COASTAL CAROLINA COLLEGE

HOLIDAY TODAY

USC Coastal Carolina faculty, staff and students will be on holiday today.

GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIPS

Stipends up to $10,000 per year are available for the study of technology and its application to educational settings at the University of South Carolina School of Education. The stipends are open to advanced doctoral level students holding degree-candidacy. Applicants from fields of study outside education are invited to apply. For information, contact Richard Kemper, Donald Felker, or Leonard Pellicer, at USC-Columbia. Applications for graduate assistantships and others with stipends ranging from $4,000-$8,000 per year may be obtained from the Office of the Associate dean, College of Education, University of South Carolina, S.C., 29208.

MATH CLUB

Subhash Saxena and Ray Amarrell will speak at the Math Club meeting at 3:30 p.m. April 10. The topic will be "Bridges at Konigsberg" or "How to Do Modelling."

BOARD OF VISITORS GETS TWO ADDITIONAL MEMBERS

W. Jennings Duncan and Johnny Griggs, both of Conway, have been named to the USC Coastal Carolina College Board of Visitors for the School of Business Administration. Duncan is executive vice president of Conway National Bank. Griggs, a 1974 graduate of Coastal Carolina College, is vice president of First Citizens Bank in Conway. The board of visitors advises and consults with the dean and faculty of the School of Business on curriculum, new programs, courses, external seminars, consultants, addition of faculty and staff, and represents the School of Business in the Waccamaw region.

CHANTICLEER REPRESENTED AT S.C. PRESS ASSOCIATION CONVENTION

A delegation from the Chanticleer campus newspaper attended the South Carolina Press Association spring convention in Myrtle Beach recently and participated in a student newspaper competition. The Chanticleer scored 568 out of a possible 650 points. This placed the newspaper in the "excellent" category for its division. The delegation from the Chanticleer included Greg Tyler, who was elected vice president of the student branch of the S.C.P.A., Dawn Flower, Scott Koverman, Linda Schwartz, Jim Housand and Scott Koverman, who was elected a member-at-large.

COMPUTER TELECONFERENCE

Coastal Carolina College will take part in a national teleconference on Educational Microcomputer Software from noon to 5 p.m. April 13 in room 201 of the Academic Building. Topics to be discussed include educational software integration, what is available in educational software, videotic technology and the second generation of software. Contact the Office of Continuing Education for details.

CONTEST FOR SECRETARIES

Horry-Georgetown Technical College's Department of Continuing Education is sponsoring a typing contest for secretaries at 11 a.m. April 17. A "get acquainted" session with the typewriters (all IBM) will be held at 10:50 a.m. Only 25 entrants will be accepted. There will be a small entry fee. After the contest, luncheon will be served and the winner announced. For information, contact Melvina Snipes at 347-3186, 448-8506 or 546-8406 and 756-8868.

HUMAN RELATIONS

Human Relations training is available for University employees April 11-12 from 9 a.m. to noon in room 203 of the Russell House. The sessions will focus on the work setting, interpersonal skill development, positive self concepts, listening skills, basic assertive skills and expression of positive thoughts and feelings. For information contact Mina Skinner, 7-6578.

PHYSICS SEMINAR

Dr. Robert C. Nerbun Jr., professor of physics and chairman of Science and Engineering at USC-Sumter, will present a seminar at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday, April 10 in room 120, Science Building. The seminar is entitled "The Importance of the Physics Laboratory: A Look at Physics 211-212."

FACULTY/STAFF

HORACE WOOD of the School of Education recently was elected president of District II South Carolina Association on children under six.

ED CERNY was interviewed by Al Ervin of Channel 15 WPDE-TV Florence concerning the results of Cerny's cigarette warning label study. The segment aired Friday, March 29 on the 6 p.m. news. Cerny will be presenting the paper at the American Cultural Association meeting in Louisville, Ky.

DR. WILLIAM HAMILTON of the music department took the student band, "NUTHIN' FANCY," to the Myrtle Beach Hilton Tuesday where they appeared at the invitation of the Myrtle Beach Chamber of Commerce. The band has developed from students who have enrolled in, or are auditing, CMUS 124: BAND. Hamilton is interested in learning the names of any students who might be interested in enrolling next fall.

Three Coastal Carolina faculty members presented talks at the South Carolina Academy of Sciences meeting in Columbia March 28-29. DR. JOE PINSON, professor of biology, spoke on "Significant Botanical Natural Areas in Horry County." DR. RICHARD H. MOORE, associate professor of biology and Dean of the School of Science presented a talk entitled "Morphometric and meristic variations in some South Carolina Cyprinella (Osteichthyes: Cyprinidae)"; DR. S. BALLOU SKINNER, Professor of Physics, spoke on "A new technique for measuring metal surface properties at the Rayleigh critical angle."

DR. AL HALL recently participated in a workshop on "Literature in Deutschunterricht" (the place of literature in German language instruction) at the Goethe Institute in Atlanta. The three-day workshop for professors of German at Southeastern universities was sponsored by the Federal Republic of Germany.
