THE CHANCELLOR'S REPORT

Chancellor Eaglin met with area press last week to outline Coastal's short-range goals and to explain how Coastal fits into Dr. Holderman's University System plan for 2001. Dr. Eaglin's goals are summarized below:

- To improve student retention
- To seek a change in the Commission on Higher Education's definition of resident housing by 1987.
- To enroll 4,000 students (FTE count)
- To construct a new $5.5 million, 52,000 sq. ft. business administration building
- To have housing for 426 students completed, and housing for another 500 under construction
- To have approval for a general classroom building
- To have 200 full-time faculty on campus
- To have ETV operating a studio from Coastal's campus
- To pursue BSN nursing accreditation and AACSB accreditation in business administration
- To have an athletic program affiliated with NCAA in Division I
- To have a Coastal Scholars program to attract the top 10 high school scholars from the local area
- To have an effective and fully integrated general education program for all students
- To have paid for all college land in the master plan
- To develop a growing endowment
- To develop at least six new academic programs selected by the faculty and closely tied to the tourism industry

A copy of President Holderman's faculty address can be reviewed in the library.
