

10-15-2007

CCU Newsletter, October 15, 2007

Coastal Carolina University

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.coastal.edu/ccu-newsletter>

Part of the Higher Education Commons, and the History Commons

Recommended Citation

Coastal Carolina University, "CCU Newsletter, October 15, 2007" (2007). Coastal Carolina University Newsletter. 213.

<https://digitalcommons.coastal.edu/ccu-newsletter/213>

This Periodical is brought to you for free and open access by the CCU Newsletters at CCU Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Coastal Carolina University Newsletter by an authorized administrator of CCU Digital Commons. For more information, please contact commons@coastal.edu.

University Newsletter

The Week of October 15, 2007

Table of Contents

This Week's News

[This Week's
Announcements](#)

This Week's Events

[This Week's
Athletics News](#)

Coastal People

Archives

Welcome to Coastal Carolina University's weekly newsletter.

This Week's News

Top of Page

Coastal's board approves expansion of Science Building

Coastal Carolina University's board of trustees has approved expansion of the Science Building by 20,000 square feet for construction of laboratory space. On a recommendation from the Facilities Committee, an assessment and feasibility study will be conducted, using the campus master plan as a guide. The completed plan would be brought back to the board for approval.

Coastal Educational Foundation terminates arena ground lease

The Coastal Educational Foundation has terminated the ground lease with Coastal Carolina Arena LLC, developers of a proposed arena that would have been used by the university for basketball games and other events.

Love Your Body Day at Coastal to raise awareness

Coastal Carolina University is sponsoring Love Your Body Day on Wednesday, Oct. 17 in the Commons Courtyard from 4:30 to 6 p.m. to raise awareness about women's health and body image issues. The event is free and open to the public.

'Americana' concert to be presented by Coastal choirs

Coastal Carolina University's Concert and Chamber choirs will combine with the Carolina Forest High School Choral Ensemble to present "Americana- A Celebration of American Choral Music," featuring works by American composers on Wednesday, Oct. 17 at 7:30 p.m. in Wheelwright Auditorium.

Original musical 'Tell me' explores storytelling

"Tell me," a student-written and produced play, opens at Coastal Carolina University on Wednesday, Oct. 17 at 7:30 p.m. in the Edwards Theater of the Thomas W. and Robin W. Edwards College of Humanities and Fine Arts. It is open and free to the public, but tickets are required.

Coastal presents sacred music of 'Mystical Arts of Tibet'

Coastal Carolina University presents "The Mystical Arts of Tibet: Sacred Music, Sacred Dance," featuring the multiphonic singers of Drepung Loseling monastery in a premium performance at Coastal's Wheelwright Auditorium on Friday, Oct. 19 at 7:30 p.m.

Coastal Carolina presents Fall Gospel Concert

Coastal Carolina University will present the Fall Gospel Concert on Sunday, Oct. 28 at 4 p.m. in Wheelwright Auditorium, featuring the Coastal Carolina University Gospel Choir. The concert is free and open to the public, but tickets are required.

More news stories: <http://www.coastal.edu/news/>

This Week's Announcements

Top of Page

"Conversations," a lunch-and-learn program sponsored by the Natural and Applied Science's Center for Active Aging and Retirement, presents its first speaker on Tuesday, Oct. 16 at noon in the Student Center, 208. "You are NOT alone: an overview of community care-giving services" is the topic by Mary Lou Brown from Grace Ministries. Brown is a licensed social worker and geriatric care manager with more than 15 years experience dealing with seniors, their families and the aging services network. All CCU faculty, staff and students are invited to attend.

Faculty and students are encouraged to submit proposals for the 2008 Celebration of Inquiry conference. The theme is "The Modern Life: The Challenges and Advantages to Living and Learning in the 21st Century." This year's deadline for conference proposals is Nov. 1. For further information, go to the conference Web site: www.coastal.edu/inquiry.

Poetry contest now open

The Coastal Carolina Department of English announces the third contest in The Paul Rice Poetry Broadside Series, a competition open to current Coastal students.

Guidelines:

1. Entrants must be currently enrolled at Coastal Carolina University.
2. Submit one poem as a Word (.doc) or Rich Text Format (.rtf) document attached to an email to Dan Albergotti (albergot@coastal.edu). Include the following in the text of the email message: your name, your email address, your telephone number and the title of your poem. Your name should only appear in the text of the email message; do not include your name in the attached document with your poem.
3. The poem must be 40 or fewer lines. Poems longer than 40 lines will be disqualified. There is no restriction concerning subject, style or form.
4. Poems must be submitted by Friday, Oct. 26. There is no entry fee.
5. The winning poem will be selected by an outside judge to be named later. The winner will be announced on or around Friday, Nov. 16.
6. The winning poem will be published as a broadside in an edition of 100 copies. The winning poet will receive a $100 gift certificate to the Coastal Carolina Bookstore and 25 copies of the broadside.
7. The winning poem may also be featured in Archaios. This series is named in honor and memory of Paul Rice, professor of English at Coastal Carolina from 1987 to 2004.

This Week's Events

Top of Page

Monday, Oct. 15

Identity Theft Forum by AARP-South Carolina, hosted by CCU's Lifelong Learning, noon to 1 p.m., Foundation Center on U.S. 501, free

Science students in the Freshman Year Experience (FYE) classes will demonstrate remote operated vehicles (ROVs) they built from 1 to 2:15 p.m. on the pond behind the Wall College of Business. They'll be joined by students from area K-12 schools.

CCU Strategic Planning Public Input, 7 p.m., Aynor Senior Center, 845 N. Main St., all from the community are welcome

Tuesday, Oct. 16

"Conversations," a lunch-and-learn program sponsored by the Natural and Applied Science's Center for Active Aging and Retirement, presents "You are NOT alone: an overview of community care-giving services" by Mary Lou Brown from Grace Ministries, noon, Student Center 208

Volleyball vs. College of Charleston, 7 p.m., College of Charleston, away game

Wednesday, Oct. 17

Science students in the Freshman Year Experience (FYE) classes will demonstrate remote operated vehicles (ROVs) they built from 1 to 2:15 p.m. on the pond behind the Wall College of Business. They'll be joined by students from area K-12 schools.

Love Your Body Day, 4:30 to 6 p.m., Commons Courtyard, featuring a belly dancing performance by Roxanne Roundtree and the HipNotic Rhythm Belly Dance Troupe. Love Your Body Day is a national day of action to speak out against ads and images of women that are offensive, hurtful, dangerous and disrespectful, sponsored by the Women's and Gender Studies Program and the Office of Counseling Services.

"Americana- A Celebration of American Choral Music," a concert by Coastal Carolina University's Concert and Chamber choirs, joined by the Carolina Forest High School Choral Ensemble, 7:30 p.m., Wheelwright Auditorium, free to CCU faculty, staff and students with valid ID

"Tell me," presented by the Second Stage Season, 7:30 p.m., Edwards Theater, free with ticket. This musical, written by theater major Bryan Robinson, is an exploration of stories and storytelling. Not suggested for children.

Thursday, Oct. 18

"The Big Story, Human History, Energy Regimes and the Environment," a lecture by Edmund "Terry" Burke III, a distinguished fellow of the Institute for Advanced Study, 3 p.m., Wall Auditorium, sponsored by CCU's Honors Program, Globalist Club and History Club.

"Tell me," presented by the Second Stage Season, 7:30 p.m., Edwards Theater, free with ticket. This musical, written by theater major Bryan Robinson, is an exploration of stories and storytelling. Not suggested for children.

CCU Strategic Planning Public Input Seminar, 7 p.m., North Myrtle Beach City Hall Council Chamber, all residents welcome to attend.

Friday, Oct. 19

Fall Break, no classes

"The Mystical Arts of Tibet: Sacred Music, Sacred Dance," featuring the singers of Drepung Loseling monastery, 7:30 p.m., Wheelwright Auditorium. Tickets $30 and $25; students 18 and under receive a $5 discount.

"Tell me," presented by the Second Stage Season, 3 and 7:30 p.m., Edwards Theater, free with ticket. This musical, written by theater major Bryan Robinson, is an exploration of stories and storytelling. Not suggested for children.

Saturday, Oct. 20

Chanticleer Football vs. Presbyterian, 7 p.m., Brooks Stadium

Sunday, Oct. 21

"Tell me," presented by the Second Stage Season, 3 p.m., Edwards Theater, free with ticket. This musical, written by theater major Bryan Robinson, is an exploration of stories and storytelling. Not suggested for children.

This Week's Athletics NewsTop of PageFootball Dismisses Three Players From Squad

Redshirt freshmen Mario Tynes, Eric Brown, Jr. and Ricky Johnson were dismissed

immediately from the CCU Football team for violation of athletic department policy.

Baseball Trio Ranked in Nation's Best by Rivals.com

Tommy Baldrige and David Sappelt were named two of the six best outfielders in the country, while Bobby Gagg was the 14th best pitcher.

Football Rolls to a 51-0 Win over Chowan

Coastal Carolina had 592 yards of total offense in a 51-0 win over Chowan Saturday night at Brooks Stadium, snapping a three-game skid.

Women's Golf Finishes As Runner-Up at LPGA International Xavier Invitational

The Lady Chanticleers struggle in the final round but manage to hold on for runner-up honors at the LPGA International Xavier Invitational, Oct. 13-14, in Daytona Beach, Fla. Junior Ann Maness won the second individual title of her career in the event.

Black Defeats Teal 10-1 in Game Three of the Chanticleer World Series

The Black team put up six runs in the fifth and gave up only three hits in the 10-1 win over Teal Oct. 14.

Men's Tennis Competes in University of South Carolina Invitational

The Chanticleers' men's tennis team took part in the three-day University of South Carolina Invitational. Freshman Carlo Checchia advanced to the finals in B-4 Singles. Meanwhile, the doubles pair of junior Joseph Withers and freshman Omar El Bouskouri made it to the finals in B-2 Doubles.

Men's Golf Ties for Fifth at Bank of Tennessee Intercollegiate at the Ridges

The Chanticleers posted three straight rounds of par or better and tied for fifth at Bank of Tennessee Intercollegiate at the Ridges, Oct. 12-14. Freshman David Dannelly, in his first collegiate event, posted a top-10 finish, tying for seventh at 5-under 211.

Men's Soccer's Dube Named to National Team of the Week

CCU men's soccer senior forward Mkhokheli Dube was named to the College Soccer News National Team of the Week. The award marks the second individual honor of the week for Dube, who was earlier named Co-Big South Player of the Week.

More athletics news: <http://www.goccusports.com>

Coastal People

Top of Page

Mary Eaddy has been named special assistant to President David A. DeCenzo. Eaddy will advise the president and board of trustees regarding external relations, initiate new projects, serve as a liaison between the university and business leaders, build improvement teams among related departments and work with public officials on behalf of the university. Eaddy, of Myrtle Beach, is owner of The Wordsmith Inc., a public relations firm. She serves on the board of directors of Crescent Bank and EPC Services, and she is a member of the counselors Academy of the Public Relations Society of America, the South Carolina Writers Workshop, Mystery Writers of America and the Myrtle Beach Rotary Club.

Publication Deadlines

Top of Page

Coastal Carolina University's Newsletter will be e-mailed weekly to all students, faculty and staff by the Office of Marketing Communications.

Submissions should be sent to news@coastal.edu by 5 p.m. Thursday to be included in the newsletter, which will be sent electronically by noon the following Monday.

COASTAL CAROLINA UNIVERSITY

Privacy Policies | Site Policies | Contact Us

© 2007 Coastal Carolina University | P.O. Box 261954, Conway, SC 29528-6054 | (843) 347-3161