ALUMNI SCHOLARSHIP IS REINSTATED

The scholarship program of the Coastal Carolina Alumni Association was reinstated at the May business meeting of the board of directors. The Alumni Scholarship will be awarded to rising seniors and will be $300 a semester, or $600 an academic year. It will be awarded to one student during the 1985 school year. The Association hopes to award more than one scholarship in the future, but funds will only allow one scholarship per year at present. Applications will come from those received by the College Advancement Office each spring.

EDITORSHIP APPOINTMENTS

The following students, upon recommendation of the Student Media Committee, have been appointed to editorships for 1985-86:

- Melissa Blakley, editor of the Atheneum (yearbook)
- Donna Hill, editor, Archarios (literary magazine)
- Greg Tyler, editor, Chanticleer (newspaper)

FACULTY/STAFF

PAT BENNETT, School of Nursing, participated in Conway's "Pothole Saturday" on May 25. She was a member of an all-woman team representing the Waccamaw Charter Chapter of the American Business Women's Association. The five-member team will be featured in June on CBS by Charles Kuralt and the CBS "On The Road" show. The members of the team were asked questions on why they were participating in the event and where they worked. They also were filmed filling potholes. The team will be notified when Kuralt will be broadcasting the segment.

MARVIN MAROZAS, Director of Computer Service, gave an invited presentation May 19-22 to the Higher Education Network Association at its annual meeting. Marozas' topic was "Faculty Workstations." Marozas also recently presented a paper to SASS Users Group International in Reno, Nevada.
