, will not allow families of faculty and staff members to attend lunch — with the exception of faculty and staff members who have sons or daughters in the age group noted above. These faculty and staff members will be considered guests rather than representatives of the college. Those planning to attend may RSVP to the Office of Admissions by April 1.

DEADLINE NEARS FOR FACULTY DEVELOPMENT GRANTS

The deadline to apply for summer faculty development grants is April 5. Application materials may be obtained from deans and further information is available from Tom Boyd, chairman of the Faculty Welfare Development Committee, at ext. 2270. Previous faculty development grant recipients are reminded that a written report covering progress or completion of their earlier funded projects must be submitted, if this has not already been done, before new applications can be considered by the committee.

INTRAMURAL COMMITTEE

The Intramural Committee will meet at noon today (March 25) in room 204 of the Academic Building.

BARGAIN BOOKS

The Third Annual Bargain Book Sale will be held Friday, April 12 and donations are needed. Please notify Charmaine Tomczyk in Kimbel Library when delivering donations. Past book sales have enabled the purchase of several volumes in the landmark edition of the Library of America series of American authors.

COMPUTER SYMPOSIUM

The second annual Computer Science Symposium will be held April 18 at USC-Columbia. Topics include motion extraction, shape from motion, models of motion theory, computational theories, iconic vs. symbolic representations and representations with uncertain information. There is a $15 fee, which includes lunch and a copy of symposium proceedings. Send name, address, and fee to Terrance Huntsberger, Dept. Computer Science, Columbia, S.C. 29208.

HMS PINAFORE

The Gilbert & Sullivan opera, HMS Pinafore, will be performed Friday, Saturday and Sunday in Wheelwright Performing Arts Center. Curtains rise at 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday, and 2:30 p.m. on Sunday. Tickets may be purchased by calling the box office at 448-1481, 347-3161, 546-0234, ext. 2502, or from choir members.

PANEL OF PRESIDENTS

The Panel of Presidents will meet with the chancellor at 8 a.m. Tuesday in SC-107.

SCANDINAVIA

A trip to Denmark, Norway, Sweden and Belgium is being offered by USC from June 21 - July 7. The cost is $1,895.

BLOOD DRIVE

The APO blood drive will be from 10 a.m. - 3 p.m. March 27 in the overflow area of the Student Center. The fraternity is trying to reach a goal of 100 units.

This Week is published by USC-Coastal Carolina College, an equal opportunity employer subscribing to all Civil Rights legislation.

LD PHONE ACCESS MEANS AN EXTRA 5

Long distance access has changed, following the installment of USC-Columbia's new telephone system. Dial as before, just add an extra '5' to what you already dial: such as 65 - 5 - 5 or 63 - 5 - 5. To dial within South Carolina, the number might look like this: 65 - 5 - 5 - 1 - 441 - 8351. To dial outside of the state, just add area code as usual: 65 - 5 - 5 - 1 - 919 - 893 - 8351.

STUDENT PARKING WILL BE BLOCKED DURING SADAT VISIT

Student parking behind the Academic Building will be blocked Tuesday because of Jihan Sadat's visit to the campus. This will make room for campus visitors, and will help in security arrangements. The college regrets that this may cause an inconvenience for students that day.

JIHAN SADAT VISITS TUESDAY

Jihan Sadat, widow of slain Egyptian President Anwar Sadat, will speak in Wheelwright Performing Arts Center at 10 a.m. The lecture is free. Mrs. Sadat will visit as part of the Kimbel Distinguished Guest Lecture Series. Faculty, staff and students will find that security is strict and that large briefcases, camera bags, etc. probably will be searched. It may be best to leave these items locked in your offices, or to at least expect these items to be searched. The inconvenience is necessary for Mrs. Sadat's safety. Attendance at the reception is limited to the Cabinet and Dean's Council, also because of restrictions made by Mrs. Sadat's security staff.

ALABAMA BAND MEMBER VISITS COASTAL ON APRIL 1

Jeff Cook of the Grammy Award-winning Alabama musical group will be honored at Coastal Carolina College at 7 p.m. Monday, April 1. Cook will receive a Certificate of Achievement in Music. The ceremony is free and open to the public.

FACULTY/STAFF

DR. SUSAN LIBES of the Marine Science Department was an invited speaker in a seminar colloquium held March 13 by the Environmental Science Program of the University of Massachusetts in Boston. Her seminar was entitled "The Stable Isotope Geochemistry of Particulate Organic Nitrogen." Dr. Libes also recently gave a seminar at Coastal Carolina entitled "The Stable Isotope Geochemistry of Nitrogen in The Marine Environment."

DR. SALLY HORNER is serving as a member of a visiting committee for reaffirmation of accreditation for the Southern Associations of Colleges and Schools during the week of March 24. The committee is visiting Greensboro College (N.C.), where Dr. Horner will be the team member responsible for Standards IV and VIII, analyzing the area of finance, development and physical plant.

DR' LANCE BEDWELL served as member of a visiting committee for the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools March 4-7. The committee evaluated Hillcrest High School in Sumter.

DR. JOSEPH E. CICERO debated "Tuition Tax Credits" with John O'Keefe of the Charleston County Board of Education during a Public Radio and Educational television broadcast on March 14. The debate was the second in a series of Public Affairs Programs in Charleston. The debate, which took place at Gage Hall, was modeled after the most recent Presidential debates, with a panel of four, led by the S.C. Sen. Herbert U. Fielding, probing the relevant issues of the topic with questions for the debaters.

BILLY WILDER of the School of Science participated in a computer repair workshop in Columbia on March 13. The day-long workshop was conducted by the Cascio School of Computer Technology.

TOM JONES of the Department of Theatre and Speech recently returned from the 36th Annual Convention of the Southeastern Theatre Conference March 6-10 in Tampa, Fla. The convention featured experts in the theatre arts, including Al Hague of the television series Fame; John Lee Beatty, whose Broadway credits include the set designs for Crimes of the Heart and Ain't Misbehavin'; Polly Holliday from the show Alice; and Patricia Zipprodt, who designed costumes for the motion picture The Graduate and the recent Broadway success Sunday in the Park With George. Jones has presented workshops and seminars at the convention over the past several years.
