JAPAN JOINS COASTAL'S INTERCOLLEGIATE FISHING MATCH

Three university students from Japan will join USC Coastal Carolina College's Intercollegiate Fishing Match and Seminar Sept. 25-27 at Springmaid Beach.

Other teams participating will represent Yale University, Western Ontario (Canada) University, UNC-Wilmington, Francis-Marion College, Clemson University and Coastal Carolina College.

One of Japan's tackle companies is sponsoring the visit of the Japanese students. Leroy Springs Company at Springmaid Beach each year donates accommodations for the Coastal Carolina Invitational Fishing Match.

Dr. Don Millus, English Department, is director of the event. Dr. Richard Moore, Dean of the School of Science, will lead the first seminar program on "Salt Water Game Fish of the South Carolina Coast."

FACULTY/STAFF RECEPTION

Faculty and staff are reminded to get their admission tickets for the Faculty/Staff reception. The reception will be at the Dunes Golf and Beach Club on Thursday, Sept. 12. Admission tickets will be available through Sept. 10 from Nadine Godwin, Office of College Advancement, Singleton building. Invitations are in the process of being mailed.
