This Week's Announcements

Student tickets for Chanticleer football games are available the week of the game only. Full-time Coastal Carolina University students with a valid ID may receive one ticket to each home game free of charge. Part-time students may purchase a student ticket for $10. One student guest ticket may be purchased for $10 by all eligible students (both full- and part-time students).

Designated student seating is in Sections 124, 125, 126 and 127 in the west stands.

Student seating is general admission.

Tickets are available at the Athletic Ticket Office at Brooks Stadium according to this schedule the week of the home game:

Monday through Friday

8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. and 2 to 5 p.m.

Game Day (North Ticket Booth near tennis courts) 1 and 1/2 hours prior to kickoff

Students can still get Penn State tickets through Wednesday, Aug. 27 at 5 p.m. ($61 each) by calling or stopping by the ticket office.

Any faculty or staff in need of extra student help or who has volunteer work or community service that needs to be done, contact Deana Lewis, Volunteer Services Coordinator, 843-349-6503. This work needs to be nonpaid and can range from 30 minutes to a few hours.

Kimbel Library is now publishing a news blog, "News from Kimbel Library". Postings will include news about new and improved services, changes to library hours and information about new databases and library resources. The blog can be accessed at <http://www.kimbellibrary.blogspot.com> or from the library's homepage (<http://www.coastal.edu/library>).

The newspaper service that has provided free copies of USA Today, The Sun News, and The New York Times to select locations on campus has been discontinued, according to the Office of the Provost. Although Coastal Carolina University has subscribed to this service for the past few years, it has become more costly each year. For 2007-2008, the price was about $45,000. This service was eliminated from the budget for 2008-2009.
