USC-COASTAL CAROLINA COLLEGE

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE AWARD NOMINATIONS

The Student Affairs Committee will be sending a letter to all eligible students, inviting their self-nomination for consideration for the college's Academic Excellence Award, formerly known as the Faculty General Excellence Award. This award will be presented at the annual Honors Convocation April 29.

Students eligible for this award must satisfy the following criteria:

- be a graduating senior
- have accumulated a 3.5 GPR or above
- have submitted the completed and signed nomination form for the Academic Excellence Award

In addition, that form must be signed by a faculty member who can certify the academic excellence as reflected by a "discipline-related activity." Criteria for this award are:

- scholarship (3.5 GPR or above)
- academic excellence as can be certified by a faculty member
- academic achievement as reflected in honors and awards received

Students who fulfill the criteria and who do not receive a letter from the Student Affairs Committee should contact the Office of the Dean of Student Development, Student Center 206 D, for an application. The application deadline is 5 p.m., Monday, March 17. Students or community members having questions regarding this award should contact the Office of the Dean of Student Development, ext. 2300.

GEORGE C. ROGERS AWARD NOMINATIONS

The Student Affairs Committee invites nominations for the college's annual George C. Rogers Award which will be presented at the annual honors Convocation, April 29. Students eligible for this award must meet the following criteria:

- have senior status and good academic standing
- have distinguished themselves in conspicuous service to the campus
- have been involved significantly in campus organizations, groups, and activities
- have played a leadership role in one or more campus organization or service
- have contributed significantly to the quality of campus life

Faculty, staff, and students are invited to nominate individuals by sending a nomination form, signed by both the candidate and nominator, to the Student Affairs Committee, Student Center, room 206, not later than 5 p.m. Monday, March 17. The Student Affairs Committee will examine and consider all candidates, develop a campus ballot, and administer a campus-wide vote for the recipient of this prestigious award. Questions regarding this award should be directed to the Office of Dean of Student Development, ext. 2300.

MENC FORMED CHAPTER AT COASTAL

Last semester, with the help of faculty advisor Lelia Smalley, a group of students formed a chapter of the Music Educators National Conference (MENC) here at Coastal. On February 14 and 15, at the state convention of MENC in Greenville, the Coastal delegation (8 students and 1 advisor) represented the largest student chapter present. In addition Coastal's Pam Muise collected an overwhelming majority of the vote to capture the post of State Student Division Vice President for the 1986-87 term. MENC supports the advancement and importance of music and education across the nation and sponsoring workshops, seminars, concerts, and much more.

LIBRARY RESEARCH CLINICS OFFERED

Faculty members are requested to remind their students about the availability of Kimbel Library's research clinics. These are 30-minute, individual appointments for students needing special assistance in learning how to conduct library research for a specific term paper or other research assignment. To make an appointment, students should stop by the library's information desk or reference office. The research clinics will be available from February 10 through March 21.

STUDENT MEDIA CONFERENCE - MARCH 8

The Student Media Committee of Coastal Carolina College will sponsor a Student Media Conference March 8 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the Student Center. The conference will cover topics such as creative writing, layout and design, editorial writing, and photography. The event is free to all Coastal students.

FACULTY, STAFF, STUDENT NEWS

o PROFESSOR THOMAS E. JONES of the Department of Theatre and Speech in the School of Humanities will chair a panel on Constantin Stanislavsky and the Moscow Art Theatre at the annual Southeastern Theatre

Conference to be held in Charlotte, North Carolina March 6-8. Professor Jones has previously presented research on the work of Constantin Stanislavsky to the Southeastern Theatre Conference, the American Association of Teachers of Slavic and East European Languages, and will be presenting a paper to the Mid America Theatre Conference in Minneapolis. His current research is on Edward Gordon Craig's production of Hamlet at the Moscow Art Theatre.

o DR. JAMES MARCH AND KATHRYN LUCAS MARCH, faculty duo-pianists, performed a recital Sunday, February 23 in Seneca, South Carolina. Their program consisted of works for two pianos by Bach, Mozart, Brahms, Schumann, and Milhaud. Partial funding for the program was provided through a Community Tour Grant by the South Carolina Arts Commission.

o DR. HERBERT WEIGAND of the School of Education recently attended a meeting of the Board of Directors of the South Carolina Art Education Association in Spring Valley, South Carolina. At the meeting, plans were discussed for the association's annual fall conference to be held at Coastal in October 1986.

o IVY HALE took several students from her beginning and intermediate level modern dance classes to Columbia College February 6 to participate in master classes with Dan Wagoner and Dancers. The students were involved in both technical and improvisation classes taught by the members of Wagoner's New York-based dance company.

o PROFESSORS DON BEKEN, JOHN MOONINGHAM, GRETCHEN MOONINGHAM, AND MATH INSTRUCTOR KATHERINE WEIDERT judged the Mathcounts Contest for the Society of Engineers in Conway on February 15.

MYSTERIOUS FIRES SEMINAR - MARCH 6

Dr. Richard Henderson of Southeastern Research Laboratories in Florence, South Carolina will present a seminar on the subject of mysterious fires Thursday, March 6, 2 p.m., in Science Building room

106. Dr. Henderson is a former professor of chemistry at Francis Marion College and has become a widely known investigator of mysterious fires.

POET GWENDOLYN BROOKS -MARCH 7

Gwendolyn Brooks, internationally honored and celebrated poet, Pulitzer Prize winner, and Poet Laureate of Illinois, will appear at the Georgetown High School Auditorium Friday, March 7 at 8 p.m. Miss Brooks ranks among the best loved American poets. Her readings are charged with drama and emotion, completely involving the audience. She establishes a firm rapport with students, faculty, and the community. Donations are $3.00. For more information or tickets, please call Veronica Davis or Stewart Strothers.

CAMPUS CHAPEL SERVICE

March 9 - Dr. Ronald D. Lackey, College Chaplain, Department of Philosophy and Religion
