This Week's Announcements

The Grad Finale for Seniors is Wednesday March 12 from 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the CCU Bookstore. Jostens will be available to take announcement and ring orders. Regalia and graduation merchandise will be available for purchase as well. CCU personnel will be present to answer your questions, take honor stole orders and much more. A Faculty Regalia event will be held Thursday, March 13 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the bookstore.

The Big Read Committee is now accepting recommendations for the 2009 Big Read selection. Recommendations can be made online via the Big Read suggestion form. To access this form, go to the First Year Experience home page at coastal.edu/fye. Submissions must be made electronically. Recommendations will be accepted until April 30. Potential themes for the upcoming year are Love & Hate, Global Dynamics, Cheating & Ethics, and Responsibility & Perseverance. For more information, contact Jamie Graham at 349-2650 or Nelljean Rice at 349-2473.

A competition for students to develop a Homecoming 2008 theme is under way. A prize of $100 will be awarded to the student with the winning theme. No artwork is required. The theme should be a short statement relating to CCU school spirit, traditions and campus culture. For example, the theme for Homecoming 2007 was "There's No Place Like Home" and Homecoming 2006 was "Something To Crow About." For other ideas, entrants may also wish to build on the theme for the upcoming Family Weekend 2008, which is "Building Tradition One Family at a Time." Submissions for this competition must be received by Friday, March 14 at 5 p.m. Entries should be submitted to Chris Donevant-Haines via e-mail at cdhaines@coastal.edu. The contest is co-sponsored by the Office of Student Activities & Leadership and the Office of Alumni Relations.

It's time to nominate exceptional staff members for the annual Staff Excellence Awards, which will be announced April 9. The awards recognize the exemplary achievement of non-teaching staff at Coastal who have been employed for a minimum of two years and who make outstanding contributions. One award will be given to a support staff member and the other to a professional staff member. Any staff, faculty or student may nominate employees. The deadline for submissions is Friday, March 14. For more information, contact the Office of Human Resources and Equal Opportunity at 349-2036 or visit www.coastal.edu/hreo.

The application deadline for Orientation Assistants has been extended to Friday, March 14 to help out with six freshman sessions and three transfer sessions this summer. The dates are:

Freshman Sessions: June 16-17, June 19-20, June 23-24, June 26-27, July 14-15 and July 17-18

Transfer Sessions: June 30, July 21 and Aug. 14

Experienced students who have been at Coastal at least two years are especially needed. If you know students who have a lot of Coastal spirit and would do a good job making new students feel welcome, encourage them to apply by printing the application at <http://www.coastal.edu/admissions/orientation.html> or completing one in the Admissions Office.

This on-campus position has just been posted. Go online to learn more. Administrative Specialist II - Facilities Management
