CAP AND GOWN ORDERS DUE

Orders for faculty cap and gown rentals must be in the bookstore by April 10. You may choose to pay when you pick up your order.

PAY RAISES FOR STATE EMPLOYEES

As most of you already know, the House of Representatives approved a 3% cost of living increase, no merit increases and no longevity increases for state employees. The budget is now being considered by the Senate. We are asking that everyone take a few minutes to write a letter to the senators representing Horry County and ask that the Senate approve a minimum 5% cost of living increase with reinstatement of the merit and longevity programs. Letters should be sent to the following:

Senator William E. Doar
Senator Bud Long
Senator Tom Smith
Horry County Legislative Delegation
Horry County Courthouse
Conway, SC 29526

For more information, contact Lindy Smith, ext. 2024, or Will Allred, ext. 2309.

DEVELOPMENT GRANT DEADLINE APPROACHES

The deadline for submitting faculty development grant proposals to the Faculty Welfare and Development Committee for the Summer is 5 p.m., April 4. Forms can be obtained from your school dean. Completed forms should be sent to Charmaine Tomczyk, chair of the FWD committee.

STATE MATHEMATICS CONTEST HELD AT COASTAL

The seventh annual Coastal Carolina College Mathematics Contest for high school students in the state was held March 27 in Wheelwright Auditorium. The contest was started to promote interest and excellence in mathematics within the state. Another purpose of the event was to advance proficiency levels of high school mathematics students.

The 200 participants were given two different levels of mathematical proficiency tests. Level I covered up to, and including algebra II. The level II tests covered up to, and including calculus. Winners received trophies, medals, and personalized certificates. All participants received certificates of participation and t-shirts.

The contest was sponsored by USC Coastal Carolina College School of Mathematics and Computer Science, the Horry-Georgetown Mathematics Advancement Council, and the Coastal Educational Foundation. Co-directors for the event were Don E. Beken and John Mooningham.

MARCH CONCERT - APRIL 1

Duo-pianists Kathryn and James March will appear in concert Tuesday, April 1, 8 p.m. in Wheelwright Auditorium. Their program will include works by Bach, Babin, Mozart, Schubert, Brahms, and Milhaud. Tickets are $5 at the door or through Cultural Arts Series memberships.

This Week is published by U.S.C. Coastal Carolina College, an equal opportunity employer subscribing to all Civil Rights legislation.

MARINE SCIENCE LECTURE SCHEDULED

Dr. Bruce Menge, professor of zoology, Oregon State University, will present an illustrated lecture entitled "Regulation of Benthic Marine Communities" Tuesday, April 1, 1 p.m. in Science Building room 106.

DESIGN AN AD CONTEST

Coastal is participating in the annual "Design an Ad" contest sponsored by the Field and Herald. Students in grades 3 through 12 will have an opportunity to design newspaper ads for various institutions and businesses, including the college. We will review the entries and select a Coastal ad for publication in a special edition of the newspaper April 23. Prizes will be awarded in three divisions. Entry forms are printed in the Field and Herald. For more information, contact Cathy McPherson in the public relations office, ext. 2015.

CHICKEN BARBEQUE - APRIL 25

The Coastal Carolina Soccer Club is sponsoring a chicken barbeque on the Campus Station terrace Friday, April 25, from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. Entertainment will be provided by TASOS. Tickets are $2 and are available in the soccer office (the trailer behind the tennis courts) or from team members. Proceeds will go toward the cost of the team's 1986 uniforms.

IIE REPS VISIT CAMPUS

Two representatives from the Institute of International Education (IIE) visited Coastal this week to meet with foreign students, faculty, and staff. IIE places graduate and undergraduate foreign students on college and university campuses throughout the U.S. The purpose of their visit was to talk with students who are currently involved in their program, to learn more about Coastal and the opportunities for future placements, and to update their information about the college's academic programs.

During the visit, the representatives met with three members of the Coastal Council for Internationals - Mrs. Bonnie Eaglin, chairman of the council; Mrs. Elizabeth Shaw, Conway president; and Mrs. Lonnie Spivey, Myrtle Beach president - who explained their organization's involvement in securing host and friendship families, providing orientation programs for foreign students, and other special projects.

CAMPUS CHAPEL SERVICE

March 30 - Dr. Robert N. Robinson, chairman, Department of Philosophy and Religion.
