FACULTY/STAFF

BARBARA J. DRIVER, School of Business Administration, attended a seminar in Greensboro, N.C. on "Enhanced Uses of Microcomputers for Accountants."

PAUL PETERSON has an article titled "Federalism at the American Founding: In Defense of the Diamond Theses," in the recently published Winter, 1985 issue of Publius: The Journal of Federalism. This article is one of three evaluating the teaching of the late Martin Diamond on the nature of American federalism.

THOMAS E. JONES, Department of Speech-Theatre, has designed and executed the peace banner for the Grand Strand Unit of Church Women United. The banner was a part of the 15-mile peace ribbon that encircled the Pentagon Building on Sunday, Aug. 4. Professor Jones has been informed that some of the banners will be chosen for a special display at the Smithsonian Institute in Washington, D.C. Jones' design featured the world's children and global concerns in colorful symbolism.
